My Wilderness East To Katahdin:

My Wilderness William Orville Douglas, 1971 My Wilderness William Orville Douglas, 1961 From Blue Ridge to Barrier Islands J. Kent Minichiello, Anthony W. White, 2001-01-20 From John Smith to Tom Horton a collection of nature writing about the mid Atlantic region From Blue Ridge to Barrier Islands offers the first collection of nature writing to focus specifically on the attractions of the central Atlantic region The selections draw on all the outdoor experiences that have brought people closer to the land exploration science travel country life conservation hunting fishing Here are Walt Whitman s musings on bird migrations at midnight John Lederer s account of the first recorded expedition with native guides to the summit of the Blue Ridge mountains Pendleton Kennedy s reflections on a nineteenth century fishing trip to Blackwater River and Tom Horton on serious dangers the Potomac continues to face From the awe and wonder of the first explorers to cries for conservation from contemporary writers From Blue Ridge to Barrier Islands gathers examples of our changing views of the natural world and the values we place upon it Literature of Place Melanie Louise Simo, 2005 In Literature of Place Melanie Simo looks beyond crowded malls and boarded up storefronts on Main Street to our collective memory finding answers to these questions in stories novels memoirs poetry essays diaries travel writing and nature writing that range in origin from New England and the Southern Highlands to Hawaii and in subject from little gardens to lost or reinhabited places in cities mill towns deserts and woodlands In her consideration of selected American works from 1890 to 1970 years that mark the closing of the Western frontier and later openings in space exploration environmental protection genetic engineering and cyberspace Simo uncovers a literature of place and the often surprising relationship of place to our daily lives BOOK JACKET Land Use Policy in the United States Howard W. Ottoson, 2001-06 Symposium papers appraising the course United States land policy had taken in the 100 years since President Lincoln had signed the Homestead Act

Inherit the Holy Mountain Mark Stoll, 2015-04-30 In Inherit the Holy Mountain historian Mark Stoll introduces us to the religious roots of the American environmental movement Religion he shows provided environmentalists both with deeply embedded moral and cultural ways of viewing the world and with content direction and tone for the causes they espoused Stoll discovers that specific denominational origins corresponded with characteristic sets of ideas about nature and the environment as well as distinctive aesthetic reactions to nature as can be seen in key works of art analyzed throughout the book Stoll also provides insight into the possible future of environmentalism in the United States concluding with an examination of the current religious scene and what it portends for the future By debunking the supposed divide between religion and American environmentalism Inherit the Holy Mountain opens up a fundamentally new narrative in environmental studies Citizen Justice Mary Margaret McKeown, 2022 Citizen Justice The Environmental Legacy of William O Douglas Public Advocate and Conservation Champion highlights William O Douglas s dual role in fulfilling his constitutional duty as justice while catering to his personal commitment to serve the public as a citizen advocate Nature Writing Don

Scheese,2013-10-28 In this comprehensive study of the genre Don Scheese traces its evolution from the pastoralism evident in the natural history observations of Aristotle and the poetry of Virgil to current American writers He documents the emergence of the modern form of nature writing as a reaction to industrialization Scheese s personal observations of natural settings sharpen the reader s understanding of the dynamics between author and locale His study is further informed by ample use of illustrations and close readings core writers such as Thoreau John Muir and Mary Austin showing how each writer s work exemplifies the pastoral tradition and celebrate a spirit of place in the United States Hiking and Hiking Trails Mary Ellen Barkauskas,1970 Francis Lee Jaques Don T. Luce,Francis Lee Jaques,1991 Landscapes of the Secular Nicolas Howe,2016-09-05 What does it mean to see the American landscape in a secular way asks Nicolas Howe at the outset of this innovative ambitious and wide ranging book It s a surprising question because of what it implies we usually aren t seeing American landscapes through a non religious lens but rather as inflected by complicated little examined concepts of the sacred Fusing geography legal scholarship and religion in a potent analysis Howe shows how seemingly routine questions about how to look at a sunrise or a plateau or how to assess what a mountain is both physically and ideologically lead to complex arguments about the nature of religious experience and its implications for our lives as citizens In American society nominally secular but committed to permitting a diversity of religious beliefs and expressions such questions become all the more fraught and can lead to difficult often unsatisfying compromises regarding how to interpret and inhabit our public lands and spaces A serious commitment to secularism Howe shows forces us to confront the profound challenges of true religious diversity in ways that often will have their ultimate expression in our built environment This provocative exploration of some of the fundamental aspects of American life will help us see the land law and society anew
