This book focuses on the significantly under explored relationship between televisual culture and adaptation studies in what is now commonly regarded as the Golden Age of contemporary TV drama. Adaptable TV: Rewiring the Text does not simply concentrate on traditional types of adaptation such as reboots, remakes and sequels but broadens the scope of enquiry to examine a diverse range of experimental adaptive types that are emerging within an ever changing TV landscape. With a particular focus on the serial narrative form and with case studies that include Penny Dreadful, Fargo, The Night Of and Orange Is the New Black, this study is essential reading for anyone who is interested in the complex interplay between television studies and adaptation studies.

This book treats privacy loss as a feature of modern society that needs to be better understood, examined and analyzed.

LEXX Unauthorized, Series 2: The Light at the End of the Universe D.G. Valdrón, 1900 LEXX Unauthorized Series 2 The continuing story of Kai, an undead assassin; Zev, a combination of love slave and cluster lizard; Stanley Tweedle, a hapless security guard; and 790, a robot head careening through space together in the LEXX, a stolen planet-destroying biological warship shaped like a dragonfly. In the second series, the crew travel through space searching for a new home or at least a good time while in their wake a mysterious force is destroying the universe. LEXX was one of the strangest and most wildly surreal space operas ever conceived, owing as much to Luis Buñuel and Alejandro Jodorowsky as to Star Trek and Star Wars. It was unique and unforgettable, mixing black comedy and absurdism with epic drama and an astonishing visual sense. Backstage, the story of the creation of the series was even more extraordinary, a tale of regional Atlantic film makers, renegade artists, cult film makers, wild experimentation, Canadian cultural nationalism, German entrepreneurs, new computer-generated imagery technologies and backstage chaos.
