Prepared for the Twentieth-Century? The Life of Emily Bonnycastle Mayne (Aimée) 1872-1958 Michael Armstrong Crouch, 2015-11-25 Aimee Mayne was born into a life of apparent privilege and opportunity However as a woman born in 1872 and living through the first half of the twentieth century these opportunities were severely limited by law culture and tradition This story is of a woman of the British upper middle class whose life was full of colour of living in India of family relationships of travel of the Blitz She kept diaries and wrote an intimate memoir This book explores her emotional conflicts with a revealing analysis that includes revelations about a woman brought up in the late Victorian period encompassing her sex life and the turmoil of an unhappy marriage It is a study of a life that identifies how an upper middle class upbringing that included an attempted tertiary education at a time when this was unheard of for most women induced her into a marriage and life style that was the antithesis of her early aspirations Her life was to engender a sense of grievance that embittered relations with her family While she took advantage of her travels to undertake a successful lecturing career personal fulfilment was only to be found at the end of her life during the London Blitz in World War Two The Imperial Magazine, Or, Compendium of Religious, Moral, & Philosophical Knowledge ,1829 The Female Figure in Contemporary Historical Fiction K. Cooper,E. Short,2012-10-29 From The Other Boleyn Girl to Fingersmith this collection explores the popularity of female centred historical novels in recent years It asks how these representations are influenced by contemporary gender politics and whether they can be seen as part of a wider feminist project to recover women s history Sydney's One Special Evangelist Baden P. Stace,2022-08-04 This landmark work is the first academic study of a figure who played a defining role in the Australian evangelical movement of the late twentieth century the inimitable preacher evangelist and churchman John C Chapman The study situates Chapman s career within the secularizing Western cultures of the post 1960s a period bringing momentous changes to the social and religious fabric of Western society At the same time global Evangelicalism was reviving bringing vitality to large swathes in the Global South and a re balancing in Western societies as conservative religious movements experienced growth and even renewal amidst wider secularizing trends Against this backdrop the study explores the way in which across a wide array of domestic and international fora Chapman contended for the soteriological priority of the gospel in Christian life mission and thought Accomplished via an absorbing blend of personal wit impassioned oratory innovative missiological strategy and striking theological perception the result was a stimulating history of public advocacy that sought a revival of confidence in Evangelicalism s message and a constantly reforming vision of Evangelicalism s method Such a legacy marks Chapman as a central figure within the generation of postwar leaders whose work has given Australian Evangelicalism its contemporary shape and dynamism Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen,Timothy Mathews,Dragana Obradovic,2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person's identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another Reflections of a Reluctant Retiree Richard G. Riedel, 2022-03-15 After retirement with time on my hands I decided to sit down and put in print the thoughts that came my way from one reading and another Then I ran into some heart surgery five bypasses and the question Why Why did this happen to me So after that life saving experience in those days when I seemed to be living beyond when I should have perhaps died I took what I have learned in the past and reflected in that history on what I read in the present hoping that I can speak to someone in a future time about a future time about all the possibilities that stand before them as they stood before me Then it will be their turn or maybe your turn to reflect on your life and perhaps share some words with others about their future Distorted Reflections Stuart Taberner, 1998 This volume presents a new approach to the political engagement of three major West German authors Uwe Johnson Gunter Grass and Martin Walser Whereas analysis of intellectuals participation in the political upheaval of the late 1960s has tended to focus on speeches written in response to contemporary events this book examines works of fiction for the way in which authors reflected upon their engagement Reflections on Learning, Life and Work Maureen Ryan, 2012-10-26 This book records the stories of doctoral study experiences of the twenty two writers These research degree experiences are embedded in the lives and careers of the writers and the twenty two distinctive projects draw from those individual lives and careers The authors write about meeting the continuing demands of older and younger family members and of their struggles with ill health and work place demands while working through their studies There is also the joy of coming to see themselves and being seen as research scholars and supporting and celebrating with others as they move through candidature proposals and ethics applications to graduation Apart from the stories that bring the writers to their particular projects and that colour their individual journeys storying methodology is most often selected for the research all of which is undertaken within the arts humanities and education Phenomenology narrative ethnography are central to most of the studies and the detailed accounts of each research topic methods and outcomes locate each of the research projects in rich bodies of knowledge Valued writers and readers in these fields Mary Beattie and Elaine Martin have read each reflection and provided in turn a foreword and an afterword which bookend the volume and further enrich these reflections on learning life and work Reflections on Lee Charles P. Roland, 2003-10-09 Telling Pacific Lives Vicki Luker, Brij V. Lal, 2008-06-01 This volume of essays is an exploration of the way in which scholars from different disciplines standpoints and theoretical orientations attempt to write life stories in the Pacific It is the product of a conference organised by the Division of Pacific and Asian History at The Australian National University in December 2005 The aim of the conference was to explore ways in which Pacific lives are read and constructed through a variety of media films fiction faction history under four overarching themes The first Framing Lives sought to explore various ways of constructing a life from a classic western perspective of birth formation experiences and death of an individual to other ways for example life as secondary to a longer genealogical entity life as a symbol of collective experience individual lives captured and fragmented in a mosaic of others lives made meaningful by their implication in a particular historical or cultural web the underlying values and world views that inform one or another approach to framing a life The second theme the Stuff of Life looked at materials methods and collaborative arrangements with which the biographer autobiographer and recorder work their objectives constraints inspirations challenges and tricks The third section Story Lines focused on formats and genres such as edited diaries collections of writings voice recordings genres of biography autobiography truth and fiction verse dance novels and the varieties and different advantages of narrative shapes that crystallise the telling of a life The final section Telling Lives Changing Lives focused on biography autobiography and the consciousness of identity history purpose lives as witness and windows telling lives as change for those involved in the tale the telling the listening The overall aim was to bring out both the generic or universal challenges of telling lives as well as to highlight the particular tendencies and trends in the Pacific Yet these four themes which seemed analytically promising at the outset proved in practice difficult to disentangle from the presentations at the workshop Provided by publisher Theological Reflections at the Boundaries Paul O.

Ingram,2011-11-04 The interdependence of boundary questions and the experience of cognitive dissonance reveal that knowledge in all fields of inquiry is always incomplete and tentative The issues are particularly acute for Christian theological reflection Ingram illustrates the importance of boundary questions and cognitive dissonance as a means of creatively transforming contemporary Christian theological reflection through dialogue with the natural sciences and the world s religions particularly Buddhism filtered through the lenses of Whiteheadian process philosophy The Future as Cultural Fact Arjun Appadurai,2020-05-05 This major collection of essays a sequel to Modernity at Large and Fear of Small Numbers is the product of ten years research and writing constituting an important contribution to globalization studies Appadurai takes a broad analytical look at the genealogies of the present era of globalization through essays on violence commodification nationalism terror and materiality Alongside a discussion of these wider debates Appadurai situates India at the heart of his work offering writing based on firsthand research among urban slum dwellers in Mumbai in which he examines their struggle to achieve equity recognition and self governance in conditions of extreme inequality Finally in his work on design planning finance and poverty Appadurai embraces the politics of hope and lays the foundations for a revitalized and urgent anthropology of the future Reflections and Prayers for Holy Communion. Translated from the French Lord's Supper,1876 Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons,2010-04-07 Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it s necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire theHandbook of
