Mystery Of Being Vol II Faith And Reality:

Mystery of Being Gabriel Marcel, 1983-11-08 Faith and Reality the second volume of The Mystery of Being expands Marcel's philosophical quest for the means of transcending our broken world to the questions What is Being and What is the relation of existence to religious consciousness Reissued by arrangement with Regnery Gateway Inc Tragic Humanity and Hope Pius Ojara SJ, 2007-09-01 With insights into the thought of Gabriel Marcel Tragic Humanity and Hope recognizes that in our age scientific knowing is becoming a dominant form of knowledge The leadership influence growth and gravitational center of human existence depend it seems on scientific knowledge As a result we live in an information age that prizes production and immediate satisfaction but devalues the cultivation of wisdom We risk diminishing the significance of sapiential knowing to deal with the immensely complex and intricate domains of human relationality Furthermore inquiry into moral discernment methods expands becoming more diverse yet scholarly conversations that engage the vital exigencies as founding moral sensibility seem noticeably insufficient Tragic Humanity and Hope strives to overcome this lack But Ojara also seeks ethical groundings that exceed the language of pragmatic utility and aesthetic preference Foundations of morality cannot exclude questions of the common good and shared moral obligations that free people to reach out to one another with hopes and memories that endow life with shared meaning Through continuity and cohesion that the interlacing of scientific sapiential and moral knowing bring life becomes a marvelous expression of light joy and fervor Love as Common

Ground Paul S. Fiddes, 2021-09-23 This book explores the way in which the study and practice of love creates a common ground for different faiths and different traditions within the same faith For the contributors common ground in this context is not a minimal core of belief or a lowest common denominator of faith but a space or area in which to live together consider together the meaning of the love to which various faiths witness and work together to enable human flourishing Such a space the contributors believe is possible because it is the place of encounter with the divine This book is the fruit of a Project for the Study of Love in Religion which aims to create this space in which different traditions of love converge from Islam Judaism and the Christianity of both East and West Tools employed by the contributors in exploring this space of love include exegesis of ancient texts theology accounts of mystical experience philosophy and evolutionary science of the human Insights about human and divine love that emerge include its nature as a form of knowing its sacrificial and erotic dimensions its inclination towards beauty its making of community and its importance for a just political and economic life Israel's Original Sin, Volume II Richard J. Rolwing, 2002-05-20 WAS THE GOD OF JOSHUA THE GOD OF JESUS A relook at modern Israel's roots in ancient Israel salvation history biblical inspiration partial revelation imperfect theology and misguided leaders among Jews Muslims and Christians It asks considering Mohammed Ben Gurion and Harry Truman if Joshua has not had as much influence on western civilization as Jesus What on earth is God doing in the Middle East Do Uncle Sam and his protégé Israel justify divine providence in human history Do victories in war and success in business prove God's blessing and do failures in finance and disasters in health Aids manifest God's displeasure How does Christ's cross theology fit into history politics This book is indeed thoughtful and creative It highlights the need for all of us today to be much more self critical especially for us Christians to see how domination theology has been a part of our own approach Fr Dr James Bacik author of Apologetics and the Eclipse of Mystery Beyond Theodicy Sarah K. Pinnock, 2002-09-26 Explores the work of post Holocaust Jewish and Christian thinkers who reject theodicy arguments explaining why a loving God can permit evil and suffering in the world

Psychoanalysis as a Spiritual Discipline Paul Marcus, 2021-04-26 The great existential psychiatrist Ludwig Binswanger famously pointed out to Freud that therapeutic failure could only be understood as the result of something which could be called a deficiency of spirit Binswanger was surprised when Freud agreed asserting Yes spirit is everything However spirit and the spiritual realm have largely been dropped from mainstream psychoanalytic theory and practice This book seeks to help revitalize a culturally aging psychoanalysis that is in conceptual and clinical disarray in the marketplace of ideas and is viewed as a theory in crisis

no longer regarded as the primary therapy for those who are suffering The author argues that psychoanalysis and psychoanalytic psychotherapy can be reinvigorated as a discipline if it is animated by the powerfully evocative spiritual moral and ethical insights of two dialogical personalist religious philosophers Martin Buber a Jew and Gabriel Marcel a Catholic who both initiated a Copernican revolution in human thought In chapters that focus on love work faith suffering and clinical practice Paul Marcus shows how the spiritual optic of Buber and Marcel can help revive and refresh psychoanalysis and bring it back into the light by communicating its inherent vitality power and relevance to the mental health community and to those who seek psychoanalytic treatment Toward a Fuller Human Identity Pius Ojara, 2006 This book is based on the thought of Gabriel Marcel and offers an introduction to the central categories of Marcel's thought focusing on his idea of existential humanism This study deals with the ambivalence of human existence and the concepts of being ego and bodiliness The author draws on examples from everyday life with a particular focus on African values and the recovery of the black self

Selfless Love and Human Flourishing in Paul Tillich and Iris Murdoch Julia T. Meszaros, 2016-03-03 In an age of self affirmation and self assertion selfless love can appear as a threat to the lover's personal well being This perception jars with the Biblical promise that we gain our life through losing it and therefore calls for a theological response In conversation with the Protestant theologian Paul Tillich and the atheistic moral philosopher and novelist Iris Murdoch Selfless Love and Human Flourishing in Paul Tillich and Iris Murdoch enquires into the anthropological grounds on which selfless love can be said to build up rather than undermine the lover's self It proposes that while the implausibility of selfless love was furthered by the modern deconstruction of the self both Tillich and Murdoch utilize this very deconstruction towards explicating and restoring the link between selfless love and human flourishing Julia T Meszaros shows that they use the modern diagnosis of the human being's lack of a stable and independent self as manifest in Sartre's existentialism in support of an understanding of the self as relational and fallen This leads them to view a loving orientation away from self and a surrender to the other as critical to the full flourishing of human selfhood In arguing that Tillich and Murdoch defend the link between selfless love and human flourishing through reference to the human being's ontological selflessness Meszaros closely engages Søren Kierkegaard's earlier attempt to keep selfless love and human flourishing in a productive dialectical tension She also examines the breakdown of this tension in the later figures of Anders Nygren Simone Weil and Jean Paul Sartre and addresses the pitfalls of this breakdown Her examination concludes by arguing that the link between selfless love and human flourishing would be strengthened by a more resolute endorsement of a personal God and of the reciprocal nature of selfless love

Six Existentialist Thinkers Harold John Blackham, 2012-11-12 Includes summary but substantial accounts of the thought of Kierkegaard Nietzsche Jaspers Marcel Heidegger and Sartre and a concluding essay that attempts to interpret the whole Existentialist movement , A Phenomenology of Attention and the Unfamiliar Antony Fredriksson, 2022-10-10 Building on the thriving discussion on the role of attention within the phenomenological tradition from Aron Gurwitsch and Merleau Ponty to Bernhard Waldenfels this book investigates the enigmatic role of attention as a faculty that enables change within subjective and intersubjective experience The aim of the book is to reveal some characteristics of the processes in which subjects are unmade and remade and to highlight how we are able to change our relation to an empirical world that nevertheless has unity and constancy in our perception

Infinite Risk Theology Stefano Salemi, 2025-03-19 Could God's Son incarnate sin Could the tomb have remained closed Could the story have gone differently More precisely could God's Son be eternally separated from the Father's communion and eventually die and go out of existence Mainstream theology often argued for Christ's impossibility to change immutability be separated from the triune God indivisibility and sin impeccability Consequently there was no potential risk to his life his death on the cross could not affect in any form his divine life Would the cross not need instead a risk to be a sacrifice Here is where the question finds its raison d'être Could God's Son risk his eternal existence losing himself forever with all humankind This question is rarely considered or often neglected in Christological debates Ellen G White a woman among the most prolific nineteenth century authors and a prominent Adventist theologian delves into what she calls the infinite risk the potential reality of the death of God the Son Drawing on her extensive writings this book analyses White's Christology Incarnational model and views of the Godhead and of what could have happened at the cross cutting new paths in the comprehension of God's love while challenging conventional theological paradigms

The Cultural Power of Personal Objects Jared Kemling, 2021-12-01 The Cultural Power of Personal Objects seeks to understand the value and efficacy of objects places and times that take on cultural power and reverence to such a degree that they are treated whether metaphorically or actually as persons or as objects with personality they are living objects Featuring both historical and theoretical sections the volume details examples of this practice including the wampum of certain Native American tribes the tsukumogami of Japan the sacred keris knives of Java the personality of seagoing ships the ritual objects of Hinduism and Ancient Egypt and more The theoretical contributions aim to provide context for the existence and experience of personal objects drawing from a variety of disciplines Offering a variety of new philosophical perspectives on the theme while grounding the discussion in a historical context The Cultural Power of Personal Objects broadens and reinvigorates our understanding of cultural meaning and experience Gabriel Marcel's Ethics of Hope Jill Graper Hernandez,2011-10-13 The idea of hope has received significant attention in the political sphere recently But is hope just wishful thinking or can it be something more than a political catch phrase This book argues that hope can be understood existentially or on the basis of what it means to be human Under this conception of hope given to us by Gabriel Marcel hope is not optimism but the creation of ways for us to flourish War poverty and an absolute reliance on technology are real life evils that can suffocate hope Marcel s thought provides a way to overcome these negative experiences An ethics of hope can function as an alternative to isolation dread and anguish offered by most existentialists This book presents Marcel s existentialism as a convincing relevant moral theory founded on the creation of hope interwoven with the individual s response to the death of God Jill Hernandez argues that today s reader of Marcel can resonate with his belief that the experience of pain can be transcended through a philosophy of hope and an escape from materialism Resourcing Hope for Ageing and Dying in a Broken World Ashley Moyse,2022-09-06 For those captive to the broken world of late modernity wherein ageing and dying persons become vulnerable to despair this book offers a diagnostic of such despair It also resources the practices of a realistic humanising hope that might enable a strength for person to journey with and for others together through such despair Thus by addressing the aetiology of despair experienced by people confronting ageing frailty and dying and drawing upon the writings of Gabriel Marcel among others Ashley Moyse reveals the problematic life of a broken world with its functionalising metaphors instrumentalising reasoning and objectifying desires that offer no hope at all It is a broken world where despair generates behaviours that anticipate suicide or other often tragic outcomes that impede or greatly curtail or even completely inhibit human flourishing Resisting despair but living through it Moyse presents the activity of the moral life demonstrating a way persons might be resourced through an intersubjective and reflective pedagogy with its habits or practices that enable a humanising hope liberating human beings to become those readied to confront the actualities of human living and dying and encouraged to grow and develop as wayfarers hopefully
