Deep hiStories, 2021-11-22 Deep hiStories represents the first substantial publication on gender and colonialism in Southern Africa in recent years and suggests methodological ways forward for a post apartheid and postcolonial generation of scholars The volume's theorizing which is based on Southern African regional material is certain to impact on international debates on gender debates which have shifted from earlier feminisms towards theorizations which include sexual difference subjectivities colonial and postcolonial discourses and the politics of representation Deep hiStories goes beyond the dichotomies which have largely characterized the discussion of women and gender in Africa and explores alternative models of interpretation such as genealogies of voice These genealogies transcend the conventional binaries of visibility and invisibility speaking and silence Works covering South Africa from the eighteenth to the twentieth century and Zimbabwe Namibia and Cameroon in the twentieth include Colonial readings of Foucault Ideologies of domesticity Torture and testimony of slave women Women as missionary targets Gender and the public sphere Race science and spectacle Male nursing on mines Infanticide insanity and social control Fertility and the postcolonial state Literary reconstructions of the past Gender blending and code switching De colonizing the queer The collection includes diverse research on the body in Southern Africa for the first time It brings new subtleties to the ongoing debates on culture civility and sexuality dealing centrally with constructions of race and whiteness in history and literature It is an important resource for teachers and students of gender and colonial studies Blasphemous Art? Adriaan van Klinken, Nella van den Brandt, Mariecke van den

Berg,2024-10-31 This book explores the critical and transformative potential of arts and popular culture for constructions of religion gender and sexuality Doing so it deploys and develops the notion of blasphemous art honouring and building on the work of Anne Marie Korte Deliberately articulated with a question mark Blasphemous Art raises questions about the spaces methods and resources available to individuals and communities at the gendered sexual and racialized margins of society to tell their stories claim their bodies and perform symbolic and sacred meaning and it analyses the productive effects both aesthetically politically and theoretically of such provocative work The book focuses on a wide range of artistic and cultural expressions featuring case studies from across Europe South Africa Israel and the United States Drawing on feminist queer and postcolonial perspectives the book reveals the critical constructive and imaginative potential of the creative arts broadly defined and popular culture in its complex and diverse representation of and engagement with religious life belief text ritual and practice

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1998 Kenyan, Christian, Queer Adriaan van Klinken,2019-07-24 Popular narratives cite religion as the driving force behind homophobia in Africa portraying Christianity and LGBT expression as incompatible Without denying Christianity's contribution to the stigma discrimination and exclusion of same sex attracted and gender variant people on the continent Adriaan van Klinken presents an alternative narrative foregrounding the ways in which religion also appears as a critical site of LGBT activism Taking up the notion of arts of resistance Kenyan Christian Queer presents four case studies of grassroots LGBT activism through artistic and creative expressions including the literary and cultural work of Binyavanga Wainaina the Same Love music video produced by gay gospel musician George Barasa the Stories of Our Lives anthology project and the LGBT affirming Cosmopolitan Affirming Church Through these case studies Van Klinken demonstrates how Kenyan traditions black African identities and Christian beliefs and practices are being navigated appropriated and transformed in order to allow for queer Kenyan Christian imaginations Transdisciplinary in scope and poignantly intimate in tone Kenyan Christian Queer opens up critical avenues for rethinking the nature and future of the relationship between Christianity and queer activism in Kenya and elsewhere in Africa

Gayle Ken Cage,2003 Publisher Description Melting Pots & Rainbow Nations Jacklyn Cock,Alison R. Bernstein,2002 This passionate intelligent commentary is an invigorating look at the implications of difference and diversity in two contrasting but similar societies the United States and South Africa Melting Pots and Rainbow Nations addresses how differences of gender race culture biology and sexual orientation are variously understood and acted on in both countries The authors argue that the concepts of difference and diversity although valuable are hollow if disconnected from specific social and historical contexts in which power relations create and perpetuate disadvantage Their thoughtful exploration includes accounts of their own experiences of difference and their perspectives on such pioneering women as Elizabeth Bishop Frene Ginwala Audre Lorde Ruth First Jane Goodall and Mamphela Ramphele Gay Community Survival in the New Millennium Michael R Botnick,2021-06-03 Understand the international challenges facing gay male societies This eye opening account

examines the idealistic structural and emotional meanings of community within the gay population Gay Community Survival in the New Millennium explores the concept of gay community as well as the problems and progress that these communities are facing in the United States Canada and Israel As a community leader gay rights advocate or policymaker you will gain insight into issues that must be addressed now in order to strengthen your own community Gay Community Survival in the New Millennium explores many of the fractures in gay society that must be addressed to ensure progress in the gay liberation movements including racial and ethnic divisions in the gay community especially based on HIV positive and HIV negative status and programs that work to bridge this gap the rift between HIV positive and HIV negative gay men based on the allocation of money for social programs meant to support entire gay communities AIDSphobia the irrational fear of contracting the virus and how it has affected gay communities the Israeli gay rights movement which is visibly pursuing full and equal citizenship in Israel including acceptance into the Israeli military projections for gay rights movements in the future if homophobia continues to exist the enormous power that would be created if all gay and AIDS social organizations in a given geographic region banded together to influence change in social policies and eliminate stereotypes Gay Community Survival in the New Millennium explores what it means to be a gay man in today s communities from the fear of AIDS and the need for financing of gay men s social programs to forming a collective organization that will work for the gay men s liberation movements This essential guide will provide you with suggestions to help you shape and successfully change your gay community

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 The Queer Art of History Jennifer V. Evans,2023-03-17 In The Queer Art of History Jennifer V Evans examines postwar and contemporary German history to broadly argue for a practice of queer history that moves beyond bounded concepts and narratives of identity Drawing on Black feminism queer of color critique and trans studies Evans points out that although many rights for LGBTQI people have been gained in Germany those rights have not been enjoyed equally There remain fundamental struggles around whose bodies behaviors and communities belong Evans uses kinship as an analytic category to identify the fraught and productive ways that Germans have confronted race gender nonconformity and sexuality in social movements art and everyday life Evans shows how kinship illuminates the work of solidarity and intersectional organizing across difference and offers an openness to forms of contemporary and historical queerness that may escape the archive s confines Through forms of kinship queer and trans people test out new possibilities for citizenship love and public and family life in postwar Germany in ways that question claims about liberal democracy the social contract and the place of identity in rights based discourses Sewing the Rainbow Gayle E. Pitman,2021-03-05 Set against the backdrop of San Francisco during the gay rights movement of the 1970s Gilbert s story unfolds just like the flag he created in a riot of color joy and pride Today the flag is everywhere even in the small town where Gilbert grew up Includes a Reader Note that provides more in depth discussion of the beginnings of the gay rights movement and a more detailed look into Gilbert Baker s place in our shared history The Way I See It Lerato Tshabalala,2016-07-01

Lerato Tshabalala first came to our attention in 2011 with her Urban Miss column in the Sunday Times and since then she has by turns entertained exasperated amused and confounded her fans and critics alike Now with her first book she looks set to become the national institution she deserves to be With her customary wit and keen insight into social political and cultural affairs Lerato shines a bright and controversial light on South African society and the quirky ways of the country She is brutally honest about her experiences as a black South African in post apartheid Mzansi and no subject is too sacred for her to explore annoying car guards white dominated corporate South Africa cultural stereotypes economic and racial inequality and gender politics among many other topics come under her careful and often laugh out loud scrutiny The Way I See It is written for people who are hungry for a book that is thought provoking funny irreverent and truly South African all at the same time It is light but full of depth like a supermodel with an MBA

Contemporary Art and Feminism

Jacqueline Millner,Catriona Moore,2021-07-05 This important new book examines contemporary art while foregrounding the key role feminism has played in enabling current modes of artmaking spectatorship and theoretical discourse Contemporary Art and Feminism carefully outlines the links between feminist theory and practice of the past four decades of contemporary art and offers a radical re reading of the contemporary movement Rather than focus on filling in the gaps of accepted histories by adding the missing female queer First Nations and women artists of colour the authors seek to revise broader understandings of contemporary practice by providing case studies contextualised in a robust art historical and theoretical basis Readers are encouraged to see where art ideas come from and evaluate past and present art strategies What strategies materials or tropes are less relevant in today s networked event driven art economies What strategies and themes should we keep hold of or develop in new ways This is a significant and innovative intervention that is ideal for students in courses on contemporary art within fine arts visual studies history of art gender studies and queer studies

Inside the Circle

Casey James Miller,2023-06-16 Drawing on over a decade of fieldwork Inside the Circle Queer Culture and Activism in Northwest China explores how everyday queer Chinese people are courageously taking part in both local and global expressions of queer culture and activism while also striving to lead traditionally moral lives in a rapidly changing society

The Practice of Public Art Cameron Cartiere,Shelly Willis,2008-05-07 This exciting new collection of essays by practicing artists curators activists art writers administrators city planners and educators offers divergent perspectives on the numerous facets of the public art process The volume also includes a useful graphic timeline of public art history

Beyond the Mountain B

Camminga,zethu Matebeni,2023-02-10 Beyond The Mountain Queer Life in Africa s Gay Capital contributes to the body of knowledge on the lived experiences of lesbian gay bisexual transgender queer and intersex LGBTQI communities in Cape Town The book provides insight on the lives of the LGBTQI communities in Cape Town and challenges the stereotypes and prejudices against these communities The chapters consist of both narratives of lived experiences and academic discussions presented by novice as well as experienced scholars The imagery of beyond the mountain is a depiction of the lives of

LGBTQI community and immovable negative perceptions the general public have to them and seeks to expose their world and the kinds of violence and abuse they are subjected to as well as unveiling the racial discrimination within these communities The book revolves around five themes education emancipation protection acceptance and integration of those who identify as LGBTQI people in society

Gender Issues in Art Therapy Susan Hogan, 2003 Art therapy enables the client and therapist to explore issues that may ordinarily be difficult to articulate in words one such issue is the complexity of gender which can be a subject of therapy in a range of ways These wide ranging papers cover both theoretical and practical topics giving clinical examples and instances of clients artwork

Queer China Hongwei Bao, 2020-05-11 This book analyses queer cultural production in contemporary China to map the broad social transformations in gender sexuality and desire It examines queer literature and visual cultures in China's post Mao and postsocialist era to show how these diverse cultural forms and practices not only function as context specific and culturally sensitive forms of social activism but also produce distinct types of gender and sexual subjectivities unique to China's postsocialist conditions From poetry to papercutting art from comrade gay literature to girls love fan fiction from lesbian films to activist documentaries and from a drag show in Shanghai to a public performance of a same sex wedding in Beijing the book reveals a queer China in all its ideological complexity and creative energy Empirically rich and methodologically eclectic Queer China skilfully weaves together historical and archival research textual and discourse analysis along with interviews and ethnography Breaking new ground and bringing a non Western perspective to the fore this transdisciplinary work contributes to multiple academic fields including literary and cultural studies media and communication studies film and screen studies contemporary art theatre and performance studies gender and sexuality studies China Asia and Global South studies cultural history and cultural geography political theory and the study of social movements
