Mythologies Of Nothing Mystical Death In American Poetry 1940 7:

Mythologies of Nothing Anthony Libby, 1984 The Incorporative Consciousness of Robert Bly Victoria Frenkel Harris, 1992 Victoria Frenkel Harris traces the aesthetic journey of poet Robert Bly from his early structured works of mystical imagery and lyrical landscapes to his recent explorations of intimate relationships and male socialization Examining the various ways Bly's prose poems articulate his opposition to the Vietnam War and his recent writings manipulate more formal patterns in detailing the intricacies of human relationships Harris labels this evolution in form subject and imagery the incorporative consciousness incorporative because it assimilates Jungian psychological categories international poetic traditions and a compelling breadth of topics Harris relies in part on contemporary feminist theory to throw revealing new light on Bly's recent works Though sympathetic to Bly Harris finds that in spite of his affirmation of the interaction of psychic creative and intellectual energies in both sexes the poet's later erotic poems tend to objectify women in counterproductive ways Bly's idealization of woman as a Jungian universal Harris contends can blind him toward actual women Harris is at her best as she delimits with balance and precision the full complexity of the poet's work A History of American Literature Richard Gray, 2011-09-23 Updated throughout and with much new material A History of American Literature Second Edition is the most up to date and comprehensive survey available of the myriad forms of American Literature from pre Columbian times to the present The most comprehensive and up to date history of American literature available today Covers fiction poetry drama and non fiction as well as other forms of literature including folktale spirituals the detective story the thriller and science fiction Explores the plural character of American literature including the contributions made by African American Native American Hispanic and Asian American writers Considers how our understanding of American literature has changed over the past thirty years Situates American literature in the contexts of American history politics and society Offers an invaluable introduction to American literature for students at all levels academic and general readers The Ethics of William Carlos Williams's Poetry Ian D. Copestake, 2010 The poet as an inheritor of an Emersonian tradition and Paterson as an ethical autobiography in progress Mystery in its Passions: Literary Explorations Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Through mystery literature reveals to us the Great Unknown While we are absorbed by the matters at hand with the present enactment of our life groping for clues to handle them it is through literature that we discover the hidden strings underlying their networks Hence our fascination with literature But there is more The creative act of the human being its proper focus holds the key to the Sesam of life to the great metaphysical onto-poietic questions which literature may disclose First it leads us to the subliminal grounds of transformation in the human soul source of the specifically human significance of life Analecta Husserliana Volume III XIX XXIII XXVII Second it leads us to the unveiling of the hidden workings of life in the twilight of knowing in a dialectic between The Visible and the Invisible Volume LXXV 2002 Analecta Husserliana down to the onto-poietic truth Volume LXXVI 2002 Analecta Husserliana This prying into the unknown which provokes the human being as he or she attempts to conquer step by step a space of existence finds its culmination in the phenomenon of mystery as the subject of the present collection Its formulation brings us to the greatest question of all the enigmatic solidarity in distinctiveness of human cognition and existence Papers are written by Tony E Afejuku Gary Backhaus Paul G Beidler Matthew J Duffy Raffaella Giovagnoli Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei Matti Itkonen Lawrence Kimmel Catherine Malloy Vladimir L Marchenkov Nancy Mardas Howard Pearce Bernadette Prochaska Victor Gerald Rivas M J Sahlani Dennis Skocz Jadwiga S Smith Mara Stafecka Max Statkiewicz Mariola Sulkowska Anna Teresa Tymieniecka Leon U Weinman Tim Weiss

A Poetics on Edge Silvianna Blosser, 2001 This study takes a close look at the language of Sylvia Plath's poetry and prose in terms of how the poetic language works rather than why she wrote as she did A detailed analysis of her poems her short stories and her only novel The Bell Jar traces Sylvia Plath's development of a poetics of her own from monological poems to dialogic prose based on her own frequent remarks on the writing process in her essays letters and journals Sylvia Plath was a writer often torn between traditional and modernist modes of writing and a poetics of the open hand as she formulated it She is presented as a poet at the crossroads to postmodern ways of thought and writing rather than as a woman helplessly caught up in her own creative and biographical problems The versatility and dynamics of her creativity and her own reflections on these processes can be linked to notions and trends in literary theory over the past few decades
