Reflections Three Girls Three Women:

Three Mothers, Three Daughters Michael Gorkin, 2000-01-17 A collaboration between an Israeli psychologist and a Palestinian school teacher This highly original book recounts the surprisingly candid stories of three Palestinian mothers and their daughters Beautifully told and sensitively edited these linked narratives bear witness to their experiences of Israeli occupation their memories of the wars of 1948 and 1967 and the profound changes that have occurred in their political and personal lives The complexity of the women s lives and stories and the ways in which they portray themselves in the book make this work of value to anthropologists as well as to scholars in women s studies oral history Middle East studies and sociology Journal of Palestine Studies

Reflections Elizabeth Mary Bohjelian, 2001 Verkinah Bedrosian s fifteenth birthday started like any other day of the past years She arose at six in the morning She prayed meditated and dressed in the humble apparel sent to her from London After attending to her morning chores she joined her friends and classmates for breakfast in the dining room Meals were always taken in silence another of Miss Burgess rules As the older girls quietly ate Verkinah observed the table where the little ones were seated It seemed like only a fortnight had passed since she and her friends were as young as these recent arrivals to the School Now Asghig and Verkinah were in charge of grooming and helping the youngsters through the formative years Armenouhi would entertain them while they became oriented to their new surroundings Verkinah also noticed that Digeen Vartouhy s hair was now completely white and her footsteps had become slow Some mornings she could barely walk Dr Haratounian had told the ailing matron Rheumatism and hardening of the arteries are part of the aging process We are not getting younger my dear woman Digeen Vartouhy was grateful that the staff empathized with her condition She continued her kitchen duties slowly However the meals were always prepared and served on time As she looked around the room Verkinah also observed an excited gleam in Asghig s eyes one that spelled urgency Was she sick She had always been the delicate one Breakfast was finally over While the two girls walked to their classrooms Asghig confided to Verkinah Grandma told me that she and Miss Burgess are planning to meet with the young Secretary to the Mayor of Constantinople Mr Sarkis Yerganian I think he wants to be introduced to me Imagine Oh Verkin I m so thrilled Asghig whispered The Armenian community of Constantinople knew young Sarkis Yerganian very well He had opened dialogue between the Turkish government and many a Christian family He was twenty five years old and educated in Paris Tall handsome and extremely well built Sarkis was the only offspring of a wealthy Armenian rug merchant The young man decided that he was ready to be married The young ladies in MISS BURGESS SCHOOL FOR GIRLS surmised that at a certain age their marriage would be arranged with Miss Burgess approval So when Asghig told her friend about the conversation she had with her grandmother both girls were innocently happy and extremely excited After evening prayers Asghig and Verkinah met with Armenouhi in the reception room for a brief social period granted to the older girls Here Armenouhi heard the exciting news Armenouhi became elated She stood before them and with great dramatic flair recited passages from

Romeo and Juliet She acted the scenes to perfection Verkinah and Asghig were breathless How talented and beautiful their mutual friend was Aware that their enthusiasm would be misunderstood as being silly the three girls withdrew to their rooms Verkinah could not fall asleep right away She thought about the talented Asghig who had reached her sixteenth year a month ago In two weeks Asghig would graduate Her beautiful soprano voice was known throughout the Armenian community In fact for the past year Miss Burgess had allowed Asghig to be chaperoned to the Armenian Church every Sunday morning As the soloist she was accompanied by the Church choir during the celebration of High Mass Armenians and Greeks would attend the services regularly to hear her lovely voice Aha This is where Sarkis Yerganian has seen and heard Asghig No wonder he has fallen in love with my Asghig she thought That night Verkinah experienced feelings she never had before Would she have a Prince fall in love with her too She immediately dismissed these thoughts She could not sing like Asghig She did not recite poetry like Armenouhi Her mind was always too logical She questioned everything By her standards she was Doubting Thomas on a Pilgrimage: 40 days of reflection Thomas Gabriel, 2018-11-05 Walking the Camino from St Jean Pied de Port in France to Santiago de Compostela in Western Spain provided time to ask and reflect on some of those larger life questions To give time time without the usual everyday distractions of life at home To sit with doubt and to practice being rather than doing to observe rather than ignore Indian Contemporary Films and Societal Reflection Noveena Chakravorty, Sharmila Kayal, Sayak Pal, K. Meditation Elizabeth Mary Bohjelian, 2001 Vartouhy waited for him to go on speaking The connotation of his words relayed a message similar to his impassioned announcement more than five years ago of his decision to go off to Spain Tonight Vartouhy immediately recognized there was something urgent in his mind something he wanted to do perhaps for the good but something which would affect their marriage When he did not continue to speak Vartouhy was certain that once again she was going to have to make a major decision Could she face the fact that Akop would want his freedom to find his niche alone in the east Should she accompany him and visit her family while he explored the possibilities of finding work there She even went so far as to entertain the thoughts of permanently leaving California and forget her profession She wanted to be wherever Akop found employment That night laying in Akop's arms she opened the subject Akop we have commitments to one another and especially to our son We must remain a family under any circumstance Do you agree darling Vartouhy was taken aback when he did not immediately respond to her rhetorical question Instead Akop looked away from her into the darkened living room and placed his hands behind his head He slowly and methodically answered Rosie I don't want to deliberately leave you and Haig if that's what you're inferring But I must have the freedom to conduct my life as my ideals dictate I've been in contact with two Armenian editors who are expanding the circulation of a daily Armenian newspaper to include an English section for their readers They heard about me through Alex Pennian Rosie New York offers me a challenge to learn the newspaper business stay true to my principles and serve the working classes I can't pass this opportunity by for geographic reasons I won't waste my time with a meaningless nine to five job where a boss is always on my back It's against my spirit Rosie I prefer to go to New York alone I don't want to disrupt your life To put it bluntly I don't want to be pressured by guidelines which are dictated by an exploitive establishment I simply can't and won't conform Vartouhy's heart sank For the first time in their marriage she turned her back to her husband in their bed She drew the blanket closer to her body and quietly said Good night Akop I have nothing more to say to you now He did not answer He dressed walked to where Haig slept behind the folding screen kissed him and left the apartment Akop spent the night walking through the empty streets and avenues of Santa Monica thinking how unhappy and dissatisfied he was with his life When only a kid how old was he sixteen seventeen he had taken on a man's job How could he forget the violence and depravation in the New Mexico farms the stench in the rural jails the brutality of ignorant peasants with a few extra dollars which they believed bought the privilege of owning other human beings He relived the horrors of the Spanish Civil War He remembered Harold's last days and how content this comrade had been with the destiny he had chosen The bravery of the Spanish people the beauty of their children hidden behind the mask of a war they didn't understand wrenched his soul What was there left for him but to continue his quest for justice for the down trodden and oppressed He felt compelled to go on with his life He thought to himself Let's face it Her income provides you with your creature comforts the concerts in the symphony halls the museums all of the finer things you enjoy with her All this can't erase the fact that the government is
