The Life and Death of Objects Lars Lerup, 2022-04-04 Lars Lerup's conceptual explorations as a designer and thinker have been inspired by philosophers and artists from Foucault to Beckett Lerup's furniture designs elude consumer culture They conform neither to what is commonly understood as useful nor to what is typically regarded as necessary They question the assumed functions of furniture and at the same time their assigned place in space His pieces interrogate their roles and positions and introduce a disturbing or at least disconcerting note to conventional floor plans This autobiography of a design project is about rendering visible the consumerism that is driving the current economically motivated expansion of our cities and dealing with the consequences for the environment and society

Aristodemou, 2014-06-27 I swear to tell the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth we say in a court of law In a court of law the truth is precisely what we will not say says Lacan If God is dead everything is permitted writes Dostoyevsky If God is dead everything is prohibited responds Lacan I think therefore I am reasons Descartes I am where I do not think concludes Lacan What are we to make of Lacan's inversions of these mottos And what are the implications for the legal system if we take them seriously This book puts the legal subject on the couch and explores the incestuous relationship between law and desire enjoyment and transgression freedom and subjection ethics and atheism The process of analysis problematizes fundamental tenets of the legal system leading the patient to rethink long held beliefs terms like guilt and innocence truth and lies reason and reality freedom and responsibility cause and punishment acquire new and surprising meanings By the end of these sessions the patient is left wondering along with Freud her analyst whether it is not psychology that deserves the mockery but the procedure of judicial enquiry A unique study on the nexus of Law and Psychoanalysis this book will
