Mysticism And The Doctrine Of Deification:

Mystical Doctrines of Deification John Arblaster, Rob Faesen, 2018-10-03 The notion of the deification of the human person theosis theopoi sis deificatio was one of the most fundamental themes of Christian theology in its first centuries especially in the Greek world It is often assumed that this theme was exclusively developed in Eastern theology after the patristic period and thus its presence in the theology of the Latin West is generally overlooked The aim of this collection is to explore some Patristic articulations of the doctrine in both the East and West but also to highlight its enduring presence in the Western tradition and its relevance for contemporary thought The collection thus brings together a number of capita selecta that focus on the development of theosis through the ages until the Early Modern Period It is unique not only in emphasising the role of theosis in the West but also in bringing to the fore a number of little known authors and texts and analysing their theology from a variety of fresh perspectives Thus mystical theology in the West is shown to have profound connections with similar concerns in the East and with the common patristic sources By tying these traditions together this volume brings new insight to one of mysticism s key concerns As such it will be of significant interest to scholars of religious studies mysticism theology and the history of religion

Turgenev and Russian Culture Joe Andrew, Derek Offord, Robert Reid, 2008 The present volume has as its central aim a reassessment of the works of Ivan Turgenev for the twenty first century Against the background of a decline in interest in nineteenth century literature the articles gathered here seek to argue that the period in general and his work in particular still have much to offer the modern sensibility The volume also offers a great variety of approaches Some of the contributors tackle major works by Turgenev including Rudin and Smoke while others address key themes that run through all his creative work Yet others address his influence as well as his broader relationship with Russian and other cultures A final group of articles examines other key figures in Russian literary culture including Belinskii Herzen and Tolstoi The work will therefore be of interest to students postgraduates and specialists in the field of Russian literary culture At the same time they will stand as a tribute to the life and work of Professor Richard Peace a long standing specialist in nineteenth century Russian literature in whose honour the volume has been compiled

Partakers of the Divine Nature Michael J. Christensen, Jeffery A. Wittung, 2007 This critical volume focuses on the issue of continuity and discontinuity of the Christian concept of theosis or deification in the intellectual history of ideas It addresses the origin development and function of theosis from its antecedents in ancient Greek philosophy to its nuanced use in contemporary theological thought Often seen as a heresy in the Protestant West the revival of interest in deification in both lay and scholastic circles heralds a return to foundational understandings of salvation in the Christian church before the divisions of East and West Catholic and Protestant

The Oxford Handbook of Mystical Theology Edward Howells, Mark A. McIntosh, 2020-02-25 The Oxford Handbook of Mystical Theology provides a guide to the mystical element of Christianity as a theological phenomenon It differs not only from psychological and anthropological studies of mysticism but from other theological studies such as more practical or pastorally oriented works that examine the patterns of spiritual progress and offer counsel for deeper understanding and spiritual development. It also differs from more explicitly historical studies tracing the theological and philosophical contexts and ideas of various key figures and schools as well as from literary studies of the linguistic tropes and expressive forms in mystical texts. None of these perspectives is absent but the method here is more deliberately theological, working from within the fundamental interests of Christian mystical writers to the articulation of those interests in distinctively theological forms in order finally to permit a critical theological engagement with them for today. Divided into four parts, the first section introduces the approach to mystical theology and offers a historical overview. Part two attends to the concrete context of sources and practices of mystical theology. Part three moves to the fundamental conceptualities of mystical thought. The final section ends with the central contributions of mystical teaching to theology and metaphysics. Students and scholars with a variety of interests will find different pathways through the Handbook.
