"MY WORLD MY WORK MY WOMAN ALL MY OWN" READING DANTE GABRIEL ROSSETTI IN HIS VISUAL AND TEXTUAL NARRATIVES Yildiz Kilic, 2014-08-15 Dante Gabriel Rossetti Pre Raphaelite extraordinaire is unique as Victorian proto expressionistic painter poet who relentlessly sought representation of a tormented personified self through the communicative relationship between image and word In this interdisciplinary study is considered the narrative interaction that unifies ideas and forms into a self expressive dialectical that informs of autonomous individualism and gender politics as a social problematic Rossetti known universally as a charismatic and vibrantly passionate man is tangibly revealed in the most tenderly transparent narratives to be a haunted and socially subjugated man who searched for self definition as a man and as an artist By an intricate analysis of key textual and visual narratives Yildiz Kilic provides an insightful and wholly original interpretation of Rossetti as Victorian victim and innovator Celebrating Me and My World Debora C. Pratt, 1995-06

My Time, My World Pratheek Praveen Kumar, 2017-01-27 Time and world in the current global village concern everybody and everyone whether young or old must pay at least some attention to correctly gauge the prevailing winds blowing in and around the world at that time The complex nature of the time and the world is very difficult to untangle and hopelessly mired in depths we may not know or things of which we have got no comprehension In this book I have tried to summarize events situations personalities and at occasions a few stories that bring deeper comprehension of the world and its affairs in the larger canvas of the political and cultural dynamics of the time and their interplays as I see them in moving the world forward The topics on which I wrote were all topics on which I felt rather strongly about or topics that I felt important I hope they are enjoyed and appreciated by all those who read them While writing the book I was often tempted to add my own comments about what I felt about the issue at hand but in the end I successfully resisted such temptations and restricted myself to the truth as I saw it So this book is a publication on world affairs with just occasional comments of universal nature here and there Another problem I encountered while writing this book was the abundance of materials to select from Several events of recent origin raced through my mind for space but I had to be choosy to limit myself to the planned format of my book Further recent developments are too recent and hot to gauge dispassionately and earn space for objective analyses Therefore I avoided such materials as much as possible in this volume This holds true about India also Though this book is India centric in world affairs I avoided all opinions and comments on India related matters for the fear of being partisan This volume is not planned as a platform for such contents Nec Dextrorsum Nec Sinistrorsum is the theme here and I tried my best to maintain it Often I had been tempted to stray into topics quite unrelated to the theme of the book Managing it and keeping my course on the track was the toughest part of my work My Time My World opened up limitless vista for entry Again I succeeded in confining myself to my Lakshmana Rekha

The End of My World Emma Jackson,2010-02-04 Now available in an updated edition called Exploited available in print and ebook I d never have guessed that when your world s tumbling down you can carry on as usual But it wasn t like I had a big sign on my back saying I ve been raped Nobody noticed a thing Emma was just 13 when her happy childhood came crashing down She had no idea the young lads she and her friends met every Saturday in the shopping mall weren t all they seemed The boys were part of an organised gang targeting innocent young girls grooming them for prostitution Captivated by the ring leader Emma didn t see the first brutal rape coming From then on her life was never her own This is the harrowing true story of how a nice girl from a good home found herself drawn into a trap of degradation and violence frightened for her life and not knowing where to turn But it is also the story of finding the courage and inner strength to risk everything and escape

Discourse of Theology Theodore Parker,2021-04-11 In Discourse of Theology Theodore Parker engages with the critical inquiries of religion and morality in a style that is both eloquent and incisive blending rational thought with deep ethical considerations This work emerges from the Unitarian tradition reflecting the intellectual currents of 19th century Transcendentalism while challenging dogmatic theology Parker articulates a vision of a more universal and personal faith emphasizing human experience as the basis for understanding the divine which echoes the sentiments of his contemporaries while maintaining a refreshing originality that invites readers into profound contemplation Theodore Parker was a prominent American transcendentalist thinker abolitionist and social reformer with a keen interest in religious thought His diverse background as a minister and a scholar informed his theological explorations imbuing them with a strong commitment to social justice and progressive ideals Parker s critical stance towards established religious institutions allowed him to advocate for a theology rooted in human experience rather than tradition which is palpable in this seminal text Discourse of Theology is essential reading for anyone seeking to navigate the complexities of faith in a modern context Parker's insights offer a fresh dialectic inspiring readers to reflect on their own beliefs and challenging them to embrace a more inclusive and compassionate understanding of spirituality MERGED ARRAY

In the Name of Humanity Ilana Feldman,2010-11-30 Collection of essays that consider how humanity as a social ethical and political category is produced through particular governing techniques and in turn gives rise to new forms of government Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally,2016-03-02 In Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally argues that in order to address current socioeconomic problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture's overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills ILLUMINATION Luminous ,2020-07-11 The world is in a very dark place and the need to gain complete and absolute understanding of what this means by all who share this world is the most important need for all of us at this time Illumination The Voice of The Truth illuminates Sheds light on the Sun life our reality the mind body spirit the religions the powers that be and what THE TRUTH really is Written to initiate the process of setting the human mind body and spirit FREE to bring this world and all who live on it to where it is supposed to be SO ALL MAY HEAL AND LIVE IN PEACE It presents THE TRUTH that is needed at this time to break the chains spells of mental slavery enforced by the powers of darkness to allow Humanity to see and to do the work needed for all to awaken and to heal from the traumas and live as life is meant to be lived AS ABOVE SO BELOW nothing less      Toward Curriculum for Being

Louise M. Berman, Francine H. Hultgren, Diane Lee, Mary S. Rivkin, Jessie A. Roderick, 1991-01-01 Five teacher scholars examine in a series of papers written over several years what it means to teach to work together to seek new forms of curriculum and to engage in interpretive inquiry Some of the metaphors that surfaced in their conversations and writing are Education as Journey Language as Meaning and Teacher as Pilgrim Themes that grew out of their dialogue about these metaphors and their implications for curriculum and teaching include The Meaning of Questioning Alienation Detour Caring and Dwelling      What Can't be Said

Yasuo Deguchi, Jay L. Garfield, Graham Priest, Robert H. Sharf, 2021-02-12 Typically in the Western philosophical tradition the presence of paradox and contradictions is taken to signal the failure or refutation of a theory or line of thinking This aversion to paradox rests on the commitment whether implicit or explicit to the view that reality must be consistent In What Can't be Said Yasuo Deguchi Jay L Garfield Graham Priest and Robert H Sharf extend their earlier arguments that the discovery of paradox and contradiction can deepen rather than disprove a philosophical position and confirm these ideas in the context of East Asian philosophy They claim that unlike most Western philosophers many East Asian philosophers embraced paradox and provide textual evidence for this claim Examining two classical Daoist texts the Daodejing and the Zhaungzi as well as the trajectory of Buddhism in East Asia including works from the Sanlun Tiantai Chan and Zen traditions and culminating with the Kyoto school of philosophy they argue that these philosophers commitment to paradox reflects an understanding of reality as inherently paradoxical revealing significant philosophical insights      The Paris Lectures Edmund Husserl, 2013-11-11      The Literary Wittgenstein John Gibson, Wolfgang

Huemer, 2004 A stellar collection of articles relating the philosophy of Ludwig Wittgenstein 1889 1951 to core problems in the theory and philosophy of literature written by the most prominent figures in the field      The Anatomy of Knowledge Marjorie Grene, 2015-06-05 Originally published in 1969 Since the seventeenth century the kind of knowledge afforded by mathematical physics has come more and more to furnish mankind with an ideal for all knowledge The ideal also carries with it a new conception of the nature of things all things whatsoever are held to be intelligible ultimately in terms of the laws of inanimate nature This reductionist formula can be overcome only by the fundamental rethinking of our philosophical premises To contribute towards this rethinking was the aim of the Study Group at whose meetings this collection originated The essayists come from a wide range of disciplines but all want to address the conflict in our culture The first part consists of discussions of various fundamental problems in the sciences There are essays on the inter relation of physics and psychology on the possible reduction of biology to physics and chemistry on new approaches to experimental psychology against the possibility of giving a purely factual account of social and political life and for a fundamental reform of our concept of responsibility The second section of the book suggests lines of philosophical inquiry which might help to resolve the epistemological and ethical problems arising at the foundations of physics biology psychology and the social sciences
