The Mystic Vision Andrew Harvey, 1995 Offers 365 texts for daily contemplation of the mystic experience from religious traditions throughout the world The Yoga of Sound Russill Paul, 2010-08-02 For thousands of years Hindu spirituality has understood the profound effect that sound has on our well being From this tradition comes The Yoga of Sound which draws on yoga's long history of applying sound to reduce stress maintain health and invoke spiritual awakenings In lucid exercises presented both in the book and on accompanying downloadable audio tracks Russill Paul shows how everyone can learn the art of mantra and how these practices can help to optimize the flow of energy within the body and enhance Stewards of Spirit Gianetta Ellis, 2007-05 Intriguingly crafted this book takes you on a journey emotional well being through time self and nature that will leave you reeling in inspiration A uniquely creative blend of spirituality ecology and psychology Stewards of Spirit walks you through a three step process to awaken to your authenticity The process illustrated through an intuitively inspired case study of the life of a 19th century woman is based on the ecopsychological premise that humans well being is inextricably linked to nature We can therefore look to the planet as a model for the fulfillment of our own individual potential At the heart of this experience are Rachel's Ballads While ensconced in these freestyle lyrical writings you will feel as though you are at a play where each new act builds upon the last culminating in a shocking finale that carries you back to an historic event that shook the world and to this day still captures our hearts and imaginations Throughout Ellis seamlessly weaves the notions of spirituality and self development into the world of ecology demonstrating that nature offers us a route to awakening in direct contrast to our usual dichotomous approach that pits the spirit self against the ego or false self Whether you are seeking an experience that could change your approach to life or simply in the mood for an exceptional read this book will surely fulfill your expectations Mother artist and educator Gianetta Ellis is deeply passionate about the preservation of spirit and its role in the human relationship to Earth A life long student of religion she integrates theologic and spiritual notions regarding eco accountability and stewardship to her writing She is a Vermont Law Schoolgraduate with a successful environmental career spanning two decades In both the public and private sectors she has developed policy for and managed such diverse issues as habitat conservation pollution prevention hazardous waste abatement and watershed health She is the creator and owner of stewARTship studios where she incorporates art to stewardship by using various fine art forms as a means for students to build enduring connections to self and nature Whether teaching under graduates at the University of Pittsburgh or engaging school children in experiential nature study programs Gianetta is a dedicated professional who brings a uniquely creative and holistic approach to learning Three Mystics Walk into a Tavern James C. Sarna,1995-01-03 This book is the result of a lifetime of study of the Hebrew Bible by a mature scholar whose love of the Tanakh and especially of the Psalter shines through on every page The Making of a Mystic Evelyn Underhill, 2024-03-18 Evelyn Underhill 1875 1941 achieved international fame with the publication of her book Mysticism in 1911 Continuously in print since its original publication Mysticism remains Underhill s most famous work but in the course of her long career she published nearly forty books including three novels and three volumes of poetry as well as numerous poems in periodicals She was the religion editor for Spectator a friend of T S Eliot her influence is visible in his last masterpiece Four Quartets and the first woman invited to lecture on theology at Oxford University Her interest in religion extended beyond her Anglican upbringing to embrace the world's religions and their common spirituality. In time for the centennial celebration of her classic Mysticism this volume of Underhill's letters will enable readers and researchers to follow her as she reconciled her beliefs with her daily life The letters reveal her personal and theological development and clarify the relationships that influenced her life and work Hardly aloof she enjoyed the interests mirth and compassion of close friendships Drawing from collections previously unknown to scholars The Making of a Mystic shows the range of Evelyn Underhill s mind and interests as well as the immense network of her correspondents including Sir James Frazier and Nobel Prize laureate Rabindranath Tagore This substantial selection of Underhill's correspondence demonstrates an exceptional scope beginning with her earliest letters from boarding school to her mother and extending to a letter written to T S Eliot from what was to be her deathbed in London in 1941 as the London Blitz raged around her Divine Initiative and the Christology of the Damascus Road Encounter Timothy W. R. Churchill, 2010-04-28 The Damascus road encounter between Jesus and Paul is foundational to understanding the early development of Christology and indeed Christianity since it is the first appearance of the post ascension Jesus contained in the earliest Christian literature This study examines the encounter as it is described in Paul's epistles and the book of Acts Since Paul interprets his experience within the Jewish tradition this study begins with a survey of epiphany texts in the Old Testament and other ancient Jewish literature This reveals two new categories for appearances of God angels and other heavenly beings Divine initiative and Divine Response This survey also finds two distinct patterns of characterization for God and other heavenly beings These findings are then applied to Paul's accounts of his Damascus road encounter Paul depicts the encounter as a Divine initiative epiphany This conclusion is significant since it argues against the current view that the encounter was a merkabah vision Paul s Christology in the Damascus road encounter is also significant since Jesus is characterized as divine Such divine characterization is not typical for heavenly beings in first century CE epiphany texts Thus a high Pauline Christology appears to be present at a very early point The three accounts of the Damascus road encounter in Acts also fit the pattern of Divine Initiative not merkabah and exhibit the high Christology of Paul's accounts In fact the three accounts in Acts are shown to form an intentionally increasing sequence culminating in the revelation that Paul was called to be an apostle by Jesus himself on the Damascus road Publisher info Noticing God Richard Peace, 2012-04-13 Richard Peace unpacks what it means to make a conscious practice of noticing God in daily life He explores the various ways people experience and recognize God's presence in mystical encounters ordinary life our hearts through other people through Scripture nature and the church God is present in our world You can encounter him Here's how Re-visioning Sufism Jonas Atlas, 2019-10-28 Sufism is often described as the mystical branch of Islam Giving some more attention to this underexposed spiritual side it is often proposed could help us to ease certain contemporary societal tensions. One finger then points toward the rigorous religious aggression of fundamentalism as the problem while another points toward the soft beauty of mysticism as the solution Yet no matter how well intended the contemporary focus on Sufism might often be in the end it repeatedly portrays a lack of comprehension when it comes to Islamic mysticism The typical descriptions are full of mistakes and the conclusions they lead to need much nuance Those misunderstandings do not simply stem from innocent ignorance They are misunderstandings with more profound origins and implications They re closely tied to enormous blind spots in the contemporary view of religion and deeply entwined with pressing political issues In fact the way we deal with mysticism in general and with Sufism in particular actually kindles many contemporary conflicts This book thus seeks to add the necessary nuances correct the misunderstandings and unveil the contemporary politics of mysticism It seeks to clarify how the growing interest in what is called Sufism is connected to both the contemporary demonization of Islam and the modern destruction of profound spirituality in the East as well as the West Salute the Everlasting Day Chrysostom Koutloumousianos, 2025-01-01 In Salute the Everlasting Day Chrysostom Koutloumousianos transcends time location and culture to bring two great minds together Preeminent sixth century hymnographer of the Greek speaking East Romanos the Melodist and the most enthralling poet and preacher of early modern England John Donne meet in passionate dialogue The poets similarities and divergences are explored their poetic and theological brilliance demonstrated in a comparative context and unravelled are the mysteries of human existence along with the connection between the eschatological Kingdom and the transfiguration of the human being in this present life Using direct quotations from their literary corpus as well as tailoring to the needs of a living dialogue and elaborating on their teachings Koutloumousianos presents the first comparative study of Romanos the Melodist and John Donne in all its sensitivity and beauty capturing their shared vision for contemporary society
