Let's Get Real Martha Caldwell, Oman Frame, 2022-02-15 This is a vital resource for any teacher or administrator looking to help students tackle issues of race class gender religion and cultural background Authors Martha Caldwell and Oman Frame both lifelong educators offer a series of teaching strategies designed to encourage conversation and personal reflection enabling students to think creatively rather than stereotypically about difference Using the Transformational Inquiry method your students will learn to explore their own identities share stories and thoughts with their peers learn more through reading and research and ultimately take personal and collaborative action to affect social change in their communities This second edition s updates include new research throughout as well as additional lessons on gender and sexuality The lesson plans and handouts throughout the book are appropriate for middle and high school classes and are easy to implement into your own curriculum

A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1995-08-22 Never before the entire history of the American theater has so much of the truth of black people s lives been seen on the stage observed James Baldwin shortly before A Raisin in the Sun opened on Broadway in 1959 Indeed Lorraine Hansberry s award winning drama about the hopes and aspirations of a struggling working class family living on the South Side of Chicago connected profoundly with the psyche of black America and changed American theater forever The play s title comes from a line in Langston Hughes s poem Harlem which warns that a dream deferred might dry up like a raisin in the sun The events of every passing year add resonance to A Raisin in the Sun said The New York Times It is as if history is conspiring to make the play a classic This Modern Library edition presents the fully restored uncut version of Hansberry s landmark work with an introduction by Robert Nemiroff

Harlem Lionel C. Bascom, 2016-12-12 Focusing on the contributions of civic reformers and political architects who arrived in New York in the early decades of the 20th century this book explores the wide array of sweeping social reforms and radical racial demands first conceived of and planned in Harlem that transformed African Americans into self aware U S citizens for the first time in history When the first slave escaped bondage in the American South and migrated to the Northeast region of the United States this act of an individual started what became known as the great migration of African Americans fleeing the feudal South for New York and other Northern cities This migration fueled an intellectual social and personal pursuit the long standing quest for identity by a lost tribe of African Americans by every black man woman and child in America In Harlem that quest was anchored by a wide array of civic business and prominent leaders who succeeded in establishing what we now know as modern African American culture In Harlem The Crucible of Modern African American Culture author Lionel C Bascom examines the accuracy of the established image of Harlem during the Renaissance period roughly between 1917 and the 1960s as heaven for migrating African Americans He establishes how mingled among the former tenant farmers cotton pickers maids and farmhands were college educated intellectuals progressive ministers writers and lecturers who formed various organizations aimed at banishing images of Negroes as bumbling ignorant second class citizens The book also challenges unfounded claims that political and social movements during the Harlem Renaissance period failed and dramatizes numerous attempts by government authorities to silence black progressives who spearheaded movements that eventually ended segregation in the armed forces drafted plans that led to the first sweeping civil rights legislation and resulted in a U S Supreme Court ruling that finally made racial segregation in schools a federal crime

The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs s Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright s Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women s clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature
