Life Stories Maureen O'Connor, 2011-08-23 Memoirs autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2 800 read alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past readers advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres subgenres and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs Autobiographies and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb, 2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context. Globe and Mail columnist Sandra Martin honours the lives of Canada's famous infamous and unsung heroes in this unique collection of obituaries of the first decade of the twenty first century. Here are Canadian icons such as Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau economist John Kenneth Galbraith social activist June Callwood and urban theorist Jane Jacobs. Here are builders such as feminist and editor Doris Anderson and businessman and famed art collector Ken Thomson. Here are our rogues rascals and romantics our service men and women and here are those private citizens whose lives have had an undeniable public impact. Finally Martin interweaves these elegant and eloquent biographies with the autobiography of the obit writer offering an exclusive and intimate view of life on the dead beat. Beautifully written compelling and vivid Working the Dead Beat is a tribute to those individuals who each on their own and as a collective tell the story of our country and to the life of the obit writer who chronicles their extraordinary lives. Pierre Berton Brian Mckillop, 2011-06-22 The first ever biography of one of Canada's best known and most colourful personalities by an award winning author. From his northern childhood on it was clear that Pierre Berton 1920 2004 was different from his peers. Over the course of his eighty four years he would become the most famous Canadian media figure of his time in newspapers magazines radio television and books sometimes all at once. Berton dominated bookstore shelves for almost half a century winning Governor General's Awards for Klondike and The Last Spike among many others along with a dozen honorary degrees. Throughout it all Berton was larger than life full of verve and ideas he approached everything he did with passion.

humour and an insatiable curiosity He loved controversy and being the centre of attention and provoked national debate on subjects as wide ranging as religion and marijuana use A major voice of Canadian nationalism at the dawn of globalization he made Canadians take interest in their own history and become proud of it But he had his critics too and some considered him egocentric and mean spirited Now with the same meticulous research and storytelling skill that earned him wide critical acclaim for The Spinster and the Prophet Brian McKillop traces Pierre Berton's remarkable life with special emphasis on his early days and his rise to prominence The result is a comprehensive vivid portrait of the life and work of one of our most celebrated national figures

Hollywood in the Klondike Michael Gates, 2023-04-11 In this exciting first hand account of an unexpected cinematic discovery Michael Gates delves into the history behind a hoard of silent films found buried beneath the permafrost of an Arctic gold rush town In 1978 hundreds of reels of silent films were unearthed from beneath the demolished site of an old hockey arena in Dawson City Yukon Author Michael Gates witnessed the cinematic discovery of these once lost films and in this book excavates and illuminates the history of a gold rush town like no other An event in the most unlikely of places and circumstances the Klondike gold rush was unique in the history of Canada and the development of the North Dawson City the Paris of the North was the hub of the Klondike gold rush 125 years ago There were more saloons gambling halls and theatres than there were places serving food and the live theatre was at the centre of it all Discover the icons who went from the Klondike to Hollywood Robert Service Jack London Charlie Chaplin Alexander Pantages Sid Grauman Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle Marjorie Rambeau and more Join Gates on this cinematic journey as he ponders the question Did the Klondike help make Hollywood or did Hollywood make the Klondike Crafted from Gates's first hand experience and extensive research Hollywood in the Klondike casts a spotlight on an exciting piece of Canadian history

Pipe Dreams Jacques Poitras, 2018-09-25 Winner of the 2018 Writers Federation of New Brunswick Book Award for Non Fiction Shortlisted for the 2018 Writers Trust Shaughnessy Cohen Prize for Political Writing Shortlisted for the 2019 JW Dafoe Book Prize A timely chronicle of how Canada's oil pipelines have become hotbeds for debate about our energy future Indigenous rights environmental activism and east west political tensions Pipe Dreams is the dramatic story of the rise and fall of the Energy East pipeline and the broader battle over climate and energy in Canada The project was to be a monumental undertaking beginning near Edmonton AB and stretching over four thousand kilometres through Montreal to the Irving Oil refinery in Saint John NB Conceived as a back up plan for the stalled Keystone XL pipeline it became the crucible for a national debate over the future of oil In a cross country journey Poitras talked to industry executives prairie ranchers First Nations chiefs mayors premiers cabinet ministers and refinery workers He also explored Canada's perplexing oil relationship with the United States our industry is literally tied to its American counterpart with sinews of steel The Energy East pipeline represented a new direction designed to get Alberta oil sands crude to lucrative world markets Yet it was promoted in explicitly nationalist terms the country was said to be reorienting itself along its east west axis tying itself together again with a great feat of engineering By the time the journey ended the story had become a kind of whodunit Poitras witnessed the slow motion killing of the fifteen billion dollar project Unfolding in tandem with clashes over the Trans Mountain pipeline Energy East's demise heralded a potential turning point not just for a single proposal but for Canada's carbon economy Entertaining informative and insightful Pipe Dreams offers a clear picture of the complicated political environmental and economic issues that Canadians face

Recasting History Monica MacDonald, 2019-06-15 Since 1952 CBC television has played a unique role as the primary mass media purveyor of Canadian history Yet until now there have been no comprehensive accounts of Canadian history on television Monica MacDonald takes us behind the scenes of the major documentaries and docudramas broadcast on the CBC including In Explorations 1956-64 and the series Images of Canada 1972-76 The National Dream 1974 The Valour and the Horror 1992 and Canada A People's History 2000-02 Drawing on a wide range of sources MacDonald explores how producers struggled to represent the Canadian past under a range of external and internal pressures Despite dramatic shifts in the writing of history over this period she determines that television themes and interpretations largely remained the same The greater change was in the production and presentation particularly in the role of professional historians as journalists emerged not only as the new producers of Canadian history on CBC television but also as the new content authorities A critique of public history through the lens of political economy Recasting History reveals the conflicts compromises and controversies that have shaped the CBC version of the Canadian past

Orienting Canada John Price, 2011 Colony to nation Isolationism to internationalism WASP society to a multicultural Canada Focusing on imperial conflicts in the Pacific Orienting Canada disrupts these familiar narratives in Canadian history by tracing the relationship between racism and Canadian foreign policy Grounded in transnationalism and anti racist theory this book reassesses critical transpacific incidents including Vancouver's riots of 1907 the Chinese head tax the wars in the Pacific from 1937 to 1945 the internment of Japanese Canadians and Canada's significant role in consolidating the US anti communist empire in postwar Asia Shocking revelations about the effects of racism and war into the 1960s are tempered by stories of community resilience and transformation As a transpacific lens on the past Orienting Canada deflects Canada's European gaze back onto itself to reveal images that both provoke and unsettle

Canada In The World Tyler A. Shipley, 2020-07-25T00:00:00Z An accessible and empirically rich introduction to Canada's engagements in the world since confederation this book charts a unique path by locating Canada's colonial foundations at the heart of the analysis Canada in the World begins by arguing that the colonial relations with Indigenous peoples represent the first example of foreign policy and demonstrates how these relations became a foundational and existential element of the new state Colonialism the project to establish settler capitalism in North America and the ideological assumption that Europeans were more advanced and thus deserved to conquer the Indigenous people says Shipley lives at the very heart of Canada Through a close examination of Canadian foreign policy from crushing an Indigenous rebellion in El Salvador peacekeeping missions in the Congo and Somalia and Cold War interventions in Vietnam and Indonesia to Canadian participation in the War on Terror Canada in the World finds that this colonial heart has dictated Canada's actions in the world since the beginning Highlighting the continuities across more than 150 years of history Shipley demonstrates that Canadian policy and behaviour in the world is deep rooted and argues that changing this requires rethinking the fundamental nature of Canada itself
