documentary filmmaking the dynamics of secrecy and revelation shape how material remains such as bones and archival images are given meaning Throughout Davis demonstrates how Cypriots navigate the tension between an ethics of knowledge which valorizes truth as a prerequisite for recovery and reconciliation and the politics of knowledge which renders evidence as irremediably partial and perpetually falsifiable      Sonic Engagement Sarah Woodland, Wolfgang Vachon, 2022-12-28 Sonic Engagement examines the relationship between community engaged participatory arts and the cultural turn towards audio sound and listening that has been referred to as the sonic turn This edited collection investigates the use of sound and audio production in community engaged participatory arts practice and research The popularity of podcast and audio drama combined with the accessibility and portability of affordable field recording and home studio equipment makes audio a compelling mode of participatory creative practice This book maps existing projects occurring globally through a series of case study chapters that exemplify community engaged creative audio practice The studies focus on audio and sound based arts practices that are undertaken by artists and arts led researchers in collaboration with and from within communities and groups These practices include applied audio drama community engaged podcasting sound and verbatim theatre participatory sound art community led acoustic ecology sound and media walks digital storytelling oral history and reminiscence and radio drama in health and community development The contributors interrogate the practical political and aesthetic potentialities of using sound and audio in community engaged arts practice as well as its tensions and possibilities as an arts led participatory research methodology This book provides the first extensive analysis of what sound and audio brings to participatory interdisciplinary arts led approaches representing a vital resource for community arts performance practice and research in the digital age      Reminiscences, Chiefly of Towns, Villages and Schools Thomas Mozley, 1885      A Sense of Home Narendra, 2020-09-18 In a time of bewildering and often thoughtless change A Sense of Home Abujhmad and a Childhood Village offers a glimpse of another lifestyle one more bare and closer to nature but perhaps more complete in its pace and aspirations A sequel to the acclaimed Bastar Dispatches it reflects on the life of the Abujhmadia as also that of the people in Ramala the village of author Narendra's childhood their shared rhythms and concerns and the flow of everyday activity A keen observer of his surroundings Narendra provides vivid descriptions Elders and children in the jungles and villages habits of hygiene dogs and pigs and their ways with humans leopards and other nocturnal visitors close encounters with tigers Maoists and missionaries all populate his narrative There are vignettes of life in a joint family in western Uttar Pradesh where men and women lived separately in the mardana and the zenana and the matriarch of the family called the shots Life in the village seemed quintessentially Abujhmadia people being content with what they had and not wanting more for themselves or their simple relationships families and villages A Sense of Home is a gentle but strong reminder of the value of what we might be missing in our lives      A Letter To My Son Tahsinur Chowdhury, 2023-08-02 Humans have an insatiable yearning for remembrance Somehow the idea of going down without a
