Season of Forgetfulness

To get away from the hurt and humiliation of seeing her ex-blancé married to another girl, Valancy had gone off to work as secretary to the author Godfrey Carmichael, who was also embittered by the break-up of his engagement to the gentle Kathleen. The treatment worked, even better than Valancy had thought it might, and she found herself forgetting Justin in her new love for Godfrey. And then Godfrey suggested she marry him — but only, Valancy knew only too well, because he thought she was suitable. Could she coldbloodedly marry a man who was so obviously hankering after someone else?
