Reform Within Islam:

Revival and Reform in Islam Bernard Haykel, 2003-05-27 Revival and Reform in Islam is at once an intellectual biography of Muhammad al Shawkani and a history of a transitional period in Yemeni history This was a time when a society dominated by traditional Zaydi Shiism shifted to one characterised instead by Sunni reformism The author traces the origins and outcomes of this transition presenting the first systematic account of the ways in which the eighteenth and nineteenth century reorientation of the Zaydi madhhab and consequent sunnification of Yemeni society were intricately linked to tensions within the political realm In advocating juridical systematization of religious belief and practice Shawkani espoused a socio religious order which in its dominant features echoed key aspects of Western modernity Yet he did so in a context bereft of Western ideational influence This study then presents a textured account of eighteenth century Islamic reformist thought and challenges the meaning of modernity in an Islamic context

Islamic Reform in Twentieth-Century Africa Roman Loimeier, 2016-09-08 The first comprehensive analysis of Muslim movements of reform in modern sub Saharan Africa Based on twelve case studies Senegal Mali Nigeria Niger Chad Sudan Ethiopia Somalia Kenya Tanzania Zanzibar and the Comoros this book looks at patterns and peculiarities of different traditions of Islamic reform Considering both Sufi and Salafi oriented movements in their respective historical contexts it stresses the importance of the local context to explain the different trajectories of development The book studies the social religious and political impact of these reform movements in both historical and contemporary times and asks why some have become successful as popular mass movements while others failed to attract substantial audiences It also considers jihad minded movements in contemporary Mali northern Nigeria and Somalia and looks at modes of transnational entanglement of movements of reform Against the background of a general inquiry into what constitutes areform the text responds to the question of what areform actually means for Muslims in contemporary Africa Key features Biographies of reformist scholars complement the text Case studies are placed in the context of the dynamics of areform in the larger world of Islam Addresses the importance of trans national entanglements and their formative power Focuses on the dynamics of social and religious development the political dynamics of Islamic areform and issues of youth generational change and gender

Islam and Political Reform in Saudi Arabia Mansoor Jassem Alshamsi, 2012-06-12 This book examines the link between Islamic thought jurisprudence on the one hand and political action on the other It shows how reformism is deeply rooted in Islamic tradition and how Sunni scholars have become activists for change in Saudi Arabia

Conflict, Identity, and Reform in the Muslim World Daniel Brumberg, Dina Shehata, 2009 Conflict Identity and Reform in the Muslim World highlights the challenges that escalating identity conflicts within Muslim majority states pose for both the Muslim world and for the West an issue that has received scant attention in policy and academic circles

Revival and Reform in Islam Fazlur Rahman, 2021-01-21 This authoritative book argues that what is considered today to be Islamic fundamentalism is inconsistent with the true meaning of this faith Rahman demonstrates that the true roots of Islamic teachings advocate adaptability creativity and innovation      Islam and the Question of Reform

Kylie/MacQueen, Ben, Rebecca/Baxter Barlow, 2008 Reform by definition is not a complete break with tradition but a determination by scholars activists politicians and critical thinkers to re claim the tenets of their faith Muslim communities have historically displayed a tendency to preserve the status quo By contrast the individuals and movements in Islam and the Question of Reform are determined often at great personal risk to push aside existing political and social elites and the historically accepted interpretations of Islam and its place in society The perspectives examined in this volume avoid superficial or apologetic examinations of Islam s political and social role Instead they meticulously scrutinise the religion s public role often questioning the validity of dogmas that have acted as tools of empowerment for existing elites for centuries

Islamic Reform in South Asia Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2013-05-16 The articles in this volume build up ethnographic analysis complementary to the historiography of South Asian Islam which has explored the emergence of reformism in the context of specific political and religious circumstances of nineteenth century British India Taking up diverse popular and scholarly debates as well as everyday religious practices this volume also breaks away from the dominant trend of mainstream ethnographic work which celebrates sufi inspired forms of Islam as tolerant plural authentic and so on pitted against a reformist Islam Urging a more nuanced examination of all forms of reformism and their reception in practice the contributions here powerfully demonstrate the historical and geographical specificities of reform projects In doing so they challenge prevailing perspectives in which substantially different traditions of reform are lumped together into one reified category often carelessly shorthanded as wah habism and branded as extremist if not altogether demonised as terrorist

Islamic Reform David Dean Commins, 1990-04-12 Religious community and nation have long been the chief poles of political and cultural identity for peoples of the modern Middle East This work explores how men in turn of the century Damascus dealt in word and deed with the dilemmas of identity that arose from the Ottoman Empire s 19th century reforms Muslim religious scholars ulama who advocated a return to scripture as the basis of social and political order were the pivotal group The reformers clashed with their fellow ulama who defended the integrity of prevailing religious practices and beliefs In addition to two conflicting interpretations of Islam Arabism comprised a new strand of thought represented by young men with secular educations advancing Arab interests in the Ottoman Empire Religious reformers and Arabists shared a political agenda that shifted focus from constitutionalism before 1908 to administrative decentralization shortly thereafter Using unpublished manuscripts and correspondence inheritance documents and Ottoman era periodicals this work weaves together social political and intellectual aspects of a local history that represents an instance of a fundamental issue in modern history      Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30 The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen, 2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University

Women Under Islam Christina Jones-Pauly, Abir Dajani Tuqan, 2011-04-30 How Islam treats women is one of the most hotly contested questions of our times Islamic law is often misrepresented as a single monolithic concept rather than a collection of different interpretations and practices To move the debate on Islamic law and gender forward it is necessary to establish how Islamic law actually operates This groundbreaking work explores what conditions sustain the most liberal interpretation of Islamic law on gender issues It examines the different interpretations histories and practices of Islamic law in different countries It finds that the political independence of judicial institutions is a far more important factor than the relative conservatism of the society This wide ranging book will provide new insights not only for those studying law and gender but for anyone with an interest in Islamic societies
