Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28

Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses, and soulmates, friends, siblings, and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets, and general readings appropriate for men, women, or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors, and hospice, hospital, and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations, and each selection is indexed by author, title, and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film, novel, or celebrity's funeral, so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context. Comics to Classics

Arthea J. S. Reed, 1994-10-01. For each developmental stage between the ages of 10 and 18, educator Arthea J. S. Reed provides lists of books organized by genre and carefully selected for teen appeal. In addition to a detailed bibliography, Reed focuses on the particular challenges for each age group and highlights strategies for parents to persuade their children to read. This guide will help parents and teachers choose the right books for every reading level and interest. Textbook of Pediatric HIV Care. Steven L. Zeichner, Jennifer S. Read, 2005-04-28. This comprehensive textbook provides the definitive account of effective care for pediatric HIV patients. Drawing on the massive and burgeoning published literature from a wide range of sources, this volume summarises a wealth of information concerning the aetiology of the disease and the best clinical care for this vulnerable group. It distils the very latest knowledge of virology, immunology, and pathogenesis and uses this to illuminate and explain management recommendations. Recently, many new agents for the treatment and prophylaxis of HIV infection and the opportunistic infections that accompany HIV infection have been developed, accompanied by many new ways of monitoring HIV infection in children. These new therapies and approaches to management are complicated, but the long-term health of HIV-infected children depends on their meticulously correct application. This textbook explains, helps, and guides the clinician through all these complexities to facilitate the best possible care for children with HIV infection.

Handbook of Pediatric HIV Care. Steven L. Zeichner, Jennifer S. Read, 2006-05-04. This portable and practical handbook, first published in 2006, provides a concise guide to the essentials of pediatric HIV care in a form suitable for doctors in the busy hospital setting. During recent years, many agents for the treatment and prophylaxis of HIV infection and the opportunistic infections that accompany HIV infection have been developed, and many new ways of monitoring HIV infection in children have been produced. These therapies and approaches to management are complicated, but the long-term health of HIV-infected children depends on their correct application. This handbook presents the core information and guidelines necessary for effective management of infected children. Two other important themes are ways to minimise mother-to-infant transmission and the challenges of looking after these children in resource-poor countries. Breaking the Silence. Linda

Goldman,2014-06-11 The second edition of this bestselling book is designed for mental health professionals educators and the parent caregiver this book provides specific ideas and techniques to work with children in various areas of complicated grief It presents words and methods to help initiate discussions of these delicate topics as well as tools to help children understand and separate complicated grief into parts These parts in turn can be grieved for and released one at a time A new chapter is included called Communities Grieve Involvement with Children and Trauma It includes information on The Taiwan Earthquake and how the community worked with children a school bus accident in which 36 elementary school children witnessed the death of the bus driver that was driving and how the school system worked with these children and their families a boy who was running on a cross country team and got hit by a car which was witnessed by teammates and how a non profit community grief agency worked with family school and community The last study is from the Oklahoma bombing and the outgrowth of a place for the traumatized children and how they still work with kids and family today This chapter then contains new activities to work with traumatized grieving children The new edition also includes updated resources books curriculums websites hotlines and another new chapter on bullying and victimization issues The chapter for educators has been expanded including the coverage of topics such as at risk students gay and lesbian issues and self injurious behaviors

Sibling Grief P. Gill White,2006-05-01 P Gill White PhD has done an outstanding job of writing on a much needed subject within the bereavement community sibling grief As siblings sadly are often the forgotten grievers when the death of their brother or sister occurs a book such as this is greatly needed Dr White s insights and experiences as both a bereaved sibling herself and as a sibling grief counselor are sure to be a great help to all who read her book Bereaved Parents of the USA will definitely be recommending her book as a resource to both our siblings and their parents Patricia L Moser President Bereaved Parents of the USA www.bereavedparentsusa.org Author P Gill White PhD was only fifteen when her sister Linda made her swear not to tell anyone about the pain Linda had in her side because she thought it would spoil an upcoming family vacation Linda died four months later from a rare form of cancer called rhabdomyosarcoma White and her family never talked about the loss until decades later when memories began to haunt her Sibling Grief is White s validation of the emotional significance of sibling loss She draws on clinical experience research and wisdom from hundreds of bereaved siblings to explain the five healing tasks specific to sibling grief White identifies the effects of this profound loss on daily actions and emotions and describes the dream patterns of bereaved siblings showing how healing is reflected in the dream state Throughout she illustrates the long lasting connection between siblings a connection that death itself cannot sever Sibling Grief is a powerful mix of information personal reflections and poetry just what you need to begin your own healingjourney

Dying, Death, and Bereavement Inge Corless, RN, PhD, FAAN,Inge B. Corless,Barbara B. Germino,Mary A. Pittman, DrPH,2006-06-02 Based on practice knowledge of the authors rather than on research this book may be particularly useful for those professionals who have not had hands on experience with people at the last stages of dying It is a resource that can be referred to time and again by those who care for people facing the final stage of life Handbook for Those Who Grieve Martin M Auz, 2015-02-25 How can I best help someone who has lost a loved one How do I talk to a child about the death of a family member What do I need to think about before I plan a funeral Confusion bewilderment and a lack of direction commonly surface in the aftermath of a death It is also the time when dealing with the issues and emotions of the experience can lead to making hasty or unwise decisions In this revised edition of Handbook for Those Who Grieve Martin M Auz and Maureen Lyons Andrews offer concise practical topic based lists and suggestions to help people immediately after a loss Rather than philosophizing theologizing or rationalizing the authors draw on their research and personal experiences to provide short but solid answers to help grieving people successfully deal with the countless issues and varied emotions that a person's death is sure to thrust upon them Advanced Practice Palliative Nursing Constance Dahlin, Patrick Coyne, Betty Ferrell, 2016 Advanced Practice Palliative Nursing is the first text devoted to advanced practice nursing care of the seriously ill and dying This comprehensive work addresses all aspects of palliative care including physical psychological social and spiritual needs Chapters include symptoms common in serious illness pediatric palliative care spiritual and existential issues issues around the role and function of the advanced practice nurse APN reimbursement and nursing leadership on palliative care teams Each chapter contains case examples and a strong evidence base to support the highest quality of care The text is written by leaders in the field and includes authors who have pioneered the role of the advanced practice nurse in palliative care This volume offers advanced practice content and practical resources for clinical practice across all settings of care and encompassing all ages from pediatrics to geriatrics Bereavement Care for Families David W. Kissane, Francine Parnes, 2014-01-03 Grief is a family affair When a loved one dies the distress reverberates throughout the immediate and extended family Family therapy has long attended to issues of loss and grief yet not as the dominant therapeutic paradigm Bereavement Care for Families changes that it is a practical resource for the clinician one that draws upon the evidence supporting family approaches to bereavement care and also provides clinically oriented strategic guidance on how to incorporate family approaches into other models Subsequent chapters set forth a detailed research based therapeutic model that clinicians can use to facilitate therapy engage the ambivalent deal with uncertainty manage family conflict develop realistic goals and more Any clinician sensitive to the roles family members play in bereavement care need look no further than this groundbreaking text Dying, Death, and Bereavement Lewis R. Aiken, 2001 This book is a brief but comprehensive survey of research writings and professional practices concerned with death and dying It is interdisciplinary and eclectic medical psychological religious philosophical artistic demographics bereavement and widowhood are all considered but with an emphasis on psychological aspects A variety of viewpoints and research findings on topics subsumed under thanatology receive thorough consideration Questions activities and projects at the end of each chapter enhance reflection and personalize the material This fourth edition features material on moral issues and court cases concerned with abortion and euthanasia the widespread problem of AIDS and other deadly diseases the tragedies occasioned by epidemics starvation and war and the resumption of capital punishment in many states The book's enhanced multicultural tone reflects the increased economic social and physical interdependency among the nations of the world Topics receiving increased attention in the fourth edition are terror management attitudes and practices concerning death cross cultural concepts of afterlife gallows humor out of body experiences spiritualism mass suicide pet and romantic death euthanasia right to die postbereavement depression firearm deaths in children children's understanding of death child adolescent adult and physician assisted suicide religious customs and death confronting death legal issues in death dying and bereavement death education death music creativity and death longevity broken heart phenomenon beliefs in life after death new definitions of death children's acceptance of a parent's death terminal illness and the politics of death and dying

Missing the Child You Love H. Norman DMin Wright, 2014-04-18 One of the most devastating losses a family can experience is the loss of a child Whether the loss is through illness accident drugs suicide or other tragedy the pain is overwhelming and often paralyzing Often we think of loss as death However in our broken world there are many ways to suffer the loss of a child This book discusses how a family can learn to cope with loss of a child due not only to death but also to a custody battle addiction and other choices a child makes chronic illness crime human trafficking kidnap and other issues where hopes and dreams disappear Wright helps readers through the grieving process and assists them in finding God's grace and comfort during this very difficult time of life This book is unique as it is for parents as well as grandparents
