My War Air Raid Warden:

My Youth was... ANOTHER WORLD , Memories Marty Civin,2009-07-13 My writing of Memories has been a labor of love for several seasons The first section covers the years from 1932 to 1951 The second edition details 1951 to 1964 and the third covers 1964 to the present The day after Labor Day in 2002 marked the 70th anniversary of the arrival of the Civin family in Spencer It was in the heart of the Great Depression when my parents established a tiny dry goods store at 47 Mechanic Street in Spencer MA Marty Civin <http://memoriesbymartycivin.blogspot.com> Meeting Movies Norman Norwood Holland,2006 Casablanca for example provides millions with a sense of satisfaction Why How did this movie about World War II satisfy an adolescent boy afraid of not being a man but too young to be in the military How did such an outrageously sentimental film enable Holland and many others to deal with the scary state of the world in 1942 and indeed ever since Meeting Movies poses such questions again and again As a professor of literature and film Holland feels compelled to interpret Yet beneath and beyond his intellectualizing a variety of half conscious personal considerations and recurring themes color his feelings and hence his interpretations And this he claims is true for all of us Jacket Another Time, Another Place Larry L. Harshbarger,2004-11-11 It was a time of extreme peril The Great Depression was winding down and World War II was starting The author witnessed the Greatest Generation first hand as he saw many young men including his older brother leave town and go off to war On the home front there developed a closeness and support of family friends and neighbors not seen before or since Through good and bad times the towns young boys hiked fished hunted and trapped in the streams fields forests and mountains surrounding their homes It was truly an era that will never be again Women Warriors of WW2 Jeanette B Reid,2015-09-17 It s 1939 war is imminent for the people of Britain It is becoming increasingly clear that every able bodied man will be needed on the battlefield and that British women will have to take over the jobs the men left for military service This is the narrative of Scottish women in particular through their stories experiences and sacrifices how they not only kept Scotland and Britain alive but helped change the course of history Some historians like to think that the British were very fortunate when Hitler grew impatient with his attempt to run over the British Isles becoming distracted then moving his attention to the Russian Front I take a different perspective Hitler found that it was much tougher to defeat the British people than he or any of his top aides ever imagined We had many losses in our military and civilian population but we were able to call upon every available man to fight on the frontline because we had a secret weapon at home keeping the country surviving Our Women Jeanette B Reid No Escape Vic Markham,2025-09-30 This story of life in a German prisoner of war camp is different from the normal British POW story as the author was a Gunner in the Royal Artillery not an officer who was accepted by the German Authorities as a Medical Orderly and therefore Protected Personnel As such he gives a unique portrait of being a prisoner of the Germans He gives graphic descriptions of the day to day life in POW camps and his tasks and experiences as a medical orderly over the five year period He also gives a vivid account of what turned out to be a forced three month one thousand mile march from Poland into Germany in the height of winter towards the end of the war and his experiences as a medical orderly Out of the three thousand who started the march he writes only seven hundred survived Summer of Fire Karen Bass,2009 A troubled Alberta teen spending a summer in Germany discovers the story of a teen with real problems pregnant and alone in the maelstrom of Nazi WWII
