Scriptures Of East:

The Scripture Gazetteer William Fleming,1837 The Doctrine of Scripture Brad East,2021-08-27 When Holy Scripture is read aloud in the liturgy the church confesses with joy and thanksgiving that it has heard the word of the Lord What does it mean to make that confession And why does it occasion praise The doctrine of Scripture is a theological investigation into those and related questions and this book is an exploration of that doctrine It argues backward from the church's liturgical practice presupposing the truth of the Christian confession namely that the canon does in fact mediate the living word of the risen Christ to and for his people What must be true of the sacred texts of Old and New Testament alike for such confession and the practices of worship in which they are embedded to be warranted By way of an answer the book examines six aspects of the doctrine of Scripture its source nature attributes ends interpretation and authority The result is a catholic and ecumenical presentation of the historic understanding of the Bible common to the people of God across the centuries an understanding rooted in the church's sacred tradition in service to the gospel and redounding to the glory of the triune God The Oxford Handbook of the Bible in Korea Won W. Lee,2022 Provides the first in depth Handbook about the Bible in Korea Explores how faith communities in Korea and Korean diaspora use the Bible in their religious cultural socio political and immigrant contexts Includes chapters from 24 theologically and culturally diverse Korean scholars Book jacket

Esoteric Buddhism and Texts Jinhua Chen,2024-02-08 This book explores trans cultural and cross border transmission and transformation of Esoteric Buddhism in East Asia focusing on its manuscript culture and the transborder transmission of Esoteric Buddhist texts In East Asia Esoteric Buddhism's influences can be seen across all levels of society not only in that it achieved a recognizable sectarian identity but also because elements of esoteric teachings were absorbed by other religious schools influencing their philosophical tenets and everyday practices The influence was not confined to the religious sphere scholars have been paying more and more attention to the significance of Tang Esoteric Buddhism in relation to material culture and the dissemination of Esoteric Buddhist technologies in South Central and East Asia No matter how one looks at a maṇi an integral feature of esoteric practice or the uncannily expressive statues of Buddhas Bodhisattvas or Yidam that come in all shapes and sizes or the murals that depict the variegated mysterious themes of the esoteric tradition one can always recognise the profound connection between art and Esoteric Buddhism Esoteric influences also abound in East Asian literature across different genres displaying its unique characters both in poetry and prose Likewise in architecture one can readily make out the enigmatic colorful and distinctive elements characteristic of the esoteric tradition Monks initiated into the esoteric lineages not only brought Buddhist classics and practices to China but also advanced knowledge in astronomy calendrical calculations and mathematical theories The chapters in this volume focus on two major aspects of textual Esoteric Buddhism its manuscript culture and transborder transmission This book will be beneficial to advanced students and researchers interested in Religious Studies History and Buddhist studies It was originally published as a special issue of

Together with a History of the Religious Denominations of the World, Etc David Meyrick EVANS,1874 The Holy Bible ,1811 The Sūtra of Perfect Enlightenment ,1999-02-25

The Sūtra of Perfect Enlightenment used in monastic education for more than a millennium is a concise guide to the key paradigms of the practice systems of the East Asian meditational schools Ch'an and Zen. Contained in its twelve chapters are definitive explanations of the meaning of innate and actualized enlightenment, sudden and gradual enlightenment, the true nature of ignorance and suffering, along with numerous examples of methods of contemplation that accord with and reflect the basic Ch'an views on enlightenment and practice. Although the Sutra was popular throughout the East Asian region, it attained its highest canonical status within the Korean Chogyŏ school, where it is still a key text in the core curriculum of modern-day monks and nuns. The Sutra is translated here in full, along with the eloquent and revelatory commentary of the Ch'ŏn monk Kihwa (1376-1433).

Scripture Illustrations from the Domestic Life of the Jews and Other Eastern Nations John Eadie,1877 The Formation of Ch'an Ideology in China and Korea Robert E. Buswell, Jr.,2017-03-14

This book is a translation and study of the Vajrasamādhi Sūtra and an examination of its broad implications for the development of East Asian Buddhism. The Vajrasamādhi Sūtra was traditionally assumed to have been translated from Sanskrit, but some modern scholars, principally in Japan, have proposed that it is instead an indigenous Chinese composition. In contrast to both of these views, Robert Buswell maintains it was written in Korea around A.D. 685 by a Korean adept affiliated with the East Mountain school of the nascent Chinese Ch'an tradition. He thus considers it to be the oldest work of Korean Ch'an or Son, which in Japan became known as the Zen school, and the second oldest work of the Sinitic Ch'an tradition as a whole. Buswell makes his case for the scripture's dating, authorship, and provenance by placing the Sutra in the context of Buddhist doctrinal writings and early Ch'an literature in China and Korea. This approach leads him to an extensive analysis of the origins of Ch'an ideology in both countries and of the principal trends in the sinicization of Buddhism. Buddhism has typically been studied in terms of independent national traditions, but Buswell maintains that the history of religion in China, Korea, and Japan should be treated as a whole. Ancient Readers and their Scriptures Garrick Allen, John Anthony Dunne, 2018-10-08

Ancient Readers and their Scriptures explores the various ways that ancient Jewish and Christian writers engaged with and interpreted the Hebrew Bible in antiquity focusing on physical mechanics of rewriting and reuse modes of allusion and quotation texts and text forms text collecting and the development of interpretative traditions Contributions examine the use of the Hebrew Bible and its early versions in a variety of ancient corpora including the Septuagint Dead Sea Scrolls New Testament and Rabbinic works analysing the vast array of textual permutations that define ancient engagement with Jewish scripture This volume argues that the processes of reading and cognition influenced by the physical and intellectual contexts of interpretation are central aspects of ancient biblical interpretation that are underappreciated in current scholarship
