The Quattro Cento Adrian Stokes,2002 Adrian Stokes 1902 1972 was a British painter and author whose writings on art have been allowed to go out of print despite their impact on Modernism and ongoing acclaim for their beauty and intellectual acuity Two of his most influential books The Quattro Cento of 1932 and Stones of Rimini of 1934 are brought together for the first time in this new volume which includes all their original illustrations This new edition also provides a foreword by Stephen Bann and introductions by David Carrier and Stephen Kite that place Stokes's masterworks in the context of early twentieth century culture and discuss their structure and relevance to today's experience of art and architecture. Written as parts of an incomplete trilogy The Quattro Cento and Stones of Rimini mark a crossroads in the transition from late Victorian to Modernist conceptions of art especially sculpture and architecture. Stokes continued even extended John Ruskin's and Walter Pater's belief that art is essential to the individual's proper psychological development but wove their teaching into a new aesthetic shaped by his analysis with Melanie Klein and recent innovations in literature, dance and the visual arts. Few writers have been able to invoke the material presence of works of art in the way Stokes does in The Quattro Cento and Stones of Rimini. They combine travel writing with acts of looking spun out so as to reinterpret the imposing legacy of the Italian Renaissance through an aesthetic of the direct carving of stone which has parallels in the sculpture of Henry Moore and Barbara Hepworth but was for Stokes the discovery of artists in fifteenth century Italy. To his way of thinking there then arose a realization that the materials of art were the actual objects of inspiration the stocks for the deepest fantasies. During the Renaissance Stokes maintained stone accordingly blossomed into sculpture and buildings.
