My Writing Goals For 2004:

So, You Want to Write! Ann McIndoo, 2006      180 Days Crystal E. Emerson, 2011-09-15 Have you emotionally suffered through sabotage and administrative loopholes in your place of employment which resulted in wrongful discharge Crystal E Emerson has written an extraordinary and poignant documentation of truth She has experienced the unethical behavior of administrators and other professionals while working in a public school district in the state of Pennsylvania During the 20032004 academic year Crystal experienced divided professional loyalties and lived and worked through this emotional dichotomy for 180 days of employment This was a test of personal and emotional strength and a time to trust her instincts The law assumes that public school administrators will behave in an ethical manner The PSEA Pennsylvania State Education Association members assume that union representatives will support them during times of professional adversity This book is a personal account of a professional position in which these two assumptions have failed to occur There is a need for all public school administrators to abide by more strict laws There is a need to implement a law that requires all observations and evaluations performed by public school administrators to video record the session this video recording should be submitted to the state department of education due to a mandating law Such a law would help teachers in extreme situations who have been subjected to heinous actions of administrative personnel It is Crystals hope that her 180 day experience of emotional adversity sabotage harassment and undermining has not occurred in vain Never before has a book been so poignant and honest This is an account of utter emotional and professional strength You will be enticed as you enjoy reading 180 DAYS      Voices, Identities, Negotiations, and Conflicts: Writing Academic English Across Cultures Le-Ha Phan, Bradley Baurain, 2011-01-27 Provides insights into the process of knowledge construction in EFL ESL writing from classrooms to research sites from the dilemmas and risks NNEST student writers experience in the pursuit of true agency to the confusions and conflicts academics experience in their own writing practices      Tranquilista Kimberly Wilson, 2010 Encourages women to seek empowerment through spirituality philanthropy creativity fashion honesty and community building      A Companion to Simone de Beauvoir Laura Hengehold, Nancy Bauer, 2017-07-27 Winner of the 2018 Choice award for Outstanding Academic Title The work of Simone de Beauvoir has endured and flowered in the last two decades thanks primarily to the lasting influence of The Second Sex on the rise of academic discussions of gender sexuality and old age Now in this new Companion dedicated to her life and writings an international assembly of prominent scholars essayists and leading interpreters reflect upon the range of Beauvoir's contribution to philosophy as one of the great authors thinkers and public intellectuals of the twentieth century The Companion examines Beauvoir's rich intellectual life from a variety of angles including literary historical and anthropological perspectives and situates her in relation to her forbears and contemporaries in the philosophical canon Essays in each of four thematic sections reveal the breadth and acuity of her insight from the significance of The Second Sex and her work on the metaphysics of gender to her plentiful contributions in ethics and political philosophy Later chapters trace the relationship between Beauvoir's philosophical and literary work and open up her scholarship to global issues questions of race and the legacy of colonialism and sexism The volume concludes by considering her impact on contemporary feminist thought writ large and features pioneering work from a new generation of Beauvoir scholars Ambitious and unprecedented in scope A Companion to Simone de Beauvoir is an accessible and interdisciplinary resource for students teachers and researchers across the humanities and social sciences Graduate Studies in Second Language Writing Kyle McIntosh, Carolina Pelaez-Morales, 2015-08-15 Authors in this proposed collection approach issues like academic literacy socialization and professionalization from their individual positions as mentors and mentees involved with graduate study in the field of second language L2 writing Internationalizing Teaching, Localizing Learning Paul McPherron, 2016-12-27 Based on ethnographic and policy data collected over a ten year span at a university in the People's Republic of China this book analyses the history of English Language Teaching (ELT) policies in Chinese higher education The book uses the university as a lens in which to investigate the creative imaginations and divergent re appropriations of teaching methods learning materials and language use in the Chinese ELT context Book chapters move beyond mere descriptions of tensions and point to the local understandings and practices of English teachers both local and foreign and students Working together these teachers and students are constantly articulating new social and political conditions and meanings outside and inside given discourses and traditions of ELT The book's main argument is that these multiple stakeholders must be given a more prominent role in shaping policy and curriculum at universities and other English language contexts around the world Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing Suresh Canagarajah, 2019-07-08 The literacy autobiography is a personal narrative reflecting on how one's experiences of spoken and written words have contributed to their ongoing relationship with language and literacy Transnational Literacy Autobiographies as Translingual Writing is a cutting edge study of this engaging genre of writing in academic and professional contexts In this state of the art collection Suresh Canagarajah brings together 11 samples of writing by students that both document their literary journeys and pinpoint the seminal works affecting their development as translingual readers and writers Integrating the narrative of the author which is written as his own literacy autobiography with a close analysis of these texts this book presents a case for the literacy autobiography as an archetypal genre that prepares writers for the conventions and processes required in other genres of writing demonstrates the serious epistemological and rhetorical implications behind the genre of literacy autobiography among migrant scholars and students effectively translates theoretical publications on language diversity for classroom purposes providing a transferable teaching approach to translingual writing analyzes the tropes of transnational writers and their craft in meshing translingual resources in their writing demonstrates how transnationalism and translingualism are interconnected guiding readers toward an understanding of codemeshing not as a cosmetic addition to texts but motivated toward resolving inescapable personal and social dilemmas

Written and edited by one of the most highly regarded linguists of his generation this book is key reading for scholars and students of applied linguistics TESOL and literacy studies as well as tutors of writing and composition worldwide Building Genre Knowledge Christine Tardy,2009-07-15 Adopting an interdisciplinary perspective BUILDING GENRE KNOWLEDGE provides a unique look into the processes of building genre knowledge while offering a dynamic theory of those processes that is inclusive of both monolingual and multilingual writers a necessary move in today s linguistically diverse classrooms It will therefore be of great interest to researchers and practitioners in both first and second language writing studies

Boyer,2021-02-04 In My Life of Ministry Writing Teaching and Traveling The Autobiography of an Old Mines Missionary I present my life as a child growing up in a French village about sixty miles south of St Louis in the middle of the twentieth century After eighteen years of life in Old Mines the oldest settlement in the state of Missouri I moved to St Louis for four years and then to St Meinrad Indiana for four years where education opened my eyes to a world very much larger than my village of origin Life continued for me after ordination as a priest in the Roman Catholic Church in Springfield and Joplin Missouri Because my life is the thread stitching together this book I have made it manageable by dividing it into four categories ministry writing teaching and travel These categories contain the stories of others whose life threads of seventy years are woven into my lifetime tapestry This is my autobiography one of a missionary from Old Mines to the thirty nine counties forming the southern third of the state of Missouri composed during my seventieth year of life Psychology in Everyday Life David G. Myers,2011-02-18 Best of the Journals in Rhetoric and Composition 2015-2016 Steven Parks,Brian Bailie,2017-09-30 Features the best articles published in rhetoric and composition journals in the previous year Girls, Social Class, and Literacy Stephanie Jones,2006 Presents a comprehensive study guide to help teachers deal with impact of poverty on elementary education and draws upon the findings of her five year study of eight girls from poorer backgrounds The Politics of Second Language Writing Paul Kei Matsuda, Christina Ortmeier-Hooper, 2006-08-04 The Politics of Second Language Writing In Search of the Promised Land is the first edited collection to present a sustained discussion of classroom practices in larger contexts of institutional politics and policies Dialogue, Science and Academic Writing Zohar Livnat, 2012-01-11 This book investigates the dialogic nature of research articles from the perspective of discourse analysis based on theories of dialogicity It proposes a theoretical and applied framework for the understanding and exploration of scientific dialogicity Focusing on some dialogic components among them citations concession inclusive we and interrogatives a combined model of scientific dialogicity is proposed that reflects the place and role of various linguistic structures against the background of various theoretical approaches to dialogicity Taking this combined model as a basis the analysis demonstrates how scientific dialogicity is realized in an actual scientific dispute and how a scientific project is constructed step by step by means of a dialogue with its readers and discourse community A number of different patterns of scientific dialogicity are offered characterized by the different levels of the polemic held with the research world and other specific researchers from the classic moderate and polite dialogicity to a direct and personal confrontation between scientists

A Christian from Egypt: Life Story of a Neurosurgeon Pursuing the Dreams for Quintuple Certifications

Rhamsis F. Ghaly, 2015-01-23 A CHRISTIAN FROM EGYPT LIFE STORY RAMSIS F GHALY MD FACS This is my life story as a Coptic Christian born and raised in Egypt in an environment of limited opportunities and scarce resources especially for Christian minorities Seeking the promise opportunity I came to the United States nearly 30 years ago as a young man As I flew westward on the plane it did not occur to me that I would become a prominent neurosurgeon with a practice in one of the great cities of America Nor did I anticipate that I would ever be in a position to fight for save lives and fight for patients lives protecting them from the specter of financial greed permeates the health care industry This book chronicles my journey in America from my early struggles to get past closed doors to my current practice serving the mission set before me with uncompromising zeal and devotion Eventually I became a prominent American neurosurgeon among the only 4000 active nationwide and the only one nationally and internationally to achieve five board certifications in five acknowledged medical disciplines My story takes the reader through my first hand experiences through the eight health care systems and Chicagos history of neuroscience over the last three decades providing an in depth view of the medical practices in the surrounding suburban communities My book also includes the lessons that I have learned my personal views and patient testimonials What I have faced and seen since my plane landed in this country in 1984 is almost inexpressible It is my sincere wish that others may find hope and inspiration from my story as well as an understanding of the challenges that the healthcare industry faces today along with my own passion for excellence in neuroscience as I confront them I owe my success to God to my cherished parents my teachers my mentors and most importantly my beloved patients Writing the Family Kathleen

Skott-Myhre, Korinne Weima, Helen Gibbs, 2012-07-30 This is not a traditional book about the family In a very essential way it is a book about being a woman in relation to the current form of the family under capitalism in North America The authors are three women whose interest in the family stems out of their own unique and varied experiences The text is comprised of three autoethnographies that look at the family from radically distinct perspectives Each section is rooted in the author's own personal and professional life experience The book explores multi cultural family therapy living inside a divorcing family the role of child protective services issues of class and race in a family's identity how media and pop psychology shape our view of the family and what it is to be female in a patriarchal family system All three women are currently working with young people in various capacities Each section offers new ways to work together with young people to reshape the family so that it better serves those who live within it

Values and Virtues in Higher Education Research. Jean McNiff, 2016-06-10
Values and Virtues in Higher Education Research centres on practitioners studying and researching their practices in higher education settings in order to improve those practices for the benefit of others and themselves Making research public is a key aspect of ensuring the quality of educational research and educational practices Values and Virtues in Higher Education Research raises questions and develops conversations about why higher education practitioners should study and improve their work how this may be done and what might be some of the benefits of doing so What we do as practitioners is influenced by and linked with what we value what we believe is good Improving practices therefore involves becoming aware of and interrogating the values that enter into and inform those practices a study of practices becomes a study of the relationships between the practices in question and their values base From an international group of contributors in this growing field this book provides strong theoretical resources and case study material that shows how this transformation may be achieved including topics such as Theorising practices to show personal and organisational accountability Developing inter professional and inter disciplinary dialogues for social transformation Establishing communities of inquiry in higher education and other workplace settings Reconceptualising professional education as research informed practice Locating educational theory in the real world for human and environmental wellbeing Showing the evolution of theory through critical engagement this text will be a valuable companion for lecturers students and professional developers in higher education This book will form core reading for those who are interested in engaging in practice based research and as additional reading for those whose aim is to broaden their thinking in relation to the role of values and virtues in educational research Jean McNiff is an independent researcher and writer Professor of Educational Research at York St John University and Visiting Professor at Oslo and Akershus University College Beijing Normal University and Ningxia Teachers University She is also the author of key texts Action Research Principles and Practice You and Your Action Research Project and Writing Up Your Action Research Project
