The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Art, Visual Culture, and Climate Change T. J. Demos, Emily Eliza Scott, Subhankar Banerjee, 2021-02-25 International in scope this volume brings together leading and emerging voices working at the intersection of contemporary art visual culture activism and climate change and addresses key questions such as why and how do art and visual culture and their ethics and values matter with regard to a world increasingly shaped by climate breakdown Foregrounding a decolonial and climate justice based approach this book joins efforts within the environmental humanities in seeking to widen considerations of climate change as it intersects with social political and cultural realms It simultaneously expands the nascent branches of ecocritical art history and visual culture and builds toward the advancement of a robust and critical interdisciplinarity appropriate to the complex entanglements of climate change This book will be of special interest to scholars and practitioners of contemporary art and visual culture environmental studies cultural geography and political ecology Black Artists in British Art Eddie Chambers, 2014-07-29 Black artists have been making major contributions to the British art scene for decades since at least the mid twentieth century Sometimes these artists were regarded and embraced as practitioners of note At other times they faced challenges of visibility and in response they collaborated and made their own exhibitions and gallery spaces In this book Eddie Chambers tells the story of these artists from the 1950s onwards including recent developments and successes Black Artists in British Art makes a major contribution to British art history Beginning with discussions of the pioneering generation of artists such as Ronald Moody Aubrey Williams and Frank Bowling Chambers candidly discusses the problems and progression of several generations including contemporary artists such as Steve McQueen Chris Ofili and Yinka Shonibare Meticulously researched this important book tells the fascinating story of practitioners who have frequently been overlooked in the dominant history of twentieth century British art Encyclopedia of African History Kevin Shillington, 2005 Offers more than one thousand entries covering all aspects of African history civilization and culture New Spaces for Negotiating Art (and) Histories in Africa Kerstin Pinther, Berit Fischer, Ugochukwu-Smooth C. Nzewi, 2015 In the 1990s a new wave of globalization changed the field of cultural production in many African countries and paved the way for major new cultural events In particular during the last two decades an ever growing series of art and cultural centers were and still are being established often against the background of broader national art histories and the historic prominence of the state as the primary patron of the arts In considering the historical genealogy of these new spaces this book examines the infrastructures and public spaces they create the theoretical discourses they tap into and explore the aesthetic and cultural political debates they stir the role they play in the field of cultural institutions and cultural activism and their relations with state and municipal institutions Series African Art and Visual Cultures Vol 2 Subject African Studies Cultural Studies Art Art History and Fetishism Abroad Gabriele Genge, Angela Stercken, 2014-12-15 By focusing on the various modes and media of the fetishised object this anthology shifts the debates on thingness into a new global art historical perspective. The contributors explore the attention given to those material images in both artistic and cultural practice from the heyday of colonial expansion until today They show that in becoming vehicles and agents of transculturality so called fetishes take shape in the 17th to 19th century
