In this book Ousman Kobo analyzes the origins of Wahhabi inclined reform movements in two West African countries Commonly associated with recent Middle Eastern influences reform movements in Ghana and Burkina Faso actually began during the twilight of European colonial rule in the 1950s and developed from local doctrinal contests over Islamic orthodoxy These early movements in turn gradually evolved in ways sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas Kobo also illustrates the modernism of this style of Islamic reform The decisive factor for most of the movements was the alliance of secularly educated Muslim elites with Islamic scholars to promote a self consciously modern religiosity rooted in the Prophet Muhammad s traditions This book therefore provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Wahhabism

Intimate Relations Krupa Shandilya, 2017-01-15 Intimate Relations remaps the discussion on gender and the nation in South Asia through a close study of the domestic novel as a literary genre and a tool for social reform As a product of the intersection of literary and social reform movements in the late nineteenth century the domestic novel became a site for literary innovation and also for rethinking women's roles in society and politics Krupa Shandilya focuses primarily on social reform movements that negotiated the intimate relations between men and women in Hindu and Muslim society namely the widow remarriage act in Bengal 1856 and the education of women promoted by the Aligarh movement 1858 1900 Both movements were invested in recovering woman as a respectable subject for the Hindu and Muslim nation where respectability connoted asexual spirituality While most South Asian literary scholarship has focused on a normative Hindu woman Intimate Relations couples discussion of the representation of the widow in bhadralok upper caste middle class society with that of the courtesan of sharif upper class Muslim feudal society in Bengali and Urdu novels from the 1880s to the 1920s By drawing together their disparate histories in the context of contemporaneous social reform movements Shandilya reflects on the similarities of Hindu and Islamic constructions of the gendered nation Politically Incorrect Guide to Jihad William Kilpatrick, 2016-09-26 A book to challenge the status quo spark a debate and get people talking about the issues and questions we face as a country The Challenge of Modernizing Islam Christine Douglass-Williams, 2019-01-15 The entire foreign policy and much of the domestic policy of the United States and other Western governments is based on the proposition that the vast majority of Muslims are moderate and peaceful including those who are emigrating in large numbers to Europe and North America But as Islamist groups and many mosques radicalize peaceful Muslims and appeal to the teachings of the Koran Hadith and Sunnah it is imperative for moderates and reformists to articulate a vision of Islam and an exegesis of Islamic texts that can withstand the challenge of Islamists and the ulema who have declared the sanctity and immutability of the text Instead they must reestablish a firm foundation of Islam that is modernized genuinely peaceful tolerant pluralistic and compatible with secular governance the freedom of speech human rights and equality The Challenge of Modernizing Islam is the first major effort to provide that foundation Veteran journalist Christine Douglass Williams interviews foremost moderate and reformist Muslims in the Western world She asks them tough questions about how they deal with problematic Koran passages how they intend to get their message across to the Muslim world and more Their answers are revelatory even in the ways in which they disagree with one another Douglass Williams has captured the Islamic Reformist movement in its full intellectual ferment laying bare the tensions and triumphs of the Reformers In the book's second half she adds a crucial series of searingly honest and illuminating reflections on the challenges the reformers face the chances they have of succeeding and the implications of their struggle for the future of the Western world and of all free people Illuminating engaging and thought provoking The Challenge of Modernizing Islam is an essential text for understanding the future of the United States and the West and the implications of Muslim moderates struggle for the free world The Muslim Brotherhood in Kuwait Ali A.
