Delineation of Roman Catholicism, ... in which the peculiar doctrines ... of the Church of Rome are stated, and confuted Charles ELLIOTT (D.D.), 1844 Justice in the Making Beverly Wildung Harrison, 2004-01-01 Beverly

Harrison has long fought for women and others at the margins challenging the subjugating ways in which women's intellectual contributions, their gifts of ministerial leadership and their reproductive capacity and sexual identity have been defined. This collection of essays and lectures presented over the course of her career demonstrates the progression of Harrison's contribution to the field of Christian ethics and the evolution of her thought in response to changing social realities.

Seven Candlesticks to Kingdom Come Gene Brown, 2020-03-25 This is a story unlike any you've ever read. The ancient House of Kandle communicates across the Great Divide. Two messengers who speak as one have been sent from a bygone world to inform us of things past and warn us of things to come. Their story begins innocently enough with the tale of Nathan Kandle, a curious lad who encounters a mysterious creature named the Fear Weevil and painfully learns that he must stand and fight fear in order to escape it. One world unfolds into another then another as Nathan is tested over and over again until the reader himself is confronted with the challenge of his own greatest testing yet to come. Where did this story really come from and could it be true after all?

Points of Grace Stuart Cedrone, Points of Grace: Empowerment for Hard Times answers many profound questions: Why does God seem like a hard man to some people? Why are we incapable of crying out to God in authentic ways except during times of extremity? How does God get past our self-defense mechanisms? Does God accept us as we are with our sin? Have we messed up so badly that there is no fixing it? Can we honestly face our feelings of remorse, bitterness, anger, fear, and insecurity? Is it possible to have a biblically based assurance of our being truly born again? What good is outward obedience if our hearts are lusting after the things of the world? What do we do when we don't feel like doing what we know we ought to do? Why would God want to restore our miserable lives when He could let us die? This book helps readers understand how God's grace works in the life of the believer, illuminating the practical steps needed for an authentic relationship with God. It is illustrated with the author's own experience of rising from the darkness of doubt and self-loathing into the light of honesty and assurance.
