Loss Understanding The Emptiness:

Loss Eileen Kuehn, 2001 Describes how the loss of loved ones affect teenagers and the various ways in which they react to loss and suggests techniques to cope with loss and help grieving friends The Two Truths in Chinese Buddhism □□

□, 2004-01-01 This book originates from a thesis work whereby it is one of the first comprehensive study of Chi Tsang's treatment of The Two Truths in English The work aims to build up a strong interest in readers particularly people in Western societies who are unfamiliar with Chinese tradition culture and language The topic is not only important in the theoretical approach but also critical to a practitioner to comprehend Chinese Buddhism for its ability to be a good reference work

Understanding Grief Alan Wolfelt, 2013-06-17 This classic resource helps guide the bereaved person through the loss of a loved one and provides an opportunity to learn to live with and work through the personal grief process Culture and Depression Arthur Kleinman, Byron J. Good, 2023-04-28

Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies agreements and conceptual and methodological problems that arise in the course of such research A book of enormous depth and breadth of discussion Culture and Depression enriches the cross cultural study of emotions and mental illness and leads it in new directions It commences with a historical study followed by a series of anthropological accounts that examine the problems that arise when depression is assessed in other cultures This is a work of impressive scholarship which demonstrates that anthropological approaches to affect and illness raise central questions for psychiatry and psychology and that cross cultural studies of depression raise equally provocative questions for anthropology This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Some of the most innovative and provocative work on the emotions and illness is occurring in cross cultural research on depression Culture and Depression presents the work of anthropologists psychiatrists and psychologists who examine the controversies

Lost Beyond Telling Richard Howard Stamelman, 1990 In seeking to give voice to absent things or lost experiences Richard Stamelman says modern poetry attempts to give absence a shape Loss in his view is both the cause and the subject of the modern poem Fittingly in Lost beyond Telling he formulates and develops what he calls a poetics of loss with which he frames his treatment of modern French poetry Loss, Grief and Existential Awareness Mai-Britt Guldin, Carlo Leget, 2024-12-17

Loss Grief and Existential Awareness introduces the Integrated Process Model IPM a new interdisciplinary and interprofessional model for grief research education and accompaniment that distinguishes and integrates five dimensions of grief physical emotional cognitive social and spiritual Central in this book is the insight that grief is connected to love because it is rooted in losing

what is meaningful and dear to us Once we recognize this grief can become a window to existential awareness Combining research on the physical emotional cognitive social and spiritual dimensions of grief the integrated process approach connects this quest for a personal and authentic answer to the big questions in life with the philosophical and therapeutic tradition of existential thinking Structured in an accessible informative manner with gradual information building the book presents the IPM approach at the beginning and then turns to it as a model throughout the book so the reader gradually will start to deepen their understanding and memorize the framework The structure is enhanced with boxes with existential reflections and exercises to engage the reader and case presentations of grieving persons who are followed throughout the book This book is meant for everyone who is interested in a deeper understanding of how loss and grief can help opening the door to a more meaningful way of living It is especially helpful for healthcare professionals therapists counsellors chaplains and researchers

Your Mind Is Your Teacher Khenpo Gawang, 2013-07-02 Through Contemplative Meditation we learn to investigate reality by looking carefully at our own mind and everyday life We come to know ourselves very well not only the negative habits we want to change but our innate potential to find peace happiness and wisdom In this practice we will discover that the secret to success lies in developing the right mental attitude which is the wish to benefit others

The Void A. H. Almaas, 2000-09-05 The first volume in an eye opening series on the Diamond Mind a deep understanding of human nature that combines Freudian psychology with Eastern philosophy and spirituality In this book the founder of the Diamond Approach brings together concepts and experiences drawn from contemporary object relations theory Freudian based ego psychology case studies from his own spiritual practice and teachings from the highest levels of Buddhist and other Eastern practices He challenges us to look not only at the personality and the content of the mind but also at the underlying nature of the mind itself

Steps on the Path to Enlightenment Lhundub Sopa, 2017-12-12 The final installment of the Steps on the Path to Enlightenment series examines the nature of reality with a master class in Buddhist Middle Way philosophy and meditation The late Geshe Sopa was a refugee monk from Tibet sent to the United States by the Dalai Lama in 1963 He became a professor at the University of Wisconsin training a generation of Western Buddhist scholars and was a towering figure in the transmission of the Buddhism to the West In this fifth and final volume of his commentary on Lama Tsongkhapa's masterwork on the graduated steps of the Buddhist path Geshe Sopa explains the practice of superior insight or wisdom the pinnacle of the bodhisattva's perfections All the Buddhist practices are for the purpose of developing wisdom for it is wisdom that liberates from the cycle of suffering All other positive actions from morality to deep states of meditation have no power to liberate unless they are accompanied by insight into the nature of reality With unparalleled precision Geshe Sopa unpacks this central principle with scholarly virtuosity guiding the reader through the progressive stages of realization
