borderlands peopled by Mojaves Quechans Southern Paiutes Utes Yokuts and others bound together by political economic and social networks Examining a vast cultural geography including southern California Nevada Utah Arizona Sonora Baja California and New Mexico Zappia shows how this interior world pulsated throughout the centuries before and after Spanish contact solidifying to create an autonomous interethnic Indigenous space that expanded and adapted to an ever encroaching global market economy Situating the Colorado River basin firmly within our understanding of Indian country Traders and Raiders investigates the borders and borderlands created during this period connecting the coastlines of the Atlantic and Pacific worlds with a vast Indigenous continent
