Thresholds: Rethinking Spirituality Through Music Marcel Cobussen, 2017-07-05 In Thresholds Marcel Cobussen rethinks the relationship between music and spirituality The point of departure is the current movement within contemporary classical music known as New Spiritual Music with as its main representatives Arvo P John Tavener and Giya Kancheli In almost all respects the musical principles of the new spiritual music seem to be diametrically opposed to those of modernism repetition and rest versus development and progress tradition and familiarity versus innovation and experiment communication versus individualism and conceptualism tonality versus atonality and so on As such this movement is often considered as part of the much larger complex called postmodernism

Joining in with ideas on spirituality as presented by Michel de Certeau and Mark C Taylor Cobussen deconstructs the classification of the spiritual dimensions of music as described above Thresholds presents an idea of spirituality in and through music that counters strategies of exclusion and mastering of alterity and connects it to wandering erring and roving Using the philosophy of Martin Heidegger Georges Bataille Jean Fran s Lyotard Jacques Derrida and others and analysing the music of John Coltrane the mythical Sirens Arvo P and The Eagles to mention a few Cobussen regards spirituality as a non concept that escapes categorization classification and linguistic descriptions Spirituality is a topological non discursive and a manifestation of otherness And it is precisely music or better listening to music that induces these thoughts by carefully encountering analysing and evaluating certain examples from classical jazz pop and world music it is possible to detach spirituality from concepts of otherworldliness and transcendentalism Thresholds opens a space in which spirituality can be connected to music that is not commonly considered in this light thereby enriching the ways of approaching and discussing music

McIntosh, 2020-02-25 The Oxford Handbook of Mystical Theology provides a guide to the mystical element of Christianity as a theological phenomenon It differs not only from psychological and anthropological studies of mysticism but from other theological studies such as more practical or pastorally oriented works that examine the patterns of spiritual progress and offer counsel for deeper understanding and spiritual development It also differs from more explicitly historical studies tracing the theological and philosophical contexts and ideas of various key figures and schools as well as from literary studies of the linguistic tropes and expressive forms in mystical texts None of these perspectives is absent but the method here is more deliberately theological working from within the fundamental interests of Christian mystical writers to the articulation of those interests in distinctively theological forms in order finally to permit a critical theological engagement with them for today Divided into four parts the first section introduces the approach to mystical theology and offers a historical overview Part two attends to the concrete context of sources and practices of mystical theology Part three moves to the fundamental conceptualities of mystical thought The final section ends with the central contributions of mystical teaching to theology and metaphysics Students and scholars with a variety of interests will find different pathways through the Handbook Philosophy of Mysticism Richard H.
