Art Education as a Radical Act Sara Torres-Vega, Wendy Woon, 2024-05-20 This comprehensive volume highlights and centers untold histories of education at the Museum of Modern Art MoMA from 1937 to 2020 using the critical voices of artists scholars designers and educators Exploring these histories as transformative and paradigm shifting in museum education it elevates MoMA educators as vocal advocates for harnessing the educational power that museums inherently possess Divided into three interlinked parts the first sheds light on the early educational endeavors of the museum while analyzing the context of art education in the United States The second part focuses on the tenures of Victor D Amico and Betty Blayton utilizing the MoMA archives as a primary resource It includes essays by Ellen Winner Luis Camnitzer Susan E Cahan Michelle Millar Fisher HECTOR Jae Shin Damon Rich Gregory Sholette Carol Duncan Moreen Maser Nana Adusei Poku Carmen M rsch Rika Burnham Donna M Jones and Jos Ortiz The third part presents the perspectives of William Burback Philip Yenawine Patterson Sims Deborah F Schwartz and Wendy Woon as former MoMA Directors of Education in their own words and considers the forces that shaped their work This timely and unique exploration ultimately aims to trace and understand the fundamental and evolving concerns of a seemingly underexamined profession constantly striving to maintain relevance in an environment marked by institutional social and political uncertainty Exploring the radical acts undertaken to keep the museum true to its original promise it delineates the paradox whereby education is both central and invisible to the identity of MoMA and museums more broadly and re centers the conception of the museum as an educational institution It is designed for scholars researchers and post graduate students interested in arts education visual literacy museum studies and communication studies

Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomaki, 2014-02-14 The first book length study of this influential artist s work focusing on the participatory role of the human subject rather than the art object Michael Asher doesn t make typical installations Instead he extracts his art from the institutions in which it is shown culling it from collections histories or museums own walls Since the late 1960s Asher has been creating situations that have not only taught us about the conditions and contexts of contemporary art but have worked to define it In Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltom ki examines Asher s practice by analyzing the social situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers participants and institutional representatives including gallery directors curators and other museum staff members Drawing on art criticism the reports of viewers and participants in Asher s projects and the artist s own archives Peltom ki offers a comprehensive account of Asher's work over the past four decades. Because of the intensely site specific nature of this work as well as the artist's refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives many of the projects Peltomäki discusses are described here for the first time. By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects Peltomäki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them bringing about both personal and institutional transformation.

Teaching Art Creatively Penny

Hay, 2022-10-24 Teaching Art Creatively is packed with ideas and inspiration to enrich teachers' knowledge and understanding of art and design in the primary classroom. It synthesises the philosophical and practical elements of teaching encouraging a move away from traditional didactic approaches to contemporary classroom pedagogies to develop children's creative potential. With an emphasis on recognising the value of children's art and how to support children's creative and artistic processes key topics explored include improving your own creativity competence and confidence helping children become independent artists starting points and imaginative contexts for art and design individual group and whole class work art inside and outside the classroom how to develop visual literacy the value of working alongside artists the contribution of art and design to children's overall creative development. Teaching Art Creatively offers a new model of visual arts education in the primary years. Illustrated throughout with examples of exciting projects children's work and case studies of good practice it will be essential reading for every professional who wishes to embed creative approaches to teaching in their classroom.

Reclaiming the Curriculum Jackie Holderness, Bill Laar, 2018-06-06 Bill Laar and Jackie Holderness Reclaiming the Curriculum examines the nature of a broad ranging content rich primary school curriculum and presents case studies that exemplify how it can be effectively delivered. Many schools believe that the value of their work is undermined by a test driven agenda that limits the breadth of the education they provide and who can blame them. In Reclaiming the Curriculum Bill and Jackie inspire teachers to escape such narrow confines by unearthing a rich seam of case study examples from schools who are broadening their provision with specialist content that transcends the core curriculum taking pupils into the realms of exploration and enquiry while also providing for higher attainment in the core subjects. Featuring a variety of exciting initiatives ranging from the development of an IT enabled collaborative learning space to the artful application of storytelling across the curriculum this book will embolden primary schools to identify and enhance their own creative practice and more effectively prepare pupils for the tests of life not a life of tests. The 18 case studies written by a diverse line up of contributors including school leaders teachers and specialist coaches are sourced from a mixture of different settings and offer detailed descriptions of the initiatives unique backgrounds their genesis and inspiration their underpinning aims and objectives and the ways in which they were resourced realised and eventually evaluated. At the beginning of each chapter Bill and Jackie briefly summarise the educational value of each example of curriculum development the significance of specific aspects and the ways in which they are likely to help maintain full and relevant learning Each case study then presents the contributors first hand perspectives as they describe in detail the structure that underpins the provision including the number of staff involved and the time and resources allocated share interesting insights into the level of pupil involvement and where relevant the extent of parental and community participation paint a vivid picture of how the initiatives have been made compatible with their school s wider educational programme and provide practical guidance useful links and relevant resources to aid readers own pursuit of curriculum development Suitable for primary school teachers and leaders

Public Knowledge Michael Asher,2019-10-15 Writings by the conceptual artist Michael Asher including notes proposals exhibition statements and letters to curators and critics most published here for the first time The California conceptual artist Michael Asher 1943 2012 was known for rigorous site specificity and pioneering institutional critique His decades of teaching at CalArts influenced generations of artists Much of Asher s artistic practice was devoted to creating works that had no lasting material presence and often responded to the material social or ideological context of a situation Because most of Asher s artworks have ceased to exist his writings about them have special significance Public Knowledge collects writings by Asher about his work including preliminary notes and ideas project proposals exhibition statements and letters to curators and critics most of which have never been previously published Asher gave few interviews didn t write art criticism and rarely published extensive accounts of his own work Yet writing was central to his artistic practice serving as a tool for working out ideas negotiating institutional parameters and describing thought processes In these texts he considers writing and documentation discusses artistic practice offers notes for gallery and museum talks presents artist statements for exhibition goers describes individual works and their situational context and reflects on teaching and art education Among other things Asher provides his definition of site specificity addresses the function of art in public space and analyzes the intersection of teaching art and institutional models of education Readers will see an artist at work formulating ethical and political strategies for making art in a situational world

Le soutien aux familles d'enfants gravement malades Manon Champagne,Suzanne Mongeau,Lyse Lussier,2014-01-29T00:00:00-05:00 Les enfants gravement malades grâce aux progrès biomédicaux survivent aujourd'hui plus longtemps qu'auparavant Bien qu'heureuse cette situation complexifie le quotidien des familles qui subissent un alourdissement des soins. Sentant aux conditions de vie des familles d'enfants gravement malades en contexte québécois, cet ouvrage présente les résultats de recherches portant sur différentes mesures de soutien mises en place par Le Phare Enfants et Familles. Cet organisme sans but lucratif actif depuis plus de dix ans au Québec contribue au mieux-être des enfants dont la vie est menacée par une maladie nécessitant des soins complexes afin d'apporter répit et soutien à leurs familles. Parmi les pratiques novatrices qu'il a mises en place et dont traite ce livre, on retrouve notamment le répit offert à la Maison André Gratton, première maison de soins palliatifs pédiatriques au Québec, les ateliers de soutien à la prise de décision pour les parents et l'accompagnement par l'art. Rédigé tant par des chercheurs que par des intervenants du Phare Enfants et Familles et combinant savoirs théoriques et savoirs pratiques, cet ouvrage s'adresse la fois aux étudiants, aux chercheurs et aux intervenants professionnels et bénévoles. Il sentira également les parents ayant relevé le défi de vivre avec un enfant gravement malade.
