presents a historiographic strategy emphasising the philosophical significance of spatial realism to offer insights into history subjectivities and political institutions

Chang Tan,2024-02-15 The Minjian Avant Garde studies how experimental artists in China mixed with brought changes to and let themselves be transformed by minjian the volatile and diverse public of the post Mao era Departing from the usual emphasis on art institutions global markets or artists communities Chang Tan proposes a new analytical framework in the theories of socially engaged art that stresses the critical agency of participants the affective functions of objects and the versatility of the artists in diverse sociopolitical spheres Drawing from hitherto untapped archival materials and interviews with the artists Tan challenges the views of Chinese artists as either dissidents or conformists to the regime and sees them as navigators and negotiators among diverse political discourses and interests She questions the fetishization of marginalized communities among practitioners of progressive art and politics arguing that the members of minjian are often more complex defiant and savvy than the elites would assume The Minjian Avant Garde critically assesses the rise of populism in both art and politics and show that minjian could constitute either a democratizing or a coercive force This book was published with generous support from the George Dewey and Mary J Krumrine Endowment Contemporary Photography from the Far East Foro Boario (Modena, Italy),2009 Contemporary Photography from the Far East presents the works of Asia s most important artists who have made their mark on the international contemporary art scene in the fields of photography video and film It features works by Hiroshi Sugimoto Yang Fudong Cao Fei Kimsooja Nobuyoshi Araki and Yasumasa Morimura
