landscape painting It yields fresh insights into some of the most influential works of American art and enriches our understanding of the relationship between art and nature and between science and religion in the nineteenth century It will draw a broad audience of art historians Americanists historians of science and readers interested in the American natural Flowers and Towers Nira Tessler, 2015-11-25 This book explores the meaning and symbolism of the flower motif in the art of women artists from the nineteenth century to the present day It begins with a discussion of the symbolic significance of the flower in canonical texts such as the Song of Songs in which the female lover is likened to a lily among the thorns and to an enclosed garden These allegorical images permeated into Christian iconography attaining various expressions in the plastic arts from the twelfth through nineteenth centuries. The heart of the book is a discussion of the meaning of the change in representations of the flower and at the same time the appearance of amazing images of masculine skyscrapers in the works of avant garde American women artists during the 1920s and 30s in three hubs of Modernist art New York California and Mexico Tessler explains how modernist artists of various fields of art such as Glaspell Stettheimer O Keeffe Pelton Cunningham Mather Modotti and Kahlo were aware of the religious symbolism of the flower in Judaism and Christianity and turned it into an emblem of the new modern woman with her own views of the world Flowers and Towers concludes by presenting the works of contemporary feminist American artists such as Chicago and Schapiro who pay tribute to those same Modernist artists by creating a new and daring image of the flower and using feminine materials and techniques that link them as it were to their spiritual mothers American Painting of the Nineteenth Century Barbara Novak, 2007-01-12 In this distinguished work which Hilton Kramer in The New York Times Book Review called surely the best book ever written on the subject Barbara Novak illuminates what is essentially American about American art She highlights not only those aspects that appear indigenously in our art works but also those features that consistently reappear over time Novak examines the paintings of Washington Allston Thomas Cole Asher B Durand Fitz H Lane William Sidney Mount Winslow Homer Thomas Eakins and Albert Pinkham Ryder She draws provocative and original conclusions about the role in American art of spiritualism and mathematics conceptualism and the object and Transcendentalism and the fact She analyzes not only the paintings but nineteenth century aesthetics as well achieving a unique synthesis of art and literature Now available with a new preface and an updated bibliography this lavishly illustrated volume featuring more than one hundred black and white illustrations and sixteen full color plates remains one of the seminal works in American art history York Magazine ,1988-08-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Claude Raquet Hirst Claude Raquet Hirst, Martha M. Evans, National Museum of Women in the Arts (U.S.), Columbus

Museum of Art, 2004 This is the first publication devoted to Hirst's oils and watercolors and her transformation of the still life painting through the creation of works that appeal to both men and women contrasting with her male contemporaries who painted primarily for a male audience 72 colour 29 b w illustrations Analyzing Art and Aesthetics Anne Collins Goodyear, Margaret A. Weitekamp, 2013-10-30 This ninth volume of the Artefacts series explores how artists have responded to developments in science and technology past and present Rather than limiting the discussion to art alone editors Anne Collins Goodyear and Margaret Weitekamp also asked contributors to consider aesthetics the scholarly consideration of sensory responses to cultural objects When considered as aesthetic objects how do scientific instruments or technological innovations reflect and embody culturally grounded assessments about appearance feel and use And when these objects become museum artifacts what aesthetic factors affect their exhibition Contributors found answers in the material objects themselves This volume reconsiders how science technology art and aesthetics impact one another Literature of Place Melanie Louise Simo, 2005 In Literature of Place Melanie Simo looks beyond crowded malls and boarded up storefronts on Main Street to our collective memory finding answers to these questions in stories novels memoirs poetry essays diaries travel writing and nature writing that range in origin from New England and the Southern Highlands to Hawaii and in subject from little gardens to lost or reinhabited places in cities mill towns deserts and woodlands In her consideration of selected American works from 1890 to 1970 years that mark the closing of the Western frontier and later openings in space exploration environmental protection genetic engineering and cyberspace Simo uncovers a literature of place and the often surprising relationship of place to our daily lives BOOK JACKET Empire's Nature Amy R. W.
