

A Refusal to Mourn the Death, by Fire, of a Child in London By Dylan Thomas

Never until the mankind making
Bird beast and flower
Fathering and all humbling darkness
Tells with silence the last light breaking
And the still hour
Is come of the sea tumbling in harness

And I must enter again the round
Zion of the water bead
And the synagogue of the ear of corn
Shall I let pray the shadow of a sound
Or sow my salt seed
In the least valley of sackcloth to mourn

The majesty and burning of the child's death.
I shall not murder
The mankind of her going with a grave truth
Nor blaspheme down the stations of the breath
With any further
Elegy of innocence and youth.

Deep with the first dead lies London's daughter,
Robed in the long friends,
The grains beyond age, the dark veins of her mother,
Secret by the unmourning water
Of the riding Thames.
After the first death, there is no other.

Poetry of Mourning Jahan Ramazani,1994-05-28 Through readings of elegies self elegies war poems and the blues this book covers a wide range of poets including Thomas Hardy Wilfred Owen Wallace Stevens Langston Hughes W H Auden Sylvia Plath and Seamus Heaney It is grounded in genre theory and in the psychoanalysis of mourning Belief and Uncertainty in the Poetry of Robert Frost Robert Pack,2003 A leading Frost critic guides the reader through some of the poet s most challenging verse Modernism and Mourning Patricia Rae,2007 The essays in Modernism and Mourning examine the work of mourning in modernist literature or more precisely its propensity for resisting this work Drawing from recent developments in the theory and cultural history of mourning its contributors explore the various ways in which modernist writers repudiate Freud s famous injunction to mourners to work through their grief endorsing instead a resistant or melancholic mourning that shapes both their themes and their radical experiments with form The emerging picture of the pervasive influence of melancholic mourning in modernist literature casts new light on longstanding critical arguments especially those about the politics of modernism It also makes clear the pertinence of this literature to the present day in which the catastrophic losses of 9 11 of retaliatory war of racially motivated genocide of the AIDS epidemic have made the work of mourning a subject of widespread interest and debate Patricia Rae is Head of the Department of English at Queen s University Language, Truth, and Literature Richard Gaskin,2013-04-18 Richard Gaskin offers an original defence of literary humanism according to which works of imaginative literature have an objective meaning which is fixed at the time of production and not subject to individual readers responses He shows that the appreciation of literature is a cognitive activity fully on a par with scientific investigation We Are What We Mourn Priscila Uppal,2009 The first book on the Canadian poetic elegy challenges all previous ideas about the purpose of mourning Three Faces of Mourning Salman Akhtar,2006-11 This small volume comprises primarily papers presented in 2001 at the 32nd Annual Margaret S Mahler Symposium on Child Development in Philadelphia Pennsylvania Mourning and the importance of the capacity to bear some helplessness while still finding pleasure in life are central to this tightly organized volume The multi faceted processes involved in mourning and adaptation are addressed Expectably Mahler s conceptual contributions are liberally referenced throughout the volume separation individuation libidinal object constancy the unavoidable losses of developmental changes and mourning of the loss of one ness In keeping with the design of the symposium the book is organized around four primary chapters presentations each followed by a discussion chapter The unifying theme is mourning of the loss of a primary object either early in life or in adulthood Ezekiel's Sign-Acts Tyler D. Mayfield, Penelope Barter,2024-11-04 The Ezekiel passages describing the instructions for and dramatization of divine messages Ezekiel 3 5 12 24 37 are among the most bizarre in the Hebrew Bible The prophet is commanded to embody his message of judgment to Jerusalem and these actions clarify the oracles they surround Yet these sign acts are frequently overlooked within Ezekiel studies which tend to focus on the book's strange visions and controversial oracles This volume addresses the growing diversity in approaches in Ezekiel studies by inviting international senior and junior scholars to focus on the texts concerning Ezekiel's sign acts It aims to redirect scholarly attention to these often ignored texts which stand so central to understanding the nature of prophecy as well as the overall book of Ezekiel

War and Remembrance in the Twentieth Century Jay Winter, Jay Murray Winter, Emmanuel Sivan, 2000-08-27 How war has been remembered collectively is the central question in this volume War in the twentieth century is a vivid and traumatic phenomenon which left behind it survivors who engage time and time again in acts of remembrance This volume containing essays by outstanding scholars of twentieth century history focuses on the issues raised by the shadow of war in this century The behaviour not of whole societies or of ruling groups alone but of the individuals who do the work of remembrance is discussed by examining the traumatic collective memory resulting from the horrors of the First World War the Spanish Civil War the Second World War and the Algerian War By studying public forms of remembrance such as museums and exhibitions literature and film the editors have succeeded in bringing together a volume which demonstrates that a popular kind of collective memory is still very much alive

Modernist Mysteries: Persephone Tamara Levitz, 2012-08-15 Modernist Mysteries Pers phone is a landmark study that will move the field of musicology in important new directions The book presents a microhistorical analysis of the premiere of the melodrama Pers phone at the Paris Opera on April 30th 1934 engaging with the collaborative transnational nature of the production Author Tamara Levitz demonstrates how these collaborators Igor Stravinsky Andr Gide Jacques Copeau and Ida Rubinstein among others used the myth of Persephone to perform and articulate their most deeply held beliefs about four topics significant to modernism religion sexuality death and historical memory in art In investigating the aesthetic and political consequences of the artists diverging perspectives and the fall out of their titanic clash on the theater stage Levitz dismantles myths about neoclassicism as a musical style The result is a revisionary account of modernism in music in the 1930s As a result of its focus on the collaborative performance this book differs from traditional accounts of musical modernism and neoclassicism in several ways First and foremost it centers on the performance of modernism highlighting the theatrical performative and sensual Levitz places Christianity in the center of the discussion and questions the national distinctions common in modernist research by involving a transnational team of collaborators She further breaks new ground in shifting the focus from history to memory by emphasizing the commemorative nature of neoclassic listening rituals over the historicist stylization of its scores and contends that modernists captured on stage and in philosophical argument their simultaneous need and inability to mourn the past The book as a whole counters the common criticism that neoclassicism was a reactionary musical style by suggesting a more pluralistic ambivalent and sometimes even progressive politics and reconnects musical neoclassicism with a queer classicist tradition extending from Winckelmann through Walter Pater to Gide Modernist Mysteries concludes that 1930s modernists understood neoclassicism not as formalist compositional approaches but rather as a vitalist art haunted by ghosts of the past and promissory visions of the future

The Death of Things Sarah Wasserman, 2020-10-20 A comprehensive study of ephemera in twentieth century literature and its relevance to the twenty first century Nothing ever really disappears from the internet has become a common warning of the digital age But the twentieth century was filled with ephemera items that were designed to disappear forever and these objects played crucial roles in some of that century's greatest works of literature In The Death of Things author Sarah Wasserman delivers the first comprehensive study addressing the role ephemera played in twentieth century fiction and its relevance to contemporary digital culture Representing the experience of perpetual change and loss ephemera was central to great works by major novelists like Don DeLillo Ralph Ellison and Marilynne Robinson Following the lives and deaths of objects Wasserman imagines new uses of urban space new forms of visibility for marginalized groups and new conceptions of the marginal itself She also inquires into present day conundrums our fascination with the durable our concerns with the digital and our curiosity about what new fictional narratives have to say about deletion and preservation The Death of Things offers readers fascinating original angles on how objects shape our world Creating an alternate literary history of the twentieth century Wasserman delivers an insightful and idiosyncratic journey through objects that were once vital but are now forgotten

Rethinking the Politics of Absurdity Matthew H. Bowker, 2013-11-12 What does it mean to describe something or someone as absurd Why did absurd philosophy and literature become so popular amidst the violent conflicts and terrors of the mid to late twentieth century Is it possible to understand absurdity not as a feature of events but as a psychological posture or stance If so what are the objectives dynamics and repercussions of the absurd stance And in what ways has the absurd stance continued to shape postmodern thought and contemporary culture In Rethinking the Politics of Absurdity Matthew H Bowker offers a surprising account of absurdity as a widespread endeavor to make parts of our experience meaningless In the last century he argues fears about subjects destructive desires have combined with fears about rationality in a way that has made the absurd stance seem attractive Drawing upon diverse sources from philosophy literature politics psychoanalysis theology and contemporary culture Bowker identifies the absurd effort to make aspects of our histories our selves and our public projects meaningless with postmodern revolts against reason and subjectivity Weaving together analyses of the work of Albert Camus Georges Bataille Judith Butler Emmanuel Levinas and others with interview data and popular narratives of apocalypse and survival Bowker shows that the absurd stance and the postmodern revolt invite a kind of bargain in which meaning is sacrificed in exchange for the survival of innocence Bowker asks us to consider that the very premise of this bargain is false that ethical subjects and healthy communities cannot be created in absurdity Instead we must make meaningful even the most shocking losses terrors and destructive powers with which we live Bowker's book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners in the fields of political science philosophy literature psychoanalysis sociology and cultural studies
