The Quakers, 1656-1723 Richard C. Allen, Rosemary Moore, 2018-11-02 This landmark volume is the first in a century to examine the Second Period of Quakerism a time when the Religious Society of Friends experienced upheavals in theology authority and institutional structures and political trajectories as a result of the persecution Quakers faced in the first decades of the movement s existence The authors and special contributors explore the early growth of Quakerism assess important developments in Quaker faith and practice and show how Friends coped with the challenges posed by external and internal threats in the final years of the Stuart age not only in Europe and North America but also in locations such as the Caribbean This groundbreaking collection sheds new light on a range of subjects including the often tense relations between Quakers and the authorities the role of female Friends during the Second Period the effect of major industrial development on Quakerism and comparisons between founder George Fox and the younger generation of Quakers such as Robert Barclay George Keith and William Penn Accessible well researched and seamlessly comprehensive The Quakers 1656 1723 promises to reinvigorate a conversation largely ignored by scholarship over the last century and to become the definitive work on this important era in Quaker history In addition to the authors the contributors are Erin Bell Raymond Brown J William Frost Emma Lapsansky Werner Robynne Rogers Healey Alan P F Sell and George Southcombe Marine Engineer and Motorship Builder, 1918 The Family Herald, 1880 Scottish Notes and Queries John Bulloch, 1901 Celtic Shakespeare Rory Loughnane, 2016-04-08 Drawing together some of the leading academics in the field of Shakespeare studies this volume examines the commonalities and differences in addressing a notionally Celtic Shakespeare Celtic contexts have been established for many of Shakespeare's plays and there has been interest too in the ways in which Irish Scottish and Welsh critics editors and translators have reimagined Shakespeare claiming connecting with and correcting him This collection fills a major gap in literary criticism by bringing together the best scholarship on the individual nations of Ireland Scotland and Wales in a way that emphasizes cultural crossovers and crucibles of conflict The volume is divided into three chronologically ordered sections Tudor Reflections Stuart Revisions and Celtic Afterlives This division of essays directs attention to Shakespeare's transformed treatment of national identity in plays written respectively in the reigns of Elizabeth and James but also takes account of later regional receptions and the cultural impact of the playwright's dramatic works The first two sections contain fresh readings of a number of the individual plays and pay particular attention to the ways in which Shakespeare attends to contemporary understandings of national identity in the light of recent history Juxtaposing this material with subsequent critical receptions of Shakespeare's works from Milton to Shaw this volume addresses a significant critical lacuna in Shakespearean criticism Rather than reading these plays from a solitary national perspective the essays in this volume cohere in a wide ranging treatment of Shakespeare's direct and oblique references to the archipelago and the problematic issue of national identity Thomas Jefferson's Washington Architect: William B. Thornton Michelle Graye, 2014-05-19 This amazing book originally published privately by Dr William Thornton chief architect for the Washington Capitol is now available in a Lulu Modern First Trade Paperback edition Fascinating look at how Thomas Jefferson worked with an architect that was of the same mindset as his which was genius level Scottish Notes and Queries John Malcolm Bulloch, John Alexander Henderson, 1901 The London Gazette Great Britain, 1840 Who's who Henry Robert Addison, Charles Henry Oakes, William John Lawson, Douglas Brooke Wheelton Sladen, 1963 An annual biographical dictionary with which is incorporated Men and women of the time The Draper's Record, 1894 The Engineer, 1887
