Mythological Painting:

Lavinia Fontana's Mythological Paintings Liana De Girolami Cheney, 2020-08-18 This volume investigates emblematic and art historical issues in Lavinia Fontana's mythological paintings. Fontana is the first female painter of the sixteenth century in Italy to depict female nudes as well as mythological and emblematic paintings associated with concepts of beauty and wisdom. Her paintings reveal an appropriation of the antique, a fusion between patronage and culture, and a humanistic pursuit of Mannerist conceits. Fontana's secular imagery provides a challenging paragone with the male tradition of history painting during the sixteenth century and paves the way for new subjects to be depicted and interpreted by female painters of the seventeenth century. A Handbook of Legendary and Mythological Art Clara Erskine Clement Waters, 1874

The Loves of the Gods Colin B. Bailey, Carrie A. Hamilton, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 1992 Published to accompany the exhibitions held at Galeries Nationales Du Grand Paris 15 October 1991 6 January 1992 Philadelphia Museum of Art 23 February 26 April 1992 and at the Kimbell Art Museum Fort Worth 23 May 2 August 1992 Classical Myths in Italian Renaissance Painting Luba Freedman, 2011-06-30 The book is about a new development in Italian Renaissance art; its aim is to show how artists and humanists came together to effect this revolution; it is important because this is a long ignored but crucial aspect of the Italian Renaissance showing us why the masterpieces we take for granted are the way they are and there is no competitor in the field. The book sheds light on some of the world's greatest masterpieces of art including Botticelli's Venus, Leonardo's Leda, Raphael's Galatea, and Titian's Bacchus and Ariadne. Provided by publisher. Mythological Painting Michael Jacobs, 1979 Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth. Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship. Composed of fourteen original essays, Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap, exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth. Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration, the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects: Francis Alÿs, Ghada Amer, Wim Delvoye, Luciano Fabro, Joanna Frueh, Felix Gonzales Torres, Duane Hanson, Yayoi Kusama, Roy Lichtenstein, Kara Walker, and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew, subsequently entitled The Falling Man. Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities, these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration. Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths, while others take a broader approach, calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art. Roman Painting Roger Ling, 1991-03-07 A general survey of Roman wall painting from the second century B.C. through the fourth century A.D. traces the origins, chronological development, subjects, techniques, and social context of the influential art form. Nineteenth-century Painters and Painting Geraldine Norman, 1977-01-01 Early

Titian & Tragic Painting Thomas Puttfarcken, 2005-01-01 Late in his life Titian created a series of paintings the Four Sinners the poesie for his patron Philip II of Spain and the Final Tragedies that were dark in tone and content full of pathos and physical suffering In this major reinterpretation of Titian s art Thomas Puttfarcken shows that the often dramatic and violent subject matter of these works was not as is often argued the consequence of the artist s increasing age and sense of isolation and tragedy Rather these paintings were influenced by discussions of Aristotle s Poetics that permeated learned discourse in Italy in the mid sixteenth century The Poetics led directly to a rich theory of the visual arts and painting in particular that enabled artists like Titian to consider themselves on equal footing with poets Puttfarcken investigates Titian s late works in this context and analyzes his relations with his patrons his intellectual and humanistic contacts and his choices of subject matter style and technique

The Death of Myth on Roman Sarcophagi Mont Allen, 2022-12-29 A strange thing happened to Roman sarcophagi in the third century their Greek mythic imagery vanished Since the beginning of their production a century earlier these beautifully carved coffins had featured bold mythological scenes How do we make sense of this imagery s own death on later sarcophagi when mythological narratives were truncated gods and heroes were excised and genres featuring no mythic content whatsoever came to the fore What is the significance of such a profound tectonic shift in the Roman funerary imagination for our understanding of Roman history and culture for the development of its arts for the passage from the High to the Late Empire and the coming of Christianity but above all for the individual Roman women and men who chose this imagery and who took it with them to the grave In this book Mont Allen offers the clues that aid in resolving this mystery

Wandering Myths Lucy Gaynor Audley-Miller, Beate Dignas, 2018-10-08 In spite of the growing amount of important new work being carried out on uses of myth in particular ancient contexts their appeal and reception beyond the framework of one culture have rarely been the primary object of enquiry in contemporary debate Highlighting the fact that ancient societies were linked by their shared use of mythological narratives Wandering Myths aims to advance our understanding of the mechanisms by which such tales were disseminated cross culturally and to investigate how they gained local resonances In order to assess both wider geographic circulations and to explore specific local features and interpretations a regional approach is adopted with a particular focus on Anatolia the Near East and Italy Contributions are drawn from a range of disciplines and cross a wide chronological span but all are interlinked by their engagement with questions focusing on the factors that guided the processes of reception and steered the facets of local interpretation The Preface and Epilogue evaluate the material in a synoptic way and frame the challenging questions and views expressed in the Introduction

Images and Ideas in Seventeenth-Century Spanish Painting Jonathan Brown, Professor Jonathan Brown, 1978-01-01 Art historians have often minimized the variety and complexity of seventeenth century Spanish painting by concentrating on individual artists and their works and by stressing discovery of new information rather than interpretation

As a consequence the painter emerges in isolation from the forces that shaped his work Jonathan Brown offers another approach to the subject by relating important Spanish Baroque paintings and painters to their cultural milieu A critical survey of the historiography of seventeenth century Spanish painting introduces this two part collection of essays Part One provides the most detailed study to date of the artistic literary academy of Francisco Pacheco and Part Two contains original studies of four major painters and their works Las Meninas of Velázquez Zurbarán's decoration of the sacristy at Guadalupe and the work by Murillo and Valdés Leal for the Brotherhood of Charity Seville The essays are unified by the author's intention to show how the artists interacted with and responded to the prevailing social theological and historical currents of the time While this contextual approach is not uncommon in the study of European art it is newly applied here to restore some of the diversity and substance that Spanish Baroque painting originally possessed

Italian Renaissance Painting According to Genres Jacob Burckhardt, 2005 Jacob Burckhardt 1818-1897 was one of the first great historians of culture and art In his manuscript on the genres of Italian Renaissance painting still unpublished in the original German and published here in English for the first time Burckhardt assayed a transformative approach to the study of art history Rather than undertaking a biographical or a chronological reading of artistic development Burckhardt chose to read the source materials and extant works of the Italian Renaissance synchronically by genre Probably written between 1885 and 1893 this manuscript takes up twelve different categories of paintings ranging from the allegorical to the historical from the biblical to the mythological from the glorification of saints to the denunciation of sinners Maurizio Ghelardi's introductory essay analyzes Burckhardt's innovative treatment of his subject establishing the importance of this text not only within Burckhardt's oeuvre but also within the continuum of art historical research
