The Lost Child Tom Collins,1992      There Is Hope for a Lost Child Cheryl Meeks,2020-02-19 There is hope no matter what swirls around us God promises to be our perfect peace He assures us he is constantly with us strengthening and supporting us We must pray that God will help us to keep our eyes and focus on him not on the circumstances surrounding us We must ask him to help us grow and trust believing he is faithful to us Hope no matter what we face in this life we are never in the battle alone God goes before us he s with us every step and he leads the way ahead we must pray and we must stay alert in the dark world God will help us stand strong with him because there is hope in him Hope allow us to feel his presence coving us in all that we are up against There is hope in a lost child you must believe      A Dog Without Hope Barby Keel,2020-05-28 A tiny puppy neglected and abused and the foster carer determined to heal her When tiny puppy Princess is dumped at the doors of the Barby Keel Animal Sanctuary by her owners the brown and white boxer is suffering from horrendous injuries resulting from a car accident Having been operated on by an incompetent vet her front leg has been amputated in a botched surgery leaving her weak and barely able to stand With gentle love and care Barby and her team at the Sanctuary work hard to give this brave little dog a second lease of life Playful and loving despite her difficult start in life Princess is desperate for a forever family to call her own But Barby is heartbroken as she watches Princess get rejected over and over again by potential owners who are put off by her terrible injury Will Princess ever find someone to love her      Not Without Hope Judy Kimble Williams,2023-03-12 Settled in the hills of rural West Virginia in the 1940 s just a few years after the Great Depression was the picture perfect family of seven At least it appeared that way to their tight knit community The 40 acre farm was nestled in a valley with a red barn some chickens and a milk cow named Blondie along with two well kept gardens Summertime found the children playing in the stream of water which was close enough to the house for them to be able to hear their mother s voice calling them Suicide Then seven months later once again the children had to deal with the loss of their beloved mother who had held her family together Now what Five children left on their own from ages 6 17 Who would take care of them Would they have to move Would they be able to stay together Scared and once again dealing with significant loss this is how the story goes through the eyes of the 8 year old      Action without Hope Nathan K. Hensley,2025-06-04 A study of how writers from the early phases of our prolonged climate emergency used aesthetic strategies to redefine the category of action What does it feel like to live helplessly in a world that is coming undone Nathan Hensley turns to Victorian literature to uncover a prehistory of this deeply contemporary sense of powerlessness For many in nineteenth century Britain their world seemed so scarred by human rapacity that restoring it seemed beyond the powers of any one individual Like George Eliot s characters in Middlemarch or the doomed lovers of Wuthering Heights observers of the gathering carbon economy felt themselves ensnared by interlocked and broken systems In the face of damage so vast and apparently irreversible what could possibly be done To answer this question Hensley shows that nineteenth century writers and artists devised new ways to understand action and hope They rescaled action away from the grandly heroic and toward minor adjustments and collaborative interventions They turned away from logical proofs and direct argumentation and instead called on aesthetic technologies like sonnets and fractured lyrics watercolor sketches and vast multiplot novels finding scope for action not at the level of the theme or the thesis but in gestures and details Ranging from J M W Turner s painterly technique to Emily Bront s dreamlike fragments and reading along the way works by Alfred Lord Tennyson H G Wells Lewis Carroll Gerard Manley Hopkins William Berryman Charlotte Bront George Eliot and Christina Rossetti Hensley s study makes an important contribution to Victorian studies and the environmental humanities

Truth and Hope Walter Brueggemann, 2020-02-18 In this varied collection of essays Walter Brueggemann provides a lens into biblical teachings concerning the present age of fake news lies and alternate realities Compiled and edited by Louis Stulman professor of religion at the University of Findlay these essays carry a common theme of truth and hope As Brueggemann writes in the preface there is no doubt that the prophetic tradition regularly engages in truth telling in order to expose social reality as a systemic act of falseness that contradicts the purposes of God The prophetic tradition of Jeremiah for instance is preoccupied with truth telling that exposes falseness The prophet exposes the deceit of dominant culture That same prophetic tradition like many others turns eventually to the work of hope telling Such hope does not doubt that the faithful God can create futures a way out of no way The sequence from truth to hope in the book of Jeremiah is characteristic of the prophetic books of the Old Testament These several prophetic voices that gave canonical shape to the prophetic books knew that this sequence is definingly important There can be no hope until truth is told Our temptation of course is to do the work of hope without the prior work of truth Readers will find this collection of essays to be theologically rooted in the concept of prophetic tradition as a means of truth telling Brueggemann explores that without God truth telling is nothing more than harping and hope telling is only wishful thinking

Reading of Lucretius' De Rerum Natura Lee Fratantuono, 2015-06-03 Lucretius philosophical epic De Rerum Natura On the Nature of Things is a lengthy didactic and narrative celebration of the universe and in particular the world of nature and creation in which humanity finds its abode This earliest surviving full scale epic poem from ancient Rome was of immense influence and significance to the development of the Latin epic tradition and continues to challenge and haunt its readers to the present day A Reading of Lucretius De Rerum Natura offers a comprehensive commentary on this great work of Roman poetry and philosophy Lee Fratantuono reveals Lucretius to be a poet with deep and abiding interest in the nature of the Roman identity as the children of both Venus through Aeneas and Mars through Romulus the consequences both positive and negative of descent from the immortal powers of love and war are explored in vivid epic narrative as the poet progresses from his invocation to the mother of the children of Aeneas through to the burning funeral pyres of the plague at Athens Lucretius epic offers the possibility of serenity and peaceful reflection on the mysteries of the nature of the world even as it shatters any hope of immortality through its bleak vision of post mortem oblivion And in the process of defining what it means both to be human and Roman Lucretius offers a horrifying vision of the perils of excessive devotion both to the gods and our fellow men a commentary on the nature of pietas that would serve as a warning for Virgil in his later depiction of the Trojan Aeneas
