My Wonderful World Of Slapstick:

My Wonderful World Of Slapstick Buster Keaton, Charles Samuels, 2015-11-06 Over half century ago the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children complained to Mayor Van Wyck of New York that Joe Keaton a vaudeville actor was brutally mistreating his five year old son At each afternoon and evening performance the child billed as The Human Mop was slammed on the floor hurled into the wings and sometimes banged into bass drums Unable to find a bruise or scratch on the lad Mayor Van Wyck refused to ban the act The Human Mop bounced on to worldwide fame as Buster Keaton one of this century s greatest comedians In this intimate autobiography Buster Keaton tells his whole personal and professional story beginning with his colourful and exciting childhood as the undentable tot in the Three Keatons whose proudest boast was having the rowdiest roughest act in vaudeville Buster has played with all the great ones from George M Cohen and Bojangles Robinson and Al Jolson to Jack Paar and Ed Sullivan and Red Skelton during his sixty years as a star in vaudeville silent and talking pictures night clubs and television Roscoe Fatty Arbuckle got him into the movies and taught him how to throw a custard pie Buster could not even keep slapstick out of his eleven months as a draftee in our World War I army He came out to help create the Golden Age of Comedy with his friends Charlie Chaplin Harold Lloyd Arbuckle Mack Sennett and the Keystone Cops Marital troubles and alcoholism once got Buster down but could not keep him down MY WONDERFUL WORLD OF SLAPSTICK was written with the collaboration of Charles Samuels co author of His Eye Is On the Sparrow Ethel Waters best selling autobiography Buster Keaton s Life Story will enchant and thrill all those who enjoy looking past the glitter and the grease paint into a magnificent performer s mind and heart My wonderful world of slapstick. Buster Keaton James Curtis, 2022-02-15 One of Literary Hub s Five Most Critically Acclaimed Biographies of 2022 From acclaimed cultural and film historian James Curtis a major biography the first in more than two decades of the legendary comedian and filmmaker who elevated physical comedy to the highest of arts and whose ingenious films remain as startling innovative modern and irresistible today as they were when they beguiled audiences almost a century ago It is brilliant I was totally absorbed couldn t stop reading it and was very sorry when it ended Kevin Brownlow It was James Agee who christened Buster Keaton The Great Stone Face Keaton s face Agee wrote ranked almost with Lincoln s as an early American archetype it was haunting handsome almost beautiful yet it was also irreducibly funny Keaton was the only major comedian who kept sentiment almost entirely out of his work and he brought pure physical comedy to its greatest heights Mel Brooks A lot of my daring came from Keaton Martin Scorsese influenced by Keaton s pictures in the making of Raging Bull The only person who had the right attitude about boxing in the movies for me Scorsese said was Buster Keaton

Keaton's deadpan stare in a porkpie hat was as recognizable as Charlie Chaplin's tramp and Harold Lloyd's straw boater and spectacles and with W C Fields the four were each considered a comedy king but Keaton was and still is considered to be the greatest of them all His iconic look and acrobatic brilliance obscured the fact that behind the camera Keaton was one of our most gifted filmmakers Through nineteen short comedies and twelve magnificent features he distinguished himself with such seminal works as Sherlock Jr The Navigator Steamboat Bill Jr The Cameraman and his masterpiece The General Now James Curtis admired biographer of Preston Sturges definitive Variety W C Fields by far the fullest fairest and most touching account we have yet had Or are likely to have Richard Schickel front page of The New York Times Book Review and Spencer Tracy monumental definitive Kirkus Reviews gives us the richest most comprehensive life to date of the legendary actor stunt artist screenwriter director master

Silent Comedy Paul Merton, 2010-01-26 On the surface it may seem slightly surprising that a master of verbal humour should also be a devotee of silent comedy but Paul Merton is completely passionate about the early days of Hollywood comedy and the comic geniuses who dominated it His knowledge is awesome as anyone who watched his BBC 4 series Silent Clowns or attended the events he has staged nationwide will agree his enthusiasm is infectious and these qualities are to be found in abundance in his book Starting with the very earliest pioneering short films he traces the evolution of silent comedy through the 1900s and considers the works of the genre's greatest exponents Buster Keaton Charlie Chaplin Laurel and Hardy and Harold Lloyd showing not only how each developed in the course of their career but also the extent to which they influenced each other At the same time Paul brings a comedian's insight to bear on the art of making people laugh and explores just how the great comic ideas routines gags and pratfalls worked and evolved His first book for ten years this is destined to be a classic

The Untouched Key Alice Miller,2012-05-09 As in her former books Alice Miller again focusses on facts She is as determined as ever to cut through the veil that for thousands of years now has been so meticulously woven to shroud the truth And when she lifts that veil and brushes it aside the results are astonishing as is amply demonstrated by her analyses of the works of Nietzsche Picasso Kollwitz Keaton and others With the key shunned by so many for so long childhood she opens rusty looks and offers her readers a wealth of unexpected perspectives What did Picasso express in Guernica Why did Buster Keaton never smile Why did Nietzsche heap so much opprobrium on women and religion and lose his mind for eleven years Why did Hitler and Stalin become tyrannical mass murderers Alice Miller investigates these and other questions thoroughly in this book She draws from her discoveries the conclusion that human beings are not innately destructive that they are made that way by ignorance abuse and neglect particularly if no sympathetic witness comes to their aid She also shows why some mistreated children do not become criminals but instead bear witness as artists to the truth about their childhoods even though in purely intuitive and unconscious ways
