Land of Beautiful Vision Sally McAra,2007-04-30 Land of Beautiful Vision is the first book length ethnography to address the role of material culture in contemporary adaptations of Buddhism and the first to focus on convert Buddhists in

New Zealand Sally McAra takes as her subject a fascinating instance of an ongoing creative process whereby a global religion is made locally meaningful through the construction of a Buddhist sacred place She uses an in depth case study of a small religious structure a stupa in rural New Zealand to explore larger issues related to the contemporary surge in interest in Buddhism and religious globalization Her research extends beyond the level of public discourse on Buddhism to investigate narratives of members of the Friends of the Western Buddhist Order FWBO about their relationship with the land analyzing these and the FWBO s transformative project through a thematic focus on key symbolic landmarks at their site Sudarshanaloka In considering cross cultural interactions resulting in syncretism or indigenization of alien religions many anthropological studies concentrate on the unequal power relations between colonizing and colonized peoples McAra extrapolates from this literature to look at a situation where the underlying power relations are quite different She focuses on individuals in an organization whose members seek to appropriate knowledge from an Eastern tradition to remake their own society one shaped by its unresolved colonizing past

Creases in Culture Dennis Patrick Slattery, 2014-01-15 This collection of essays written over a period of years entertains the shared place of psyche and poetics Dr Slattery has explored the manner in which the psyche is poetic and how poetry is deeply psycho mythical Influenced in part by the archetypal psychologist James Hillman s idea of the poetic basis of mind that comprises the soul s foundation Slattery s writing moves into the interactive field in which myth is the ground for both psyche and poetry The essays develop a further understanding of what has been called mythopoiesis the fundamental myth making and shaping capacity of the soul

Entertaining Judgment Greg Garrett, 2015 Nowadays references to the afterlife angels strumming harps demons brandishing pitchforks God enthroned on heavenly clouds are more often encountered in New Yorker cartoons than in serious Christian theological reflection Speculation about death and its sequel seems to embarrass many theologians however as Greg Garrett shows in Entertaining Judgment popular culture in the U S has found rich ground for creative expression in the search for answers to the question What lies in store for us after we die The lyrics of Madonna Los Lonely Boys and Sean Combs the plotlines of TV s Lost South Park and The Walking Dead the implied theology in films such as The Dark Knight Ghost and Field of Dreams the heavenly half light of Thomas Kinkadee s popular paintings the ghosts shades and after life way stations in Harry Potter and the characters situations and locations in the Hunger Games saga all speak to our hopes and fears about what comes next In a rich survey of literature and popular media Garrett compares cultural accounts of death and the afterlife with those found in scripture Denizens of the imagined afterlife whether in heaven hell on earth or in purgatory speak to what awaits us at once shaping and reflecting our deeply held if often somewhat nebulous beliefs They show us what rewards and punishments we might expect offer us divine assistance and even diabolically attack us Ultimately we are drawn to these stories of heaven hell and purgatory and to stories about death and the undead not only because they entertain us but because they help us to create meaning and to learn about ourselves our world and perhaps the next world Garrett s deft analysis sheds new light on what popular culture can tell us about the startlingly sharp divide between what modern people profess to believe and what they truly hope and expect to find after death and how they use those stories to help them understand this life      Killing Beauty in North America Constance Mills Atkins Buck PhD,2022-11-07 My great grandfather Brigadier General Anson Mills engaged in battle with the Sioux and Cheyenne Indians in South Dakota in the 1800s He led the battle against the Native people at the Battle of Slim Buttes in Montana War trophies considered sacred objects by the Indians included a beautiful beaded clothing a war bonnet with buffalo horns and a blanket strip They were only a few of the pieces I grew up with They hung on the walls of my parents home I remember as a child that I would physically cringe and contract around them I did not know why but I felt pain and heard them speak I am in pain I want to go home In the early 1970s I met the sacred Hat Carrier and other Cheyenne native people I returned the beautiful articles which were placed in the Jim Gatchell Museum in Buffalo Wyoming There are many stories told about European experiences when they landed Most stories idealize the experience of white males There are many other stories to be told This is one of them

A Social Critique of Corporate Reporting David Crowther,2016-03-16 In the critically acclaimed first edition of A Social Critique of Corporate Reporting David Crowther examined the perceived dialectic around traditional and environmental reporting to show it to be a false dialectic Corporate reporting continues to change rapidly to incorporate more detail and especially environmental and social information At the same time the mechanism for reporting has changed and the internet now enables more information to be provided to an ever wider range of stakeholders and interest groups The perceived conflict between financial performance representing the needs of investors and other dimensions of performance representing the needs of other stakeholders still however continues to exist In this updated edition this perceived conflict is re examined along with the wider purposes of corporate reporting These are examined in the context of web based reporting and a greater concern for all stakeholders The conclusion is that although recent developments have produced changes the essential conflict is still professed to exist but remains a largely imaginary one The analysis in this book makes use of both statistics and semiotics and in so doing develops a semiology of corporate reporting that offers an alternative to other research that is largely based on econometrics Researchers higher level students and others with an interest in or responsibility for corporate reporting corporate social responsibility accounting research or semiotics will find this book essential reading

Being and Building up the Church in My Father's Home Alozie Oliver Onwubiko,2020-05-29 The rehabilitation by St Pope Paul VI of African traditional religions and cultures has made them more objective for philosophical theological and anthropological investigation and reflection And the investigating and reflecting subject is a native African himself The repatriation of missiology into ecclesiology in the Catholic Church towards the end of the 20th Century was a new development and the result of it is what we have before us in this book Here personal native anthropological philosophical and theological studies and experience have combined with in depth reading of some African novelists necessarily Afrocentric distillation of African culture has nourished thinking and reflection at a new level in terms of ecclesial implications of living Christianity authentically and of being and building the Church in my father s home beyond deference as defect

The Hero's Journey Joseph Campbell,2003 Joseph Campbell arguably the greatest mythologist of our time was certainly one of our greatest storytellers

Pathways to Bliss Joseph Campbell,2009-12 Joseph Campbell famously defined myth as other people s religion But he also said that one of the basic functions of myth is to help each individual through the journey of life providing a sort of travel guide or map to reach fulfillment or as he called it bliss For Campbell

many of the world's most powerful myths support the individual's heroic path toward bliss In Pathways to Bliss Campbell examines this personal psychological side of myth Like his classic bestselling books Myths to Live By and The Power of Myth Pathways to Bliss draws from Campbell's popular lectures and dialogues which highlight his remarkable storytelling and ability to apply the larger themes of world mythology to personal growth and the quest for transformation Here he anchors mythology's symbolic wisdom to the individual applying the most poetic mythical metaphors to the challenges of our daily lives Campbell dwells on life's important questions Combining cross cultural stories with the teachings of modern psychology he examines the ways in which our myths shape and enrich our lives He explores the many insights of Carl Jung the notion of self as the hero and how East and West differ in their approaches to the ego The book also includes an extensive question and answer session that ranges from mythological readings of the Bible to how the Hero's Journey unfolds for women With his usual wit and insight Campbell draws connections between ancient symbols and modern art schizophrenia and the Hero's Journey Along the way he shows how myth can help each of us truly identify and follow our bliss
