Love Lion Michael McClure And Ray Manzarek:

Conversations with Michael McClure David Stephen Calonne, 2024-06-20 Conversations with Michael McClure features twenty interviews from 1969 to 2015 that chronicle the capacious scope of McClure's creativity. McClure (1932-2020) is notable not only for his considerable achievements as a poet and prose writer of the Beat Generation but also for the many collaborative connections he forged over seven decades. From the 1950s to his death, McClure worked with an astonishing range of important figures in the worlds of painting, filmmaking, music, and science. McClure counted among his friends and acquaintances Bruce Conner, Harold Pinter, Amiri Baraka, Richard Brautigan, Wallace Berman, George Herms, Lawrence Jordan, Dennis Hopper, Bob Dylan, Janis Joplin, Jim Morrison, Ray Manzarek, Sterling Bunnell, Francis Crick, Gary Snyder, Francesco Clemente, and Diane di Prima. During his early years in San Francisco, McClure attended Kenneth Rexroth's literary evenings and formed significant lifelong friendships. Among those friends were poets Philip Lamantia and Robert Duncan, who became a mentor to McClure. He also learned much from Charles Olson and adopted several features of Olson's concept of Projective Verse in his own work. McClure's exchange of letters with experimental filmmaker Stan Brakhage lasted for four decades. During his illustrious career, McClure published fourteen books of poetry, eight books of plays, and four collections of essays. Conversations with Michael McClure reveals the many contributions of this central personality in the evolution of the American counterculture.

Simple Eyes & Other Poems Michael McClure, 1994 In the long title poem Simple Eyes, Fields the stanzas on the Persian Gulf War bloom out of images of all wars the poet has known: the spiritual wars, the napalm and cordite and nuclear wars, and the war against nature, and become a kind of spiritual autobiography. At the heart of the poetry is McClure's return to the ancient concept of agnosia, the idea of knowing through unknowing, as a way of living in desperate times in which deep human or humane feelings have almost become outlaw.

Text and Drugs and Rock 'n' Roll Simon Warner, 2013-03-14 Text and Drugs and Rock n Roll explores the interaction between two of the most powerful socio-cultural movements in the post-war years: the literary forces of the Beat Generation and the musical energies of rock and its attendant culture. Simon Warner examines the interweaving strands seeded by the poet-novelists Jack Kerouac, Allen Ginsberg, William Burroughs, and others in the 1940s and 1950s, and cultivated by most of the major rock figures who emerged after 1960: Bob Dylan, the Beatles, Bowie, the Clash, and Kurt Cobain, to name just a few. This fascinating cultural history delves into a wide range of issues: Was rock culture the natural heir to the activities of the Beats? Were the hippies the Beats of the 1960s? What attitude did the Beat writers have towards musical forms, and particularly rock music? How did literary works shape the consciousness of leading rock music makers and their followers? Why did Beat literature retain its cultural potency with later rock musicians who rejected hippie values? How did rock musicians use the material of Beat literature in their own work? How did Beat figures become embroiled in the process of rock creativity? These questions are addressed through a number of approaches: the influence of drugs, the relevance of politics, the effect of religious and spiritual pursuits, the rise of the counter culture the issue of sub cultures and their construction and so on The result is a highly readable history of the innumerable links between two of the most revolutionary artistic movements of the last 60 years Naked Lens Jack
