Dream in Color? Laurie Rubin, 2012-10-23 Colors Rubin tells us affect everyone through sound smell taste and a vast array of emotions and atmospheres She explains that although she has been blind since birth she has experienced color all her life In her memoir Do You Dream in Color Laurie Rubin looks back on her life as an international opera singer who happens to be blind From her loneliness and isolation as a middle school student to her experiences skiing Rubin offers her young readers a life story rich in detail and inspiration drawn from everyday challenges Beginning with her childhood in California Rubin tells the story of her life and the amazing experiences that led her to a career as an internationally celebrated mezzo soprano Rubin describes her past as a journey towards identity one she hopes will resonate with young people struggling with two fundamental questions Who am I and Where do I fit in Although most of us aren't blind Rubin believes that many of us have traits that make us something other than normal These differences like blindness may seem like barriers but for the strong and the persistent dreams can overcome barriers no matter how large they may seem This is what makes her story so unique yet universal and so important for young readers

Love Has No Color Part One Edna Taylor, 2012-03-14 Nanzee Johnson a simple girl with a New York dream Her desire to acquire an education at New York University in the Big Apple was shared by her travelling companion and childhood friend Gwen Duncan While struggling to get a solid footing in their new home Nanzee stumbles onto a chance meeting with a dashing stranger Basil Barden The meeting brought about a rift between Nanzee and Gwen Accused of overstepping certain boundaries Nanzee had a decision to make while Gwen threatened to expose her to her father Nanzee soon finds herself alone and reliant on the man who took her breath away He is already on a mission and willing to do anything to keep her dependent and breathless Her pride concerns about White Man's Burden syndrome and her father's bigotry are no match for the overwhelming affection she had developed for Basil Indeed these hurdles were unworthy of comparison to what he offered her Nanzee wonders how she might prove herself worthy of Basil's love When he propositions her saying that in her agreement she would be saving his life Nanzee knew she had found a way to redeem herself to him even if in her eyes alone

Running Out of Time (Color Interior) Robert Prah, Jr., 2022-04-22 Running Out of Time Chasing Red White and Blue Color Interior By Robert Prah Jr Originally created for his daughter to detail his run for public office Running Out of Time Chasing Red

White and Blue chronicles this pursuit by Robert Prah Jr during a very challenging time in a district that has been historically blue forever It details his personal story of running for the Pennsylvania state legislature and all of the challenges that he faced especially from previous relationships and social media It talks about being the underdog running against a lifelong Democrat turned Republican where according to many polls Prah was favored to win the special election The author also highlights how several committee members past candidates and elected officials have changed their political affiliation in recent years This story is interesting in the sense that Prah ran in three elections Special Election in March 2020 Primary in June 2020 General in November 2020 all during a global pandemic It shares the ups and downs of running for office and how the pandemic and social media impacted the outcome of many races in November 2020 The author hopes that readers take away that social media has had an impact on our lives both positive and negative and especially in politics and elections We tend to not look at candidates individually but rather as a D or an R We need to do a better job of evaluating candidates and asking questions rather than what we see on social media

See No Color Shannon Gibney, 2015-11-01 Transracial adoption is never oversimplified airbrushed or sentimentalized but instead it s portrayed with bracing honesty as the messy institution it is rearranging families blending cultural and biological DNA loss and joy An exceptionally accomplished debut Kirkus starred review For as long as she can remember sixteen year old Alex Kirtridge has known two things about herself She s a stellar baseball player She s adopted Alex has had a comfortable childhood in Madison Wisconsin Despite some teasing being a biracial girl in a wealthy white family hasn t been that big a deal What mattered was that she was a star on the diamond where her father a former Major Leaguer coached her hard and counted on her to make him proud But now things are changing she meets Reggie the first black guy who s wanted to get to know her she discovers the letters from her biological father that her adoptive parents have kept from her and her changing body starts to affect her game Suddenly Alex begins to question who she really is She s always dreamed of playing pro baseball just like her father but can she really do it Does she truly fit in with her white family Who were her biological parents What does it mean to be black If she s going to find answers Alex has to come to terms with her adoption her race and the dreams she thought would always guide her Winner of the Minnesota Book Award A Kirkus Reviews Best Teen book of the Year A Bank Street College Best Children s Book of the Year
