Libri I-IX anglice redditi Eusebius (of Caesarea, Bishop of Caesarea),1903 the catechism of perseverance monsignor gaume,1881 Praeparatio Evangelica (The Preparation of the Gospel) E. H. Gifford,2020-09-28 By the present treatise which includes in its design the Demonstration of the Gospel I purpose to show the nature of Christianity to those who know not what it means and here with prayers I dedicate this work to thee Theodotus most excellent of Bishops a man beloved of God and holy in the hope of so gaining from thee the help of thy devout

intercessions on my behalf whereby thou mayest give me great assistance in my proposed argument on the teaching of the Gospel But first of all it is well to define clearly what this word Gospel means to express It is this then that brings good tidings to all men of the advent of the highest and greatest blessings which having been long since foretold have recently shone forth on all mankind a Gospel which makes not provision for undiscerning wealth nor for this petty and much suffering life nor for anything belonging to the body and corruption but for the blessings which are dear and congenial to souls possessing an intelligent nature and on which the interests of their bodies also depend and follow them like a shadow Now the chief of these blessings must be religion not that which is falsely so called and full of error but that which makes a true claim to the title and this consists in the looking up to Him who in very truth is both acknowledged to be and is the One and Only God and in the kindling of the life after God wherein friendship also with Him is engendered and this is followed by that thrice blessed end of God's true favour which coming from on high is dependent upon that better world and is thereto directed and terminates again therein What then can be more blessed than this excellent and all happy friendship with God Is not He both the dispenser and provider to all men of life and light and truth and all things good Does He not contain in Himself the cause of the being and the life of all things To one then who has secured friendship with Him what more can be wanting What can he lack who has made the Creator of all true blessings his friend Or who can be superior to him who claims in the place of a father and a guardian the great President and absolute Monarch of the universe Nay it is not possible to mention anything in which he who draws near in disposition to God the absolute Monarch and through his intelligent piety has been deemed worthy of His all blessed friendship can fail to be happy alike in soul and body and all outward things It is then this good and saving friendship of men with God that the Word of God sent down from above like a ray of infinite light from the God of all goodness proclaims as good tidings to all men and urges them to come not from this or that place but from every part out of all nations to the God of the universe and to hasten and accept the gift with all eagerness of soul Greeks and Barbarians together men women and children both rich and poor wise and simple not deeming even slaves unworthy of His call For indeed their Father having constituted them all of one essence and nature rightly admitted them all to share in His one equal bounty bestowing the knowledge of Himself and friendship with Him upon all who were willing to hearken and who readily welcomed His grace

The Book of Eusebius #4 Apostle Arne Horn,2017-04-29 Preparations for the Gospels The prominent position occupied by Eusebius of Caesarea in the Arian controversy and the Council of Nicaea has given rise to so many important treatises on his life and character that it would be quite superfluous to prefix a formal biography to the present edition of one among his many literary works It will be sufficient to mention a few of the best sources of information accessible to the English reader
