Mystical Rites Of Expiation And Redemption:

The Repairable and the Irreparable Johann Michel, 2022-12-19 Since the mid twentieth century Western societies have seen an unprecedented increase in movements demands and policies in favor of reparations The historical catastrophes that shook the last century are both the immediate origin of this groundswell and its founding paradigm The Repairable and the Irreparable Being Human in the Age of Vulnerability places reparation within a wider contemporary context and describes it in its full anthropological depth Repair is a global phenomenon that does not present itself in a unified way Ideas of repair and reparation are expressed at different levels for instance one can mend a damaged object heal a wound redress an injury or make amends for an offence Johann Michel explores how repair and reparation tell us about human beings natural vulnerability our moral fallibility and our social incompleteness but also about the many capabilities we draw upon to mitigate these shortcomings It is from the heart of human finitude that repair and reparation draw meaning and the irreparable whether due to time or to a debt that can never be repaid haunt any policy of reparation Such are the challenges to be addressed by a philosophy of repair and reparation constructed in renewed dialogue with the social sciences Divine
