Seasons Of Faith And Conscience Kairos Confession Liturgy:

Seasons of Faith and Conscience Bill Wylie-Kellermann, 2008-11-07 Seasons of Faith and Conscience challenges religious activists and the wider church with an answer to the question What is the connection between faith and politics Every act of worship Kellermann says every occasion where the sovereignty of the word of God is acknowledged is always and everywhere expressly political In a profound biblical and theological reflection Kellermann begins by investigating the political implications of worship and liturgy both in the Hebrew Bible and in the New Testament He goes on to review the history of confessional politics those situations in which Christians have felt their historical situation to be so grave as to call into question the very identity of the church Recent examples include the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany and the Kairos document from South Africa Kellermann explores analogies in our own situation the continuing arms buildup the international debt system and the war against the poor in the Third World Seasons of Faith and Conscience concludes with a series of moving meditations on the key seasons and events of the liturgical calendar Advent Christmas Epiphany Lent Easter and Pentecost
