Mystics For Our Time:

Women Christian Mystics Speak to Our Times David B. Perrin, 2001 Women Christian Mystics Speak to Our Times is an ambitious collection of essays by leading scholars that connects the modern world with the timeless wisdom of women such as Catherine of Siena Hildegard of Bingen Th rFse of Lisieux Mary of Bizye Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila Birgitta of Sweden Hadewijch of Brabant Agnes of Blarmbekin Mechthild of Magdeburg Marguerite de Porete and Catherine of Genoa While emphasizing the holy lives of these women this book also reveals their lasting contributions to theology and spirituality Bound by a common belief that women Christian mystics have much to teach us today these accessible essays are geared toward classrooms and educated lay readers Hope for Our Time Avraham Shapira, 2012-02-01 Martin Buber s work ranged across disciplines and modes of expression to include philosophy religion social studies and literature Buber never presented a comprehensive statement of his worldview in any of his central works and repeated time and again that he had no doctrine In this book Avraham Shapira traces the history of Buber s ideas and locates underlying structures which unite Buber s thought Ultimately Hope for Our Time shows the connection between Buber s philosophy and his spiritual biography

Fragments: The Existential Situation of Our Time David Tracy, 2020-04-10 Even as mere fragments these essays are an imaginatively learned feast for virtually anyone interested in modern theologies Modern Theology David Tracy is widely considered one of the most important religious thinkers in North America known for his pluralistic vision and disciplinary breadth His first book in more than twenty years reflects Tracy s range and erudition collecting essays from the 1980s to 2018 into a two volume work that will be greeted with joy by his admirers and praise from new readers In the first volume Fragments Tracy gathers his most important essays on broad theological questions beginning with the problem of suffering across Greek tragedy Christianity and Buddhism The volume goes on to address the Infinite and the many attempts to categorize and name it by Plato Aristotle Rilke Heidegger and others In the remaining essays he reflects on questions of the invisible contemplation hermeneutics and public theology Throughout Tracy evokes the potential of fragments understood both as concepts and events to shatter closed systems and open us to difference and Infinity Covering science literature philosophy psychoanalysis and non Western religious traditions Tracy provides in Fragments a guide for any open reader to rethink our fragmenting contemporary culture Tracy demonstrates the range of his philosophical interests in service of theology particularly his profound attention to hermeneutics A rich feast We can be grateful for the insightful essays collected in this volume from one of America s leading theologians Currents in Theology and Mission Hours with the Mystics Robert Alfred Vaughan, 1891 Mystics and Scholars Terence Penelhum, 2006-01-01 In September of 1976 a group of some fifty scholars and practising mystics gathered at the University of Calgary The chief objective of the Conference was to ponder and assess the nature of mysticism in its Eastern Western and North American Indian forms The method the Conference followed was somewhat unusual in that it aimed at a dialogue between the practising mystics and the scholars

What this book presents to the reader is not the outcome of the dialogue but the personal statements and papers from which the dialogue began. Of course there is a degree to which the dialogue is already present in that the papers of the scholars were written with the statements of the mystics in hand. Among some of the philosophers present a set of more formal comments on each others presentations was recorded and these have been included.
