Redheaded Woman With The Black Black Heart:

The Redheaded Woman with the Black Black Heart Birk Sproxton,1993 Phantom Lake Birk

Sproxton,2005-09-01 Phantom Lake explores the stories legends and tall tales that make up Flin Flon a real imaginary place perched on rocky outcrops and lakes of the Canadian Shield Birk Sproxton traverses the high latitudes of Manitoba and Saskatchewan in a quest for the mystery of Flin Flon and in search of himself The northern stories like Shield Lakes seen from the air become ink blots to test the writer s mettle Sproxton tells of the first gold rush the draining of Flin Flon Lake the emergence of the open pit smelter smoke and slag pour headframes and tailings ponds At the center of this fictional and historical mosaic lies the elusive Phantom Lake Making it Home Deborah Keahey,1998-12-01 Traditional approaches to

Prairie literature have focussed on the significance of the land in attempts to make a place into a home The emphasis on the importance of landscape as a defining feature ignores the important roles played by other influences brought to the land such as history culture gender ethnicity religion community family and occupation Deborah Keahey considers over 70 years of Canadian Prairie literature including poetry autobiography drama and fiction The 17 writers range from the well established like Martha Ostenso and Robert Kroetsch to newer writers like Ian Ross and Kelly Rebar Through their works she asks whether the Prairies are a physical or a political creation whether home is made by what you bring with you or what you find when you arrive and she incorporates the influences and effects far beyond landscape to understand what guides the home making process of both the writers and their creations Her study acknowledges that home is a complicated concept and making a place into a home place is a complicated process Informed by current linguistic feminist postcolonial and cultural theory Keahey explores these concepts in depth and redefines our understanding of place home and the relationship between them Toward Defining the Prairies Robert Wardhaugh,2001-04-30 New ways of thinking about literature and history have radically changed how we think about or even define a region like the Prairie West In fact the very concept of defining has come into question by new theoretical approaches and it may now seem a hopeless endeavour But the process of defining can be just as important as the actual production of a definition Toward Defining the Prairies highlights recent approaches to thinking about the Prairie West Bounded by pieces from well known historian Gerald Friesen and Governor General s Award winning writer Robert Kroetsch these 13 essays are as diverse as the region itself In their examination of different aspects of Prairie history literature climate society culture and identity they help to provide a new understanding of this place and of the complexities of its definition Fresh Tracks Pamela Banting,1998 This is an exceptionally forceful collection substantial evocative and enduring much like the region of Canada the writers are addressing Saskatoon Star PhoenixContributors include Rudy Wiebe Guy Vanderhaeghe Karen Connelly Sharon Butala and others The Red-Haired Girl from the Bog Patricia Monaghan,2010-10-06 When Patricia Monaghan traveled to Ireland seeking her roots what she found was much more than her physical ancestors This is the story of her journey and the legends landmarks and mystical lore she encountered Her poetic stories elucidate the ways that myth reveals the truth of human experience as well as the contradictions that are embodied in women s lives This book is an extensive exploration of goddess mythology in Ireland from Brigit the Celtic goddess of water fire and transformation to the historical figure of Granueille a pirate queen Canadian Fiction Sharron Smith, Maureen O'Connor, 2005-10-30 Discover some of the great Canadian authors and titles you ve been missing This guide describes and organizes according to reading interests more than 500 of the best contemporary Canadian fiction titles available today Canadian fiction offers a wealth of diverse pleasures to readers from high toned literary works to down and dirty genre fiction However apart from the big names and superstars many of these authors are not well known outside of Canada Designed to help readers advisors in the United States Canada and other English speaking countries make informed reading recommendations to their patrons this guide provides readers advisors and readers with an overview of Canadian fiction covering more than 650 popular titles mainstream and genre fiction most published within the past decade The guide categorizes mainstream titles according to primary appeal features language character setting and story and identifies the secondary appeal when there is one Genre fiction covered in a separate section is organized according to standard genres fantasy romance etc with subdivisions for subgenres and themes For each title bibliographic information and a brief annotation is provided Subjects are listed along with awards and an indication of whether the title is appropriate for book groups A read on section with references to some 2 400 titles leads you to titles with similar features Indexes cover author title and subject including awards genre series character names An appendix contains information on Canadian Book Awards A readers advisory guide and reference tool this book is also an important aid for collection development Speak of the Devil Christine Pope, 2024-12-01 Their supernatural talents could make them the perfect team if Hell doesn t claim them first Caleb Lockwood has a foolproof system for winning big in Las Vegas Being part demon helps Fresh from his escape from Hell he s looking to lie low and build a new life starting with flipping a haunted house Too bad his realtor has a knack for spotting supernatural trouble Delia Dunne s business card might advertise luxury real estate but her true expertise lies in cleansing properties of unwanted spectral tenants When a casino executive hires her to investigate a streak of suspicious wins she never expects her newest client the charming house flipper with seemingly unlimited funds to be at the center of it all From the moment Caleb and Delia step into a ghost infested property things get complicated sparks fly between them spirits vanish mysteriously and demons start showing up with deadly intent As Delia digs deeper into Caleb s past she uncovers a two year old disappearance a rebellion in Hell and a secret that could get them both killed Worse the powerful figure behind it all is closer than either of them realized and he s playing for keeps The stakes are high the odds are stacked and in Vegas the house always wins Unless you ve got a quarter demon and a ghost hunter in your corner Perfect for fans of Ilona Andrews and Patricia Briggs this sizzling urban fantasy features a haunted Las Vegas high stakes supernatural gambling and a romance hot enough to rival the desert sun Holy water and poker chips recommended KEYWORDS psychic

International Dictionary of the English language Noah Webster,1891 The Man Who Married a Redhead Paul Naintre,2009-07-01 Are you passionate Do you love driving Would you like to read a story about the passion and skill it takes to drive in the Le Mans 24 Hour Race at over 200 mph down the Mulsanne Straight in a Ferrari F40 LM Especially at night with slower cars in front This story is about two young Italian men and their young lady friends who are passionate brave spirited and born with the gift of being able to drive at tremendously high speeds on the race track They each earn the right to drive in the Le Mans 24 Hour Race chosen by Enzo himself after driving on the Ferrari race track with him following a very unusual wedding in the Maranello town center If you love to read about driving with passion and loving with passion

then you will enjoy this book Afterlife David Wyatt, 2025-05-22 Afterlife The Strange Fate of Literary Remains explores what happens to a body of work left unpublished or unfinished at the time of a writer's death In nine chapters David Wyatt tells the story of the afterlife of texts by Shakespeare William Wordsworth Charles Dickens Harriet Jacobs Emily Dickinson William Faulkner Sylvia Plath Ernest Hemingway and Ralph Ellison and of the improbable and unpredictable ways in which literature that might never have seen publication managed to end up on the printed page Posthumously edited texts raise important issues about the meaning and shape of a literary career How is one to assess the arc of Ellison's achievement when after his endlessly reworked second novel finally made it into print in 1999 it was then superseded in 2010 by another version Meanwhile the publication of four Hemingway books after the author's death undid any notion that the writer suffered some sort of decline late in life and the gender bending experiments in The Garden of Eden cast a revisionary light back on what had become a deeply reductive belief in the Hemingway Code While judgments about these writings may begin as technical matters Wyatt shows that they eventually become aesthetic and finally ethical considerations Despite the difficulties involved such evaluations continue to be made and to produce the editions that teachers and readers are required to choose among Throughout Afterlife Wyatt stresses the attentiveness needed in the editing of posthumous texts being mindful to honor an author's literary remains by providing an answerable reading of them while also caring enough about the work left behind to take a position on the printed form it might best take or if such a conclusion feels impossible to give a responsible account of why it is out of reach The Voice of the Negro 1919 Robert Thomas Kerlin, 1920 A compilation from the colored press of America for the four months immediately succeeding the Washington riot It is designed to show the Negro's reaction to that and like events following and to the World War and the Discussion of the Treaty Preface Sons of America Lancelot Larsen, 2016-11-04 After unknowingly befriending a serial killer a man embarks upon a gruesome adventure that leads him to meeting an otherworldly businessman who offers him the opportunity to expand his dark horizons in an act of terrorism
