New Of The Universe Poems Of Twofold Consciousness:

News of the Universe, 1995 Poems from various eras and cultures illustrate people's perception of nature and consciousness and how that perception changed News of the Universe Robert Bly, 2015-09-15 Acclaimed poet and translator Robert Bly here assembles a unique cross cultural anthology that illuminates the idea of a larger than human consciousness operating in the universe The book's 150 poems come from around the world and many eras from the ecstatic Sufi poet Rumi to contemporary voices like Kenneth Rexroth Denise Levertov Charles Simic and Mary Oliver Brilliant introductory essays trace our shifting attitudes toward the natural world from the old position of dominating or denigrating nature to the growing sympathy expressed by the Romantics and American poets like Whitman and Dickinson Bly's translations of Neruda Rilke and others along with superb examples of non Western verse such as Eskimo and Zuni songs complete this important provocative anthology Harvesting Darkness Dennis Patrick Slattery, 2006-03-06 As Dennis Patrick Slattery's writing shows the very stuff of the great traditions is life itself and the hurly burly of current culture is the ground in which tradition thrives Slattery's analyses are keen and thoughtful often scholarly and always deeply spiritual But they are better for being a bit pugnacious and intimate and virile They give evidence of a life lived in earnest one in which nothing is walled off into a category but all enters into the whole that is the mysterious grounding of the person Foreword by Louise Cowan Author of The Fugitive Group Series Editor The Terrain of Comedy The Epic Cosmos And The Tragic Abyss Founder Institute of Philosophic Studies The University of Dallas the Teachers Academy at the Dallas Institute of Humanities and Culture Second Simplicity Bruno Barnhart, 1999 Bruno Barnhart's new book uncovers the contours of a Christian wisdom and explores the ways that a Christian faith often bound by rule structure and order can open itself to the unitive vision at its root This book proposes an opening of consciousness beyond thought of theological vision beyond rational knowledge and of Christianity beyond the perimeter of church Bruno Barnhart invites us to move into a fuller experience of Christianity an experience of wisdom that brings all created reality into unity with God Therein lies the second simplicity BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The World in the Shadow of God Ephraim Radner, 2010-06-01 In The World in the Shadow of God Ephraim Radner argues for a vigorous Christian natural theology and insists that such a theology must of necessity be performed poetically The peculiar character of such a theology is found in its disclosing of the natural limits that indicate indirectly the impinging and more fundamental reality of the divine life Natural theology represents the encounter between created reality and the shadow of God's creative and revelatory grace However the encounter is a morally demanding task for the Christian church if it is to be held accountable to the truth on which its life is based The first portion of the book offers an extended critical essay on the nature of this sort of natural theology while the second provides a developed set of examples through poems that display the natural world in light of the truths articulated in the Apostles Creed Those interested in the intersection of theology literature history and the natural world will be challenged by this attempt to renew a basic element of Christian knowledge and culture
