Growing Leaders Within Michael Coquyt,Brian K. Creasman,2017-07-20 Growing Leaders Within A Process toward Teacher Leadership will aid school administrators in the task of growing and empowering teacher leaders The goal of growing teacher leaders is to grow a school culture of shared decision making and collaborative leadership It is through this transformation that teacher leaders help school administrators to create a laser focus on student success The underpinnings of the book are based on academic research resulting in a seven step process to growing teacher leaders which is distinctive from other books about teacher leadership Schools may have several teacher leader candidates but it is the responsibility of the school administration to ensure that the right individuals are chosen to become part of the school s leadership team The role of teacher leadership can be diminished if the wrong individuals are selected In response to this the book offers school administrators a research based pragmatic growth process that ensures the right teachers are chosen to enter the leadership ranks at any school Growing and empowering teachers to be leaders is now critical in all schools Nurture II A Nurturing Approach to Trauma Dr. Mattie Lee Jones, 2024-07-17 In the book Nurture Dr Mattie demonstrated how the social emotional and cognitive development of children are connected and how by creating nurturing environments children will thrive now and into adulthood e second edition of the book Nurture allowed her to research and take a deep look into nurturing for traumatized children and what the lack of nurturing relationships and environment has on the type of adult they become It reveals the urgency for the use of the nurturing approach to trauma for all children and adults Pedagogy of Teaching Dr. Nandini N, Teachers DO Make a Difference Judith A. Deiro, 2004-10-05 Teachers make a difference not only in what their students learn about content but in what they learn about life Closing the achievement gap and creating high performing schools depends not on what we teach but how we teach The most powerful and effective way teachers can help students overcome negative influences in their environment as well as succeed in becoming their best selves is by developing close and caring connections with them Developing quality relationships with students is key to their healthy development Teachers DO Make a Difference gives teachers strategies guidelines and real life examples of how to build and enrich close and trusting teacher student relationships This important new resource covers key topics including Setting high expectations for students Conveying confidence in student capabilities Creating classroom rituals and traditions Networking with family and community Developing strong interpersonal skills Identifying relational resources Communicating appropriate caring and respect in the classroom Healthy connections with teachers are associated with a decrease in behavioral problems and an increase in social and academic skills The relationships we develop with our students are at the heart of how we make a difference

International Research Handbook on Values Education and Student Wellbeing Terence Lovat, Ron Toomey, Neville Clement, 2010-08-05 Informed by the most up to date research from around the world as well as examples of good practice this handbook analyzes values education in the context of a range of school based measures associated with student wellbeing These include social emotional moral and spiritual growth elements that seem to be present where intellectual advancement and academic achievement are being maximized This text comes as values education widens in scope from being concerned with morality ethics civics and citizenship to a broader definition synonymous with a holistic approach to education in general This expanded purview is frequently described as pedagogy relating to values and wellbeing This contemporary understanding of values education or values and wellbeing pedagogy fits well with recent neuroscience research This has shown that notions of cognition or intellect are far more intertwined with social and emotional growth than earlier educational paradigms have allowed for In other words the best laid plans about the technical aspects of pedagogy are bound to fail unless the growth of the whole person social emotional moral spiritual and intellectual is the pedagogical target Teachers and educationalists will find that this handbook provides evidence culled from both research and practice of the beneficial effects of such a values and wellbeing pedagogy Nurturing the Parent-teacher Alliance Frank J. Howe, Betty Jo Simmons, 2005 Special Needs Advocacy Resource Rich Weinfeld, Michelle Davis, 2021-09-23 Special Needs Advocacy Resource Book What You Can Do Now to Advocate for Your Exceptional Child's Education is a unique handbook that teaches parents how to work with schools to achieve optimal learning situations and accommodations for their child's needs From IEPs and 504 Plans to IDEA and NCLB navigating today's school system can be difficult for even the most up to date education savvy parent Special needs advocates Rich Weinfeld and Michelle Davis provide parents and professional advocates with concise easy to understand definitions and descriptions of legal terms and school regulations along with checklists tips questionnaires and other tools Topics covered in this handy guide include gathering accurate information about a child's education navigating school meetings understanding education law and best practices in the classroom working effectively with parents and school systems discovering educational options beyond the standard and much more Parents and advocates not only will feel informed by Weinfeld and Davis vast knowledge of the inner workings of the school system they'll be empowered to help their kids succeed in school Educational Resource Beyond the Schoolhouse Sheri S. Williams, 2022-10-01 Beyond the Schoolhouse introduces eight paradigm shifts that are urgently needed to challenge inequities in education and improve the conditions for historically marginalized school children The book provides educators and scholars with actionable strategies to shift the paradigm from schools alone to engaged partnerships with families and communities Too many educators enter the profession with an incompatible paradigm one that asks educators to resolve the problems facing school children from behind the closed doors of the school The book offers a new paradigm one that opens the power of partnerships to improve the conditions for school children from within and beyond the walls of the schoolhouse Drawing thoughtfully on leadership theory current research and evidence based practice the author engages practitioners and scholars in a spirited and candid conversation about why partnerships with families and communities are needed in this era of rapid cultural change and soaring inequalities The book features scenarios from the field along with lessons learned on the pitfalls and possibilities embedded in the paradigm shifts The scenarios reveal how the partners leveraged their power to disrupt historical patterns of racism classism and nativism The book offers a compelling analysis of the power of school family and community partners to embrace dramatically different paradigms for schooling With anecdotes and illustrations the author invites readers to consider their role in engaging in meaningful partnerships that reflect the community's best hopes for the education of their children Her narratives offer a deeply rooted understanding of the possibilities and pitfalls of school family and community partnerships in a diversity of settings including urban rural and tribal schools and systems in the U S and abroad The chapters build hope and a realistic optimism that engaged partners can leverage their talents and resources and work together to bring best practices to scale for the benefit of children of diverse identities cultures and ethnicities Chapters contain strategies and tools to tackle the growing inequalities which keep far too many children on the margins of schooling and furthest from justice and equity Strategies include equity focused protocols structured questions for dialogue in virtual and face to face settings and resources for extended reflection The book may be useful for scholars in academic circles principal and teacher preparation providers novice and experienced educators and administrators and the allies school board members and elected officials who are invested in enriching the education and well being of school children and the families and communities they serve
