Patterns of Thought in Africa and the West Robin Horton, 1997-07-13 Robin Horton's critical and creative writings on African religious thought have influenced anthropologists, philosophers and all those interested in the comparative study of religion and thought. This selection of some of his classic papers with a new introduction and postscript by the author traces Horton's theoretical ideas over thirty years. In attempting to understand African religious thought he also tackles broader issues in the history and sociology of thought such as secularisation and modernisation. Part I is a critical assessment of two established interpretive approaches: the Symbolist and the Theological. Part II proposes an alternative Intellectualist approach that emphasises the structural and processual similarities between religious and scientific thinking. The postscript appraises the Intellectualist approach in the light of theorising about religion and world views      Faith Phoebe Marie Homes, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1945 edition      Clinical and Experimental Hypnosis in Medicine, Dentistry and Psychology Prof. William S. Kroger, 2016-11-11 Originally published in 1963, this definitive textbook written by pioneering Professor William S. Kroger defined and shaped the field of hypnosis for over 20 years after its publication and remains an authoritative text in its field to this day. Together with his seminars presented in association with the American Society of Clinical Hypnosis, Professor Kroger's textbook changed the perception of hypnosis from being a novelty to a legitimate and respected medical option and solidified his reputation as a leader in the field      Faith Phoebe Marie Holmes, 1999-09-01
