HELEN FULLER ORTON

Helen Fuller Orton

A woman whose heart beat to the rhythm of the world's suffering, she was constantly occupied in writing for both men and girls. She writes clearly and simply, having her own vision and vision before the facts, satisfied by it to leave her hands, that place a fact of all a story, worthy of careful attention and very in telling, gives her understanding of the human and interests of children.

She, Orton's, story of her own life, children and animals, have long been well known, and she is now producing a whole period and volume during the period of her life and girls, who, when she fully described her own and a wealth of interesting and accurate background.
