Schaefer-Simmern,2003-01-01 "Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950?965 " Simon Pierse,2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital s most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market Art in Europe Victoria Charles,2014-06-12 The European continent gathers together without a doubt the most famous works of art evidence of the history of Western art The cultural capitals and their emblematic museums contain paintings sculptures or rather works of art devised by the great artists representative of European culture From Madrid to London passing through Prague the major works of the old continent are presented here Thanks to detailed information about the museums and their collections you too can explore and discover Europe s fascinating cultural heritage Sculpture Collections in Europe and the United States 1500-1930

,2021-04-26 Exploring the variety of forms taken by collections of sculpture this volume presents new research by twelve internationally recognized scholars The essays delve into the motivations of different collectors the modes of display and the aesthetics of viewing sculpture bringing to light much new archival material The book underscores the ambiguous nature of sculpture collections variously understood as decorative components of interiors or gardens as objects of desire in cabinets of curiosity or as autonomous works of art in private and public collections Emphasizing the collections and the ways in which these were viewed and described this book addresses a significant but neglected aspect of art collecting and contributes to the literature on this branch of art and cultural history This book evolved from a symposium Sculpture Collecting and Display 1600 2000 organized by the Center for the History of Collecting that was held at The Frick Collection on May 19 and 20 2017 Both the book and the symposium were made possible through the generous support of the Robert H Smith Family Foundation The book is published in association with The Frick Collection The American Magazine of Art ,1922 Hot

Art, Cold War - Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945-1990 Claudia Hopkins,Iain Boyd Whyte,2020-12-21 Hot Art Cold War Southern and Eastern European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 is one of two text anthologies that trace the reception of American art in Europe during the Cold War era through primary sources Translated into English for the first time from sixteen languages and introduced by scholarly essays the texts in this volume offer a representative selection of the diverse responses to American art in Portugal Italy Spain Greece Yugoslavia Romania Bulgaria Soviet Union including the Baltic States Czechoslovakia Poland Hungary and East Germany GDR There was no single European discourse as attitudes to American art were determined by a wide range of ideological political social cultural and artistic positions that varied considerably across the European nations This volume and its companion Hot Art Cold War Northern and Western European Writing on American Art 1945 1990 offer the reader a unique opportunity to compare how European art writers introduced and explained contemporary American art to their many and varied audiences Whilst many are fluent in one or two foreign languages few are able to read all twenty five languages represented in the two volumes These ground breaking publications significantly enrich the fields of American art studies and European art criticism

European Painting and Sculpture, Ca. 1770-1937, in the Museum of Art, Rhode Island School of Design Rhode Island School of Design.
