Making Canada New Dean Irvine, Vanessa Lent, Bart A. Vautour, 2017-03-17 An examination of the connections between modernist writers and editorial activities Making Canada New draws links among new and old media collaborative labour emergent scholars and scholarships and digital modernisms In doing so the collection reveals that renovating modernisms does not need to depend on the fabrication of completely new modes of scholarship Rather it is the repurposing of already existing practices and combining them with others whether old or new print or digital that instigates a process of continuous renewal Critical to this process of renewal is the intermingling of print and digital research methods and the coordination of more popular modes of literary scholarship with less frequented ones such as bibliography textual studies and editing Making Canada New tracks the editorial renovation of modernism as a digital phenomenon while speaking to the continued production of print editions The Moosehead Anthology, 1988 The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay, 2019-12-05 For many Canadians the small province of New Brunswick on Canada's scenic east coast is a nice place to visit but no place to live plagued for generations by outmigration and economic stagnation In The Fiddlehead Moment Tony Tremblay challenges this potent stereotype by showcasing the work of a group of literary modernists who set out to change the meaning of New Brunswick in the national lexicon Alfred Bailey Desmond Pacey Fred Cogswell and a formidable group of local poets and cultural workers collectively New Brunswick's Fiddlehead School sought to restore New Brunswick's literary reputation by adapting avant garde modernist practices to the contours of the province opening it to the contemporary world while also encouraging writers to make it their subject The result was a non urban form of modernism that was as responsive to technical innovation as to the human geographies of New Brunswick By placing New Brunswick writers and critics at the forefront of Canadian literature in the midcentury modernist project Tremblay adds an important new chapter to our understanding of Canadian modernism The Fiddlehead Moment is the first critical examination of this group's considerable influence Whether through Bailey's ethnomethodology Pacey's critical ordering or Cogswell's editorial eclecticism in the Fiddlehead magazine and Fiddlehead Poetry Books authors in New Brunswick Tremblay argues had a profound impact on
