History of Early Childhood Education V. Celia Lascarides, Blythe F. Hinitz, 2013-05-13 History of Early Childhood Education presents a thorough and elegant description of the history of early childhood education in the United States This book of original research is a concise compendium of historical literature combining history with the prominent and influential theoretical background of the time Covering historical threads that reach from ancient Greece and Rome to the early childhood education programs of today this in depth and well written volume captures the deep tradition and the creative knowledge base of early care and education History of Early Childhood Education is an essential resource for every early childhood education scholar student and educator Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1980-1994 Rebecca Stuhr, 1997 This bibliography provides extensive descriptive annotations of nearly 500 autobiographies published by Americans of color during the years 1980 and 1994 The authors of these narratives range from established writers such as Nikki Giovanni Maxine Hong Kingston and Richard Rodriguez to unknown writers compelled to relate their part in the civil rights movement recall their family history as sharecroppers recount experiences in the Japanese internment camps or in Indian boarding schools or describe their struggle to succeed and contribute despite immense hardship and difficulty Among these autobiographies the reader will also find those of sports celebrities actors explorers and entrepreneurs This bibliography brings together at one access point an important body of work making it possible for the reader or researcher to identify and locate these books either through booksellers or through libraries This volume constitutes volume one of a two book series volume two is titled Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1995-2000 Chinese Narrative Andrew H. Plaks, 2014-07-14 Although Chinese narrative and especially the genres of colloquial fiction have been subjected to intensive scholarly scrutiny no comprehensive volume has provided a framework that would permit an overall view of the tradition The distinguished contributors to this volume have taken an important first step in making possible the consideration of Chinese narrative at the level of comparative and general literary scholarship Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal, 1895 Culture & History of Postrevolutionary China Arif Dirlik, 2011-11-24 The essays in this volume grew from a series of talks delivered in late 2010 as the Liang Qichao Memorial Lectures at the Academy of National Learning Guoxue yuan of Tsinghua University Beijing Offering critical perspectives on a number of ideological issues that have figured prominently in Chinese intellectual discourse since the beginning of the so-called reform and opening gaige kaifang in the late 1970s these essays range widely in subject matter from Marxist historiography to sociology and anthropology in China to guoxue national studies Together they are conceived as different windows into a basic problem the deployment of culture and history in postrevolutionary Chinese thought Dirlik touches on a number of themes including the repudiation of the revolutionary past after 1978 which has led to a rise of cultural nationalism He further places these developments within a global context ultimately making a case methodologically for worlding China bringing China into the world and the world into China Chinese Immigrants in Idaho Li-hua Yu,1991
